WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1872.

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand, for the purposes of the said Act, into such and so many districts as he may think fit, and that every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's district; and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation, and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into districts, or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of districts, as from time to time he may think requisite:

And whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did, amongst others, constitute a district for the purposes of the said Act, called the "Buller" District, the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation and took effect on the second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said district, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such district:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation so far as relates to the "Buller" District, and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such district shall be and is hereby divided, for the purposes of the said Act, into two districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

BULLER DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the River Heaphy, and following the southern boundaries of the Aore and Takaka Districts to the summit of Mount Arthur; thence by the western boundary of Waimea

South District to the north-west angle of Reefton District, as is hereinafter described; thence by the watershed between the Buller and Mokihinui Rivers to the junction of Orikaka River with the Buller; thence by a line to the north-east angle of Charleston District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence in a straight line to the mouth of the Totara River; thence by the sea coast to the mouth of the River Heaphy.

REEFTON DISTRICT.

Commencing at the north-east angle of Charleston District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence by a line to the junction of Orikaka River with the Buller; thence by the watershed between the Buller and Mokihinui Rivers to the western boundary of Waimea South District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence by the western boundary of Waimea South District to the Spencer Range; thence along the Spencer Range, continuing along the watershed line so as to leave the Waiauua and its tributaries and the Grey and its tributaries on the southern side, and the Buller and its tributaries on the northern side, to the saddle between the Mawhera-iti and Inangahua Rivers; thence in a straight line to the north-east angle of Charleston District, the commencing point.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the twentieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Registration Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to divide the Colony of New Zealand, for the purposes of the said Act, into such and so many districts as he may think fit, and that every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Registrar's district; and it is provided that the Governor may at any time revoke the whole or any part of such Proclamation, and issue a new Proclamation dividing the Colony or any part of it anew into districts, or increasing the number or altering the boundaries of districts, as from time to time he may think requisite:

And whereas by a Proclamation duly made and issued, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the Governor, in pursuance of the said recited power and authority, did, amongst others, constitute a district for the purposes of the said Act, called the "Buller" District, the boundaries whereof were therein set forth, which said Proclamation came into operation and took effect on the second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy:

And whereas it is expedient to revoke so much of the said Proclamation as relates to the said district, and to divide anew the territory formerly comprised within such district:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said recited Act, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation so far as relates to the "Buller" District, and do proclaim and declare that the territory formerly comprised within such district shall be and is hereby divided, for the purposes of the said Act, into two districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follows:—

BULLER DISTRICT.

Commencing at the mouth of the River Heaphy, and following the southern boundaries of the Aorere and Takaka Districts to the summit of Mount Arthur; thence by the western boundary of Waimea South District to the north-west angle of Reefton District, as is hereinafter described; thence by the watershed between the Buller and Mokihinui Rivers to the junction of Orikaka River with the Buller; thence by a line to the north-east angle of Charleston District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence in a straight line to the mouth of the Totara River; thence by the sea coast to the mouth of the River Heaphy.

REEFTON DISTRICT.

Commencing at the north-east angle of Charleston District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence by a line to the junction of Orikaka River with the Buller; thence by the watershed between the Buller and Mokihinui Rivers to the western boundary of Waimea South District, as is described in a Proclamation dated 24th March, 1870; thence by the western boundary of Waimea South District to the Spencer Range; thence along the Spencer Range, continuing along the watershed line so as to leave the Waiauua and its tributaries and the Grey and its tributaries on the southern side, and the Buller and its tributaries on the northern side, to the saddle between the Mawhera-iti and Inangahua Rivers; thence in a straight line to the north-east angle of Charleston District, the commencing point.

And I do declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the twentieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
