WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1871.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings, at Wellington, the eleventh day of May, 1871.

Present:

THE HONORABLE THE PRIME MINISTER, PRESIDING,
AND MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Provincial Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866," it is enacted that Standing Rules and Orders shall be prepared and adopted by every Provincial Council, regulating the proceedings on Bills authorizing the taking of land compulsorily, but that the same shall have no force or effect until they have been approved of by the Governor in Council, and been published in the New Zealand Gazette: And whereas the Standing Rules and Orders contained in the Schedule hereto have been prepared and adopted by the Provincial Council of the Province of Taranaki, and it is expedient that effect should be given to the same:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act, do hereby approve of the Rules and Orders contained in the Schedule hereto, as adopted by the said Provincial Council of Taranaki, for regulating the proceedings in the said Council on Bills authorizing the taking of land compulsorily.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

STANDING RULES and ORDERS of the PROVINCIAL COUNCIL of TARANAKI, for regulating the Proceedings on Bills for the compulsory Purchase of Land under "The Provincial Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866."

1. There shall be a Committee of the Council, to consist of the Chairman of Committees and four other members to be nominated by the Provincial Council each Session, whose duty shall be to consider and report respecting every Bill that shall be referred to them.

2. Every Bill, after it shall have been read a first time, shall be referred to such Committee.

3. Compliance with the Standing Orders following, numbered from 4 to 11 inclusive, shall be proved before such Committee.

4. A notice shall be given of every Bill, which shall state shortly the nature of the intended work or undertaking, and the other objects (if any) of such Bill, and shall describe the land intended to be taken by every such Bill; and shall state the names of the townships or districts from, in, through, or into which the work or undertaking is intended to be made, maintained, varied, extended, or enlarged; and shall state the time and place of deposit of the plans, sections, and books of reference respectively, at the office hereafter specified.

5. Such notice shall be published once in the Government Gazette of the Province, and once a week for three consecutive weeks in one of the local newspapers circulating within the Province; and the first of such notices shall be published not less than one and not more than two calendar months before the introduction of such Bill into the Provincial Council.

6. Three calendar months at least before the introduction of such Bill into the Provincial Council, application must be made to the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all lands and houses so intended to be taken, or which may be taken as being within the limits of deviation defined upon the plan; and such application shall be as nearly as may be in the form or to the effect set forth in the Appendix marked A.

7. Such application shall be made by delivering the same personally to every such party, or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode, or in his absence from the Province with his agent, before the three calendar months aforesaid, or by forwarding the same by post, in a registered letter, addressed with a sufficient direction to his usual place of abode, and posted before the time aforesaid at some Post Office in the Province, at such hours and according to such regulations as may from time to time be in force for the posting and registration of registered letters: Provided always that if the place of abode of any such party cannot after reasonable inquiry be found, and if it cannot after reasonable inquiry be found that any such party has any agent within the Province, such application may be made by leaving the same on some conspicuous part of the land proposed to be taken before the three calendar months aforesaid.

8. In all cases the written acknowledgment of the party applied to shall, in the absence of other proof, be sufficient evidence of an application having been made; and in case of an application or notice having been forwarded by post in a registered letter, the production of the Post Office receipt for such letter, duly stamped, shall be sufficient evidence of the due delivery of such letter, provided it shall appear that the same was properly and sufficiently directed, and that the same was not returned by the Post Office as undelivered.

9. Separate lists shall be made of the names of such owners, lessees, and occupiers, distinguishing those who have assented, dissented, or are neuter in respect to such application, or who have returned no answer thereto; and where no written acknowledgment has been returned to an application forwarded by post, or where such application has been returned as undelivered at any time before the making up of such lists, the direction of the letter in which the same was so forwarded shall be inserted therein.

10. No notice served or application made on a Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, or before eight o'clock in the forenoon or after eight o'clock in the afternoon of any day, shall be deemed valid, except in the case of delivery of letters by post.

11. Plans, books of reference, and sections relating to the work or undertaking, and to the land proposed to be taken, shall be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Superintendent one calendar month at least before the commencement of the Session in which any Bill shall be introduced. Such plans, books of reference, and sections shall be, as nearly as may be, of the same nature and description as would be required in similar cases by the Standing Orders of the General Assembly of New Zealand relative to Private Bills.

12. All petitions for or against any such Bill shall be referred to the said Committee.

13. No Bill shall be read a second time until the Committee have reported in writing under the hand of their Chairman that the preceding Standing Orders, numbered one to eleven inclusive, have been complied with.

14. The word "Bill" in the foregoing Standing Orders shall mean a Bill for the compulsory purchase of land under "The Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1866."

15. Every Bill for the compulsory purchase of land, except as otherwise provided by these Standing Orders, shall be proceeded with as a Public Bill.

APPENDIX A.

To

NOTICE is hereby given to you, that application is intended to be made to the Provincial Council of Taranaki in the ensuing Session for an Ordinance, and that the property mentioned in the annexed Schedule, or some part thereof, in which you are supposed to be interested as therein stated, will or may be required for the purposes of the said undertaking. A plan and section of the said undertaking, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited in the Superintendent's Office, Taranaki, one month before the commencement of the ensuing Session, on which plans your property is designated by the numbers set forth in the annexed Schedule.

You are requested to state whether you assent or dissent from the proposed undertaking, or are neuter in respect thereto, by filling up the form sent herewith and returning the same to the Superintendent at his office at New Plymouth on or before the day of next; and if there should be any error or misdescription in the annexed Schedule, at the same time to inform the Superintendent of the same.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings, at Wellington, this eleventh day of May, 1871.

Present:

THE HONORABLE THE PREMIER, PRESIDING, AND MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Lunatics Act, 1868," it is amongst other things enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make such regulations as to him shall seem meet for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act in all respects other than as provided for by the one hundred and eighty-seventh section thereof, and for regulating the form and mode of proceeding in all cases other than as aforesaid under the said Act, and for prescribing the administrative duties of the Registrar in connection with the management of the estates of lunatics and lunatic patients, and for the due protection, care, and management of the persons and estates of lunatic patients, and for defraying the general charges incident to the administration of the estates of lunatics and lunatic patients, and such regulations may from time to time rescind or vary and substitute others or another in lieu of them or any of them:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, and in exercise and pursuance of all powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, doth by this present Order make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

1. Every Auditor appointed under "The Lunatics Act, 1868," to audit the accounts of any Registrar of the Supreme Court in Lunacy, shall forthwith report to the Colonial Secretary every failure by the Registrar in complying with the requirements of the eighth of the Regulations of the fourth of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and of the particulars of such non-compliance.

2. Every such Auditor shall have access to the books and accounts of every such Registrar whose accounts he is appointed to audit; and also to all vouchers, documents, and papers filed in the Supreme Court Office, or in the custody or possession or under the control of such Registrar, relating to any lunatic's estate the accounts of which it is his duty to audit; and he may in relation to such accounts examine such Registrar, and any officer or clerk in the Supreme Court Office at which such Registrar is appointed to act.

3. Every such Auditor shall, so soon as the audit of each month's accounts is completed, forward to the Colonial Secretary, to be kept in the Colonial Treasury, the accounts, receipts, and certificates supplied to him by the Registrar in respect of such month, together with a report to the Colonial Secretary by the Auditor upon such accounts; and in such report the Auditor shall state whether, in his opinion, the accounts are full, fair, and correct; and in case he has called for explanations or information from the Registrar, whether such explanations or information have been given by the Registrar, and whether they have been satisfactory.

Present:

THE HONORABLE THE PREMIER, PRESIDING, AND
MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, from time to time to constitute for any Gold Field, or for any part thereof, Wardens' Courts, for the administration of justice therein, and to appoint Wardens of such Courts, with power to act alone or with Assessors, and in such manner, and to exercise all or any part of the powers thereafter mentioned, as the Governor shall think fit to direct:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, doth hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him for this purpose, appoint to be a Warden of all Wardens' Courts now constituted or hereafter to be constituted within the Gold Fields of the County of Westland, with power to him to act alone or with Assessors, and to exercise all or any of the powers vested in, or imposed on Judges of Wardens' Courts.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings at Wellington, this eleventh day of May, 1871.

Present:

THE HONORABLE THE PREMIER, PRESIDING, AND
MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the second section of "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," it is enacted that certain Acts specified in Schedule R of the said Act, and cited in the said Schedule as "The Land Registry Act, 1860," "The Land Registry Act Amendment Act, 1861," and "The Land Registry Amendment Act, 1862," shall, as to all lands included within any Land Registrar's district, be repealed on the constitution of such district:

And whereas by the third section of the said Act it is enacted that all lands heretofore brought under or subjected to the provisions of the said repealed Acts shall, as soon as conveniently may be after such lands being included in a Land Registrar's district, be brought under and subject to the provisions of the said Land Transfer Act, in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions as may be provided for in regulations to be made from time to time by the Governor in Council (which regulations are by the said section authorized to be made), but without cost to the person registered as proprietor under the said repealed Acts:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise and pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred on him by the said Act, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby make the Regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS.

1. The District Registrar for the Land Registration District of Auckland under "The Land Registry Act, 1860," shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the publication of these Regulations, deliver to the District Land Registrar for the Auckland Land Registration District under "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," all books, deeds, and documents of every description relating to titles and encumbrances registered under the said "Land Registry Act, 1860," which may be in his custody as District Registrar under the said "Land Registry Act, 1860."

2. The said District Land Registrar shall thereupon give notice by letter to all persons registered as proprietors under the said "Land Registry Act, 1860," that upon production by them of the certificates evidencing such proprietorship the said certificates will be cancelled, and certificates of title under "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," issued in lieu thereof.

3. From time to time, upon the production of any such certificate of proprietorship under "The Land Registry Act, 1860," the District Land Registrar shall forthwith cause the same to be cancelled, and shall write across the entries relating thereto, in the Register of Proprietors of Land, a minute indicating such cancellation, whereupon such registry shall be deemed to be cancelled. The District Land Registrar shall then issue to the said registered proprietor a certificate of title under "The Land Transfer Act 1870," for the said land, registering the same in manner provided by the said Land Transfer Act, but without cost to the said registered proprietor.

4. In all cases where certificates of charge against lands registered under "The Land Registry Act, 1860," remain unsatisfied, the District Land Registrar shall cause memorials of such charges to be entered upon the new certificates of title and upon their corresponding duplicates in the Register Book.

5. All notices of leases or other agreements which by "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," are required to be registered in order to give legal effect to the same, shall be dealt with in the manner hereinbefore provided for dealing with unsatisfied certificates of charge.

6. So soon as certificates of title are prepared and registered for any land against which an inhibition under "The Land Registry Act, 1860," has been registered, the District Land Registrar shall enter a caveat to the like effect, in the form provided in Schedule M of "The Land Transfer Act, 1870."

7. The District Land Registrar may do such other things as shall in his judgment be necessary for registering under "The Land Transfer Act, 1870," all lands heretofore brought under or subjected to the provisions of "The Land Registry Act, 1860," "The Land Registry Act Amendment Act, 1861," and "The Land Registry Amendment Act, 1862."

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings, at Wellington, this eleventh day of May, 1871.

Present:

THE HONORABLE THE PREMIER, PRESIDING, AND
MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," it is provided that after setting apart sufficient land for all persons who shall be entitled thereto under the contracts therein referred to, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to cause towns to be surveyed and laid out, and also suburban and rural allotments; and that all such town, suburban, and rural lands shall be sold, occupied, and disposed of for such prices, in such manner and for such purposes, upon such terms and subject to such regulations, as the Governor in Council shall from time to time prescribe for that purpose:

And whereas by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," it is enacted that the order and manner in which land taken under the authority of "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," should be laid out for sale and sold, should be at the discretion of the Governor, who shall have power to cause such land, or any part thereof, to be laid out for sale and sold from time to time in such manner, for such consideration, and in such allotments as he shall think fit, and subject to such regulations as he shall with the advice of the Executive Council prescribe:

And whereas by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment Act, 1866," it is provided that the said lands shall be sold for such consideration or at such price, and whether for cash or otherwise, as the Governor shall from time to time prescribe; and that all lands taken under the authority of the said "New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," or either of them, and sold or disposed of under the authority of the said first recited Act, shall be sold or disposed of under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, which regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette:

And whereas His Excellency the Governor did, on the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, make regulations for the sale and disposal of lands in the West Coast District taken under the said Acts:

And whereas it is expedient that the land described in the Schedule hereto should be sold to the Opunake Flax Company, Limited, at and for the price of three pounds per acre:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise and pursuance of all powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby order that the land described in the Schedule hereto, shall and may be sold to the Opunake Flax Company, Limited, at and for the price or sum of three pounds per acre, and that John Stephenson Smith, Esquire, Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Province of Taranaki, shall and may conduct the said sale.
