WELLINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1872.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by the sixteenth section of "The New Zealand University Act, 1870," it is enacted that the Council of the said University shall, during the month of April in every year, report the proceedings of the University during the previous year to the Governor, and such Report shall contain a full account of the income and expenditure of the said University, audited in such manner as the Governor may direct, and a copy of every such Report, and of all Statutes and Regulations of the University, shall be laid in each year before the General Assembly :

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority conferred on me by the said Act, direct that the said account of the said University shall be annually audited by the Auditor-General in the manner following, that is to say:—The said Council shall at some time in the month of April forward to the said Auditor a copy of the said account for the year ending the thirty-first day of March then preceding, and the Treasurer or other proper officer of the said University shall at such time within the month of April, and at such place as shall be appointed by the said Auditor, attend before the said Auditor, and the said Auditor shall, in the presence of the said Treasurer or other proper officer aforesaid, if he desire to be present, proceed to audit the said account of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March then preceding, and the Council of the said University shall, by such Treasurer or other officer aforesaid, produce and lay before the Auditor the said account, accompanied with proper vouchers in support of the same, and all books, papers, and writings in the custody or power of the said Council relating thereto, and if the said account be found correct the Auditor shall sign the same in token of the allowance thereof; but if the Auditor think there is just cause to disapprove of the said account, or any part of the said account, he may signify his disapproval thereof on the said account or otherwise in such manner as he may find most convenient.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued at Wellington, this twenty-third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
