WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1871.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by Proclamation bearing date the sixth day of September instant, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twelfth day of the same month, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority therein mentioned, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand did proclaim and declare that, from and after the first day of September next, the jurisdiction of the Resident Magistrates' Courts for the Papakura District and Waiuku District respectively, therein mentioned, should be extended to fifty pounds: And whereas it was intended that the said Proclamation should have been issued prior to the first day of September instant, and that the same should have taken effect from that date instead of as in the said Proclamation appears: And whereas by reason of the premises the said Proclamation has failed in its intended operation, and it is expedient to make other provision in that behalf:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested in that behalf by "The Resident Magistrates Act, 1867," do hereby proclaim and declare that the jurisdiction of the Resident Magistrate's Courts for the Papakura District and Waiuku District respectively, as the same are defined by Proclamation bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall be extended to Fifty Pounds; and that such extension of jurisdiction shall take effect from and after Thursday, the fourteenth day of September instant, instead of from the date mentioned in the hereinbefore in part recited Proclamation of the sixth day of September instant.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the seal of the said Colony, this thirteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.
