WELLINGTON, MONDAY, JULY 15, 1872.

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the second section of "The Tauranga District Lands Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that the whole of the lands specified in the Schedule of the Order in Council, made the eighteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, or in the Schedule of the said Act, were by the said Order in Council duly and effectually declared to be a district within the provisions of "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and that the whole of the said land was duly and effectually set apart, reserved, and taken under the said Act, as sites for settlements for colonization, and was duly and effectually declared to be required for the purposes of the said Act, and subject to the provisions thereof:

And whereas the lands at Tauranga, hereinafter described, and intended to be affected by this Proclamation, are contained within the boundaries specified in the Schedules hereinbefore mentioned; and whereas by "The Confiscated Lands Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, as he shall think fit, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to reserve out of lands taken under "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and the other Acts therein mentioned, such lands as he may think fit, as sites for buildings for educational purposes for the Native race, or as sites for buildings for educational purposes for the inhabitants of the Colony generally; and also out of such lands to make reserves for the endowment of educational institutions already or thereafter to be established in the Colony: Provided that such lands so reserved as sites for buildings for educational purposes for the inhabitants of the Colony generally, or for the endowment of educational institutions, shall be reserved generally for such purposes, and not as the site of, or for the endowment of any special building or institution, but such reserves shall be maintained as reserves for such purposes, subject to be appropriated to special purposes by any Act or Acts of the General Assembly to be thereafter passed:

And whereas it is expedient that the lands described in the Schedule hereto should be reserved for the purposes hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by "The Confiscated Land Act, 1867," and of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the lands described in the Schedule attached hereto shall be, and the same are hereby reserved and set apart for the endowment of Educational Institutions, already or hereafter to be established in the Colony.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation made by Sir George Grey, then being Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, on the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the said Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Resident Magistrates Act, 1867," did proclaim and constitute (among others) the Resident Magistrate's District described in the Schedule thereto as follows:—

"KAIPARA.

"This district is bounded towards the North by part of the southern boundary of the Bay of Islands District hereinbefore defined, that is to say—from Kokatu Point to the Wairua River; thence towards the East by the Whangarei District hereinbefore defined, and by the sea to Okura; thence towards the South by a line to Muriwai, on the West Coast; and thence on the South-west by the sea to the commencing point. Including the adjacent islands."

And whereas by "The Resident Magistrates Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the Colony, or in any part thereof, districts to be called Resident Magistrates' Districts, and such districts from time to time to abolish and the boundaries to define and alter, and in any such Proclamation to fix a time on and from which any such district shall be constituted or abolished, as the case may be, as therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to abolish the said District of Kaipara, so constituted as aforesaid, and to constitute another district in lieu thereof:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by the said Act, do hereby abolish the said District of Kaipara, so constituted as aforesaid, as and from the first day of September next, and in lieu thereof do hereby constitute and proclaim the district named and described in the Schedule hereto to be a Resident Magistrate's District as from the said first day of September next, for the purposes and within the meaning of the said Act.

SCHEDULE.

KAIPARA.

THIS district is bounded towards the North by the southern boundary of the Resident Magistrate's District of the Bay of Islands, as the same is constituted by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, from Kokatu Point to the Wairua River; towards the East and again towards the North by the Resident Magistrates' Districts of Whangarei, Mangapai, and Waipu, as the same are constituted by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of March last, and again towards the East by the sea to the mouth of the Okura River; thence towards the South by a line to Muriwai, on the West Coast; and towards the West by the sea, together with the adjacent islands.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation bearing date the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by "The Resident Magistrates Act, 1867," did proclaim and constitute (among others) the Resident Magistrate's District described in the Schedule thereto as follows:—

"CLUTHA DISTRICT.

"This district is bounded towards the North-east by the south-western boundary of the Dunedin District; towards the South-east and South by the sea from the mouth of the Taieri River to Chasland's Mistake; thence towards the West by a straight line to the summit of Black Horn Hill, thence by the summit of the range leading to Bleak Hill, thence by a straight line to the summit of the Cairn Hill, thence by a straight line to the source of the Kaiwera Creek and by that creek to the Main South Road, thence by the eastern watershed of the Waikaka River to the summit of the Black Umbrella Mount; and towards the North by the southern boundary of the Otago Gold Fields District, as the said districts are defined in Proclamation dated the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven."

And whereas by "The Resident Magistrates Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the Colony, or in any part thereof, districts to be called Resident Magistrates' Districts, and such districts from time to time to abolish and the boundaries to define and alter, and in any such Proclamation to fix a time on and from which any such district shall be constituted or abolished, as the case may be, as therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to abolish the said District of Clutha, so constituted as aforesaid, and to constitute another district in lieu thereof:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by the said Act, do hereby abolish the said District of Clutha, so constituted as aforesaid, as and from the first day of September next, and in lieu thereof do hereby constitute and proclaim the district named and described in the Schedule hereto to be a Resident Magistrate's District as from the said first day of September next, for the purposes and within the meaning of the said Act.

SCHEDULE.

CLUTHA DISTRICT.

THIS district is bounded towards the North-east by the Dunedin District, as defined in Proclamation dated the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven; towards the South-east and South by the sea from the mouth of the Taieri River to Chasland's Mistake, thence towards the West by a right line to the summit of Black Horn Hill, thence by the summit of the range leading to Bleak Hill, thence by a right line to the summit of Cairn Hill, thence by a right line to the source of the Kaiwera Creek and by that creek to the Main South Road, and thence by the summit of the eastern watershed of the Waikaka River to Black Umbrella Mountain; and towards the North and North-west by the Otago Gold Fields District hereinbefore defined.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Intestate Estates Act, 1865," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time, and as occasion may require, to appoint for each Province in the Colony a fit and proper person to act as Curator of Estates of Deceased Persons, and in like manner to remove such Curator or any successor in office of such Curator: And whereas by "The Intestate Estates Act Amendment Act, 1866," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, from time to time to divide the Colony, for the purposes of the said "Intestate Estates Act, 1865," and the said "Intestate Estates Act Amendment Act, 1866," into such and so many districts as he shall think fit, and every such district shall be called by a distinct name, and shall be a Curator's District, and in like manner from time to time, and as he shall think fit, to abolish any such district, or alter or vary the boundaries of any district, or increase the number of such districts, provided that the Provinces of the Colony for which Curators have before the passing of the last-mentioned Act been appointed, shall be deemed to be districts defined pursuant to that Act, subject in every respect for the purposes of "The Intestate Estates Act, 1865," and "The Intestate Estates Act Amendment Act, 1866," to be abolished or to be varied or altered as if defined under the said last-mentioned Act; and the term "Province," wherever used in the said "Intestate Estates Act, 1865," shall mean "Curator's District," and the Curators appointed for such Provinces shall be deemed to have been appointed under and pursuant to the said "Intestate Estates Act Amendment Act, 1866:" And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, Robert Pollock, Esquire, of Nelson, was appointed to act as Curator of Estates of Deceased Persons in and for the Province of Nelson: And whereas by a Proclamation bearing date the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the Provinces of Nelson and Marlborough were formed into one district, for the purposes of the said Acts, and called the District of Nelson and Marlborough, and the said Robert Pollock was appointed to be Curator of Estates of deceased persons in and for the said District: And whereas it is expedient to separate the Province of Marlborough from the Province of Nelson for the purposes of the said Acts:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested for this purpose, do hereby proclaim and declare the above-mentioned District of Nelson and Marlborough to be abolished, and do in lieu thereof constitute the Provinces of Nelson and Marlborough separate Districts under and for the purposes of the said Acts, to be called respectively

THE DISTRICT OF NELSON, and THE DISTRICT OF MARLBOROUGH.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings, at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of June, 1872.

Present:

THE HONORABLE WILLIAM FOX, PRIME MINISTER,
PRESIDING, AND MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Public Revenues Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act, directing the manner in which, and the times at which, and the Bank or Banks into which all moneys shall be paid into the Public Account, and for the return of full and sufficient accounts relating to all such moneys, and for the guidance of all persons in the Public Service concerned in the receipt, custody, and expenditure thereof, and all such regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, and shall come into force upon a day to be named therein: And whereas by "The Public Revenues Act, 1868," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to alter or rescind any regulations made under the authority of "The Public Revenues Act, 1867," or of the now reciting Act, and to make other regulations not inconsistent with "The Public Revenues Act, 1867," in the place thereof, and that all such regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, and shall come into force upon a day to be named therein: And whereas by an Order in Council made under the provisions of the hereinbefore in part recited Acts, on the second day of December, 1868, (among other things) the regulations contained in the Schedule thereto were made and ordained to take effect as therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that certain of the said regulations should be rescinded, and that other regulations should be made in the place thereof:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by the hereinbefore in part recited Acts, or one of them, doth hereby rescind the several regulations, Nos. 4, 5, 11, 12, and 14, and contained in the Schedule to the hereinbefore in part recited Order in Council: And in further pursuance and exercise of all powers and authorities vested in him for that purpose as aforesaid, and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, his said Excellency doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto, and doth order that the same shall, from and after the date fixed for their coming into force, be read in their respective order as if the same had been originally contained in the Schedule to the hereinbefore in part recited Order in Council: And lastly, in further pursuance and exercise of all powers and authorities vested in him for that purpose under the hereinbefore in part recited Acts, and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, his said Excellency doth hereby order that this present Order in Council, and the Regulations hereby made, shall come into force upon the first day of August, 1872.

WILLIAM FOX,
Presiding.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE.

In lieu of rescinded Regulations, Nos. 4, 5, 11, 12, and 14.

4. Every Receiver whose office is in a place in which there is a branch of the Bank shall pay the whole of his collections into the Bank every day immediately before the Bank closes, and shall obtain from the Bank a receipt, in the form in the First Schedule annexed, and a receipt in an Office Pass Book; and should he receive any money after the time when it would have been possible to pay it into the Bank, the Receiver shall pay in such money with his collections of the following day. Every Receiver whose office is in a place where there is no branch of the Bank, and who shall not be authorized to retain fees received by him by way of salary, shall transmit the whole of his collections up to the close of business on Saturday, to the Bank at Wellington, by Post Office Order or by Registered Letter, on every succeeding Monday, with form of Bank Receipt, and the Bank will transmit such Bank Receipt to the Receiver-General, sending also a letter of acknowledgment to the Receiver.

5. In cases in which a Receiver is authorized to retain fees received by him by way of salary, he shall, upon the last Monday of each month, send to the Bank at Wellington an order in the form in the Second Schedule annexed, upon the Paymaster-General, in favour of the Public Account, for the total amount of all fees so received and retained by him from the date of his last account up to the close of business on the previous Saturday, and shall at the same time transmit to the Paymaster-General a receipt for salary to the amount named in such order; and the Paymaster-General, receiving such receipt, shall pay the order at the Bank; and the Bank will transmit the Bank Receipt to the Receiver-General.

11. Every Receiver shall keep a "Receiver's Cash Book," in the form in the Fourth Schedule annexed (which will be modified so as to suit the several departments of receipt), in which he shall enter in the debit columns all sums received by him and paid to the Bank, under their proper dates, in the order in which they are received, carrying out the totals; and shall enter in the credit column the amounts of his payments into the Bank in the same order, and the number of the Bank Receipt; and every Receiver shall balance his Cash Book at the close of every week, and shall carry out at the foot the totals of receipt and payment, and see that the totals balance. In every case in which a sum is received from which a deduction is made as provided by the second of these Regulations, the Receiver shall enter the gross sum received and the amount of the deduction, each in its proper column. He shall then carry out the net sum into the proper column of totals. Sums received by way of deposit, and paid into the Receiver's Deposit Account, must not be entered in the Cash Book, as they will appear in the Deposit Cash Book as provided by the tenth of these Regulations.

12. Every Receiver shall, upon each and every Monday, make and post for transmission to the Receiver-General a correct copy of his Cash Book for the previous week, showing all transactions to the close of the Bank on Saturday, and shall transmit therewith the Bank Receipt for each payment made into the Bank, together with a Declaration in the form set forth in the Fourth Schedule annexed. If no money shall have been received during such week, the Receiver shall furnish his Return in the proper form, with the word "Nil" written in the place for writing the particulars of receipt and payment. When any deduction has been made from any receipt, the Receiver shall furnish full accounts and vouchers in support of such deduction.

14. Every Receiver shall balance his Deposit Cash Book weekly, and shall on each and every Monday post for transmission a copy thereof for the previous week to the Receiver-General, accompanied by the Bank Receipt for each sum paid into the Deposit Account, and by the Deposit Receipt for each sum repaid to a Depositor. He shall also transmit therewith a Certificate, in the form in the Fifth Schedule annexed, from the Bank, that the amount appearing in the Deposit Cash Book, as the balance, on the preceding Saturday, was the amount to the credit of the Receiver's Deposit Account in the Bank. He shall also transmit the Declaration in the form in the Fifth Schedule, that the statement of account is complete and correct. In cases in which there is no Bank in the neighbourhood of the Receiver, the balance of the deposits in his hands shall be ascertained and certified in such manner as he shall be specially instructed by the Colonial Treasurer; and he will be instructed to modify the form of his Deposit Cash Book accordingly.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Gold Mining Districts Act, 1871," it is, among other things, enacted that no rule or regulation made under the said Act shall become or have the effect of law until the same shall have been approved by the Governor in Council as therein mentioned: And whereas, by virtue of the powers delegated to Thomas Bannatyne Gillies, Esquire, the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, by the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, under the said Act, the said Thomas Bannatyne Gillies hath made the Rules and Regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto for the Hauraki Gold Mining District, within the said Province:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, in exercise of every power and authority enabling him in that behalf, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, doth hereby approve of the said Rules and Regulations so made by the said Thomas Bannatyne Gillies as aforesaid, for the

in the Province of Auckland, and as the same Rules and Regulations are set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION.

By THOMAS BANNATYNE GILLIES, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Auckland.

By virtue of the powers to me delegated by the Governor in Council, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, under "The Gold Mining Districts Act, 1871," I do hereby make the following Additional Regulations for the Hauraki Gold Mining District, within the Province of Auckland.

Given under my hand, at Auckland, this sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

THOMAS B. GILLIES,
Superintendent.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS.

1. All lands which shall hereafter come under the operation of "The Gold Mining Districts Act, 1871," within the Hauraki Gold Mining District, through the forfeiture of any leasehold rights now subsisting under "The Gold Fields Act, 1866," "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1867," "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1867, (No. 2)," "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1868," "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1869," or "The Gold Fields Act Amendment Act, 1870," shall be dealt with as if such lands were forfeited lands thrown open for application under section 50 of the said "Gold Mining Districts Act, 1871."

2. A fee of two guineas shall be payable upon the issue of each Gold Mining License.

THOMAS B. GILLIES.

Approved in Council, this tenth day of July, 1872.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint Polling Places for each Electoral District, within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such Polling Places to be the Principal Polling Place for the District, and all or any of such Polling Places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other Polling Places in lieu of those abolished, and that every such Warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no Polling Place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat:

And whereas by Warrant under the hand of the Governor, bearing date the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the Court House, Wangapeka, and the Warden's Office, Matakītiki, were appointed Polling Places for the District of Waimea, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives:

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same:

Now know ye that I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named Polling Places for the District of Waimea, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same :

Now know ye that I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named Polling Places for the District of Waimea, for the election of Members of the Provincial Council of Nelson.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING :

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint Polling Places for each Electoral District, within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such Polling Places to be the Principal Polling Place for the District, and all or any of such Polling Places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other Polling Places in lieu of those abolished, and that every such Warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no Polling Place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat :

And whereas by Warrant under the hand of the Governor, bearing date the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the Court House, Wangapeka, and the Warden's Office, Matakaitaki, were appointed Polling Places for the Province of Nelson, for the election of the Superintendent thereof :

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same :

Now know ye that I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named Polling Places for the Province of Nelson, for the election of the Superintendent thereof.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Sheriffs Act, 1858," it is enacted that after the passing of the said Act it shall be lawful for the Governor, and for no other person, to appoint fit persons to be Sheriffs within the Colony, who shall hold their office during pleasure ; and that it shall be lawful for the Governor, and for no other person, to define the districts within which the jurisdiction of the several Sheriffs shall be exercised, and the limits of such districts from time to time to alter as occasion may require : And whereas by Warrant, bearing date the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, the boundaries of the Sheriff's District of Westland North were defined : And whereas it is expedient that the limits of the said Westland North Sheriff's District should be altered in manner hereinafter mentioned, and that a new Sheriff's District should be formed out of the said Westland North District :

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in me vested in this behalf, do hereby define the districts described and named in the Schedule hereto to be, on and from the first day of September next, Sheriffs' Districts under the provisions of "The Sheriffs' Act, 1858."

SCHEDULE.

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF WESTLAND NORTH.

THIS district is bounded towards the North by a right line from the mouth of the River Mackay to the summit of Mount Arthur ; thence towards the East by a right line to the confluence of the River Gowan (or Rotoroa) with the River Buller, and thence by a right line to the summit of Mount Franklin ; thence towards the South by a right line to the confluence of the Colin (or Awarau) and Inangahua Rivers, and thence by a right line to the summit of Mount Faraday, and thence by a right line to the sea coast at the Five Finger Rocks ; and towards the North-west by the sea.

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF CENTRAL WESTLAND.

THIS district is bounded towards the North by the Westland North District ; thence towards the North-east by a right line from the summit of Mount Franklin to the summit of Mount Princess ; thence towards the South-east by a right line to the saddle between the Hurunui and Teremakau Rivers ; towards the South-west by a part of the southern boundary of the Province of Nelson ; and towards the West by the sea.

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF NELSON.

THIS district comprises all that portion of the Province of Nelson which is not included in the hereinbefore described Districts of Westland North and Westland Middle.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this eleventh day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

W. GISBORNE.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The County of Westland Act, 1868," it is, among other things, enacted that whenever any extraordinary vacancy in the office of Member of any Road Board shall occur, the persons by whom the vacancy is to be filled up shall, on the twenty-first day after the occurrence of such vacancy, elect from the persons capable of being such Members another person to fill such vacancy, and such elections respectively shall be held in the same manner, and the proceedings shall be the like, as thereinbefore provided for with respect to the annual ordinary elections of Members ; and all the provisions of the said Act shall apply in the case of such elections in like manner as in cases of ordinary annual elections of Members of Road Boards : And whereas, on the sixth day of June last, an extraordinary vacancy occurred in the office of a Member of the Road Board for the Paroa District, as defined by the said Act, and the period of twenty-one days after the occurrence of such vacancy elapsed on the twenty-seventh day of June last, and no election of a Member to fill such vacancy was held on such last-mentioned day, in accordance with the hereinbefore in part recited provision of the said Act: And whereas by the said Act it is, among other things, enacted that within the period of fifteen days before or after the day appointed for the holding of any election or of any meeting of the County Council or of any Road Board, or for the doing of any act, matter, or thing by the said Act required to be done on or before a day certain, it shall be lawful for the Governor to extend the time allowed for the holding of such election or meeting, or for the doing of any such act, matter, or thing as aforesaid, notwithstanding the day may have passed on which the same ought to have been held or done, and to adopt or cause to be adopted such measures as may be necessary to remove any obstacle of a technical or formal nature by which the carrying out of the provisions of the said Act relating to such elections or meetings as aforesaid may be impeded, and to supply any deficiency which may be required to be supplied, in order to enable the said provisions to be duly carried out: Provided always that any such measure so adopted by the Governor shall be duly notified in the New Zealand Gazette: And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted that fourteen clear days before any election thereunder public notice of such election shall be given by advertisement as therein mentioned, but by reason of the premises no such notice hath been given in accordance with such enactment, and it is expedient that the time for holding of such election should be extended as and in manner hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority in him vested by the said Act, doth hereby extend the time allowed for the holding of the election of a Member of the Road Board of the Paroa Road District to fill such extraordinary vacancy as aforesaid, from the said twenty-seventh day of June last, on which day the said election ought, according to the provisions of the said Act, to have been held, to the fifteenth day of August next.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twelfth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
