Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1872.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by the fifteenth section of "The Juries Act, 1868," it is enacted that in case any Circuit Court, or sittings of the Supreme Court for trial of civil or criminal cases, or District Court, or Court of Sessions of the Peace, shall thereafter be lawfully directed or appointed to be holden at any town other than those at which Courts are now holden, the Clerk of the Resident Magistrate's Court there, if there be one, or a Jury Officer to be appointed for the jury district of such town in manner in the said Act mentioned, shall act as Jury Officer for the jury district of such town, and such Jury Officer, and all Justices of the Peace, and the Registrars, Clerks, or other officers of Courts, constables and officers of police, and Sheriffs, shall within such time as the Governor shall order for that occasion only, do and perform all such acts, matters, and things, in and towards preparing, collecting, allowing, sending, and delivering the lists of men qualified and liable to serve on juries, and making out the jury books for every such jury district, as are thereinbefore required ordinarily to be done at a different time or period, and all such last-mentioned jury books shall be brought into use, and the persons whose names shall be therein set down shall be liable to serve, immediately after the same shall have been made out by the Sheriff, and the said last-mentioned books shall be used until new books shall have been prepared under the provisions hereinbefore contained: And whereas sittings of the District Court have been lawfully directed or appointed to be holden at Tokomairiro, in the Province of Otago, being a town other than one at which Courts were then holden:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise of all powers and authorities in this behalf vested in me by the said Act, do hereby order that the Jury Officer for the jury district of Tokomairiro aforesaid, and all Justices of the Peace, and the Registrars, Clerks, or other officers of Courts, constables and officers of police, and Sheriffs, shall, before the first day of April next, do and perform all such acts, matters, and things, in and towards preparing, collecting, allowing, sending, and delivering the lists of men qualified and liable to serve on juries, and making out the jury books for the jury district of Tokomairiro aforesaid, as are thereinbefore in the said Act ordinarily required to be done at a different time or period.

And I do order that, for the purposes aforesaid, the words in the sections of the said "Juries Act, 1868," specified in the first column of the Schedule hereto, shall respectively be construed and read as if the words in the second column of the said Schedule were inserted in lieu of such words in the said sections respectively.

SCHEDULE.

Wellington, 19th March, 1872.

THE following Notice to Mariners, received from the Superintendent of Pilots, Lights, and Harbours, Sydney, is published for general information.

W. GISBORNE
(in the absence of the Commissioner of Customs).

Office of Superintendent of Pilots, Lights, and Harbours,
Sydney, 22nd February, 1872.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

FIXED RED LIGHT AT WOLLONGONG.

ON the 1st of March next, the temporary Light at Wollongong will be substituted by a Fixed Red Light, situated on the extremity of the Breakwater, at an elevation of 56 feet above high watermark.

This Light will be visible from a ship's deck at a distance of ten miles when the entrance to the port is opened between the compass bearings of S.S.W. and W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N., but will be eclipsed over the Bellambi Reef, and also over the lowland between Five Islands Point and Wollongong Head.

The entrance can therefore be approached if the Light is in sight. When the Port is neared and a vessel is rounding the Breakwater it will be lost sight of, and afterwards come into view as a guide for proceeding into the Basin.

FRANCIS HIXSON,
Superintendent.

Public Works Office,
Wellington, 22nd March, 1872.
