G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The District Courts Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, to bring into operation with respect to any District Court, from and after a day to be named in such Proclamation, either the whole of the said Act or such sections thereof as to him may seem fit:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority vested in me for this purpose, do hereby proclaim and declare that on the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the said "District Courts Jurisdiction Extension Act, 1866," shall come into operation with respect to

"The District Court of Hawke's Bay."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this third day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

W. GISBORNE.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Auckland, this fourth day of May, 1870.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Disturbed Districts Act, 1869," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, from time to time to appoint special sittings of the Supreme Court, to be held at such times and places, and before such one or more Judges of the Supreme Court, as the Governor shall from time to time by any Order in Council fix and appoint, for the trial of persons accused or suspected of offences within the meaning of the said Act:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby appoint a special sitting of the Supreme Court to be held at the Supreme Court House at the Town of Wellington, in the Province of Wellington, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, on the twenty-seventh day of June, before Alexander James Johnston, Esquire, a Judge of the said Supreme Court, for the trial of persons accused or suspected of offences within the meaning of the said Act.

HENRY D. PITT, Capt., R.A.,
Private Secretary
(for Clerk of the Executive Council).

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Auckland, this fourth day of May, 1870.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Disturbed Districts Act, 1869," it is enacted that where in "The Jury Act, 1868," any act, matter, or thing in relation to the issue or delivery of Jury process, or selection of Jurors, or summoning of Jurors or otherwise, is required to be done at or within a particular time or period of time therein mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to order that, for the purpose of any special sitting of the Supreme Court appointed as in the said Act mentioned, such act, matter, or thing shall be done at or within some other and shorter, or earlier or later time, as he may think fit: And whereas by "The Disturbed Districts Act, 1869," it is also enacted that if at any time it shall appear to the Governor in Council expedient that, for the purposes of any such special sitting of the Supreme Court, a jury list should be formed or jurors should be selected or summoned in a different manner from that now provided by law, or that any provision of "The Jury Act, 1868," should be suspended, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to declare that "The Jury Act, 1868," or any part or parts thereof, shall not apply to trials to be held at such special sitting, and that, for the purposes of such special sittings, juries shall be formed of and from such persons or in such manner as shall be in accordance with Rules to be from time to time made by the Governor: And for the purpose of any such special sitting it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to make Rules, and the same from time to time to revoke or alter, prescribing what persons shall be liable to serve on such juries, or providing for the formation of lists of persons liable to serve as jurors, or for the issuing of jury process, or for the summoning of jurors, or for selecting from such lists the jurors to be summoned, or for the challenging of jurors on the part of the Crown or the person informed against, or for selecting juries from the jurors summoned, and, generally, for the formation of juries for the trial of informations exhibited at any such special sitting of the Supreme Court, and, generally, in and by such Rules to make such other provision as the Governor may think fit in lieu of any part of "The Jury Act, 1868," which may have been suspended, and also in and by any such Rules to fix and appoint pecuniary penalties for the breach of any such Rules, which penalties shall be recovered in a summary way before any two or more Justices of the Peace: Provided that as to any penalties for neglect or refusal to attend or serve on any such jury, the Judge or Judges before whom any such special sitting shall be held shall have the same power of enforcing such penalty as the Supreme Court or any Judge thereof now hath in like cases in the exercise of the ordinary criminal jurisdiction of such Court: Provided, however, in such cases, the juries shall consist of such number of jurors, not less than five nor more than twelve, as the Judge or Judges before whom any information is to be tried shall in each case direct, and the verdict of every such jury shall be an unanimous verdict:

And whereas, by an Order in Council bearing even date herewith, a special sitting of the Supreme Court has been appointed under the said Act to be held at the Supreme Court House, at Wellington, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, on the twenty-seventh day of June, before Alexander James Johnston, Esquire, a Judge of the Supreme Court: And whereas it is expedient that, for the purposes of the said special sitting of the Supreme Court, so much of the twenty-first section of "The Jury Act, 1868," as provides that the Jury precept mentioned in the said section shall be delivered to the Sheriff or other person to whom the same is directed fourteen days before the same is returnable, should be suspended:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby declare that such part of the twenty-first section of "The Jury Act, 1868," as provides that the Jury precept mentioned in the said section shall be delivered to the Sheriff or other person to whom the same is directed fourteen days before the same is returnable, shall not apply to the trials to be held at the said special sitting, but that the said precept shall be issued to the Sheriff or other person to whom the same is directed not less than seven days before the same is returnable.

HENRY D. PITT, Capt., R.A.,
Private Secretary
(for Clerk of the Executive Council).

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this thirteenth day of June, 1870.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The District Courts Amendment Act, 1865," it is enacted that the powers conferred on Judges of District Courts in and by the twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, and twenty-seventh sections of "The District Courts Act, 1858," shall be exercised only within such districts as shall from time to time be named by the Governor, by Order in Council published in the New Zealand Gazette, as districts within which such powers may be exercised:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise of the power and authority so vested in him as aforesaid, doth, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, name and appoint the District consisting of the Province of Hawke's Bay, and that portion of territory within the Province of Auckland bounded on the South by the boundary line separating the Provinces of Auckland and Hawke's Bay; on the West-north-west by a straight line from the point of intersection of the said boundary line and the overland mail track from Napier to Auckland, across Lake Waikari to Lottin Point, between Cape Runaway and East Cape; on the North and East by the sea from Lottin Point to the said boundary line at Boat Harbour, as a district within which the Judge of the District Court of Hawke's Bay may exercise the powers conferred by the twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, and twenty-seventh sections of "The District Courts Act, 1858."

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

WHEREAS I did, by a Commission bearing date the fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, authorize and appoint you the said David Forsyth Main and Thomas Cass to be Commissioners to hear and receive, on oath or otherwise as you might think fit, the evidence of all such persons as should be able to give evidence before you or either of you touching a certain claim of one George Hempelman, and touching certain other matters in the said Commission set forth, and to report your several proceedings and opinion touching the premises; and I did thereby enjoin you, within two calendar months after the date of the said Commission, to certify to me, under your hands and seals, your several proceedings and your opinion touching the premises: And whereas it is expedient to extend the period within which you the said Commissioners were by the said Commission required to make your report:

Now know ye, that I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, extend the duration of the said Commission to the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy; and, with the like advice and consent, I do require that you the said Commissioners do, on or before the ninth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, certify to me, under your hands and seals, your several proceedings by virtue of the said recited Commission and of these presents, and your opinion touching the matters set forth in the said recited Commission.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this thirteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

THE following Letter, with Enclosures, from the Colonial Secretary, Sydney, respecting the proposed Intercolonial Exhibition, to be held in Sydney in August next, is published for general information.

W. GISBORNE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, New South Wales,
4th May, 1870.

SIR,—Referring to the Circular Despatch of the Right Hon. the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 24th August, 1869, and forwarding copy of a communication from Her Majesty's Commissioners for the International Exhibition of 1851, announcing the first of a series of International Exhibitions of selected specimens of Art and Industry, I have the honor to state, for the information of your Government, that it is intended by the Agricultural Society of this Colony to hold an Intercolonial Exhibition in this city in August of the present year, in commemoration of the Centenary Anniversary of the landing of Captain Cook in Australia.

2. From the enclosed copy of a notice which has been issued with the view of giving publicity to the above intention, it will be perceived that the different Australasian Colonies have been invited to lend their assistance in carrying out the scheme under consideration, which I have now the honor to bring under the notice of your Government, in the hope that your Colony may be induced to co-operate in the project, by forwarding such selected specimens of Industry and Art as may be intended for final inspection at the proposed International Exhibition in London, in May, 1871, with the view of their being displayed, in the first instance, at the Intercolonial Exhibition to be held in Sydney in August next.

I have, &c.,
CHARLES COWPER.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary,
New Zealand.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 20th April, 1870.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, MAY, 1871.

INTERCOLONIAL EXHIBITION, AUGUST, 1870.

THE Secretary of State for the Colonies having, at the request of Her Majesty's Commissioners for the International Exhibition of 1851, forwarded the copy of an announcement of the first of a series of International Exhibitions of selected specimens of Industry and Art, which it is intended to hold in London in the year 1871,—publicity is hereby given to such intention, in the hope of the cordial co-operation therein of the colonists of New South Wales.

In opportune concurrence, the Agricultural Society of New South Wales has determined to commemorate the Centenary Anniversary of the landing of Captain Cook in Australia, by holding a Metropolitan Intercolonial Exhibition in Sydney, in August of the present year.

It appears, therefore, very desirable, that articles which may be intended ultimately for transmission to the International Exhibition in London in 1871, should be, in the first instance, displayed in the Intercolonial Exhibition in Sydney, in August of the present year, before referred to; and in order that the reception, custody, and despatch of such specimens intended as exhibits for the London Exhibition may be duly cared for, His Excellency the Earl of Belmore has been pleased to appoint the Council of the Agricultural Society of New South Wales to act in the premises aforesaid.

Despatches have been addressed to the Governments of the various Australasian Colonies, inviting their cordial co-operation in the Intercolonial Exhibition in Sydney, and the appointment of Commissioners, to stimulate producers and manufacturers, so that a generous rivalry among the Colonies may lead to the presentation of such selected specimens before the world as shall tend to the credit and importance of the whole Australasian Group.
