WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1872.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Immigration and Public Works Act Amendment Act, 1871," the Governor is, among other things, empowered to enter into arrangements for the acquisition of particular portions of land in the North Island, for the purpose of mining for gold, for the establishment of special settlements, or for the purposes of railway construction; and by the said Act it is also provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, whenever he shall have determined to enter into negotiations for the purchase of such land, to insert a notice in the New Zealand Gazette that it is his intention to enter into such negotiations, and after such notice is inserted it shall not be lawful for any one to purchase or acquire from the Native owners any right, title, or interest, or contract for the purchase or acquisition from the Native owners of any right, title, or interest, in the lands specified in such notice, unless the notice be cancelled by the Governor: Provided that no such notice shall have longer operation than for the period of two years:

And whereas by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and published in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 38, of the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, did declare my intention forthwith to enter into negotiations for the purchase from the Native owners of the block or parcel of land described therein:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to revoke the same:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., the Governor as aforesaid of the said Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance of the provisions of the hereinbefore in part recited Act, and in exercise of the powers thereby vested in me, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation of the twenty-third day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and do further proclaim and declare my intention forthwith to enter into negotiations for the purchase from the Native owners of the block or parcel of land situate in the Province of Auckland, and described as follows (that is to say):—

Commencing on the North side of the sea coast at Cape Colville (or Moehau), in the district of Hauraki, in the Province of Auckland; thence by the East Coast to Ngakuri-a-whare; thence by a straight line to the summit of Te Aroha Mountain (being the northern boundary of the Tauranga District, as proclaimed under the New Zealand Settlements Act); thence by the watershed range between Tauranga Harbour and the River Thames (or Waihou) to Puapuatirohia, at the south-eastern angle of Te Aroha Block; thence by the southern boundary of Te Aroha Block to the base of the hills to Okurere, near Hikutaia; thence by a straight line to the nearest point of the telegraph line; thence by telegraph line to Omahuhu Stream; thence by Omahuhu Stream to the boundary of Native reserve, as described in the Proclamation of the Hauraki Gold Mining Districts in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 1, of 6th January, 1872; thence by that reserve to the point where it crosses the River Waiwhakamunga; thence by a straight line to the trigonometrical survey station on the hill known as Pukeoraka, or Gentle Annie; thence by a straight line to the north-eastern angle of the lands granted to the Church Mission Society, adjoining the Town of Shortland; thence by the north and west boundaries of the lands granted to Church Mission Society to the River Waiwhakamunga; thence by that river to the sea; thence by the sea coast to Cape Colville, the point of commencement. Excluding also from the boundary described the Towns of Shortland, Grahamstown, and Tararu, as described in Government Gazette No. 1, of 6th January, 1872.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington, this ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

E. W. STAFFORD.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this second day of October, 1872.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," it is provided that, after setting apart sufficient land for all persons who shall be entitled thereto under the contracts therein referred to, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to cause towns to be surveyed and laid out, and also suburban and rural allotments; and that all such town, suburban, and rural lands shall be sold, occupied, and disposed of for such prices, in such manner, and for such purposes, upon such terms, and subject to such regulations, as the Governor in Council shall from time to time prescribe for that purpose:

And whereas by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," it is enacted that the order and manner in which land taken under the authority of "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," should be laid out for sale and sold, should be at the discretion of the Governor, who shall have power to cause such land, or any part thereof, to be laid out for sale and sold from time to time, in such manner, for such consideration, and in such allotments as he shall think fit, and subject to such regulations as he shall, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time prescribe: And whereas by "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment Act, 1866," it is provided that the said lands shall be sold for such consideration or at such price, and whether for cash or otherwise, as the Governor shall from time to time prescribe, and that all lands taken under the authority of the said "New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," and "The New Zealand Settlements Amendment and Continuance Act, 1865," or either of them, and sold or disposed of under the authority of the said first-recited Act, shall be sold or disposed of under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council, which regulations shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette:

And whereas by "The Carrington Land Grant Act, 1871," it was provided that the Governor might issue to Frederick Alonzo Carrington, therein mentioned, a Land Order authorizing him to purchase, to the amount of fifteen hundred pounds, any of the lands of the Crown in the Province of Taranaki open for sale or selection, without payment in cash, at auction, or by selection without auction, but subject in every respect to the Regulations regulating the sale of such lands:

And whereas it is expedient that the lands described in the Schedule hereto, being lands in the Province of Taranaki taken under and subject to the provisions of the said recited Acts, should be sold to the said Frederick Alonzo Carrington at and for the price of fifteen hundred pounds, and that the said Land Order issued under the said "Carrington Land Grant Act, 1871," should be received in payment for the same:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in exercise and pursuance of all powers and authorities enabling him on this behalf, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, doth hereby order that all the land described in the Schedule hereto, being lands within the Province of Taranaki taken under and subject to the provisions of the said recited Acts, shall be sold by the Colonial Secretary to the said Frederick Alonzo Carrington at and for the price of fifteen hundred pounds, if the said Frederick Alonzo Carrington do, on or before the ninth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, notify to the Colonial Secretary his willingness to purchase the same, and in such case the said Land Order may be received in payment for the same.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE.

Office of Registrar of Joint Stock Companies,
Auckland, 25th September, 1872.

I, JOHN MUIR WAYLAND, Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for the Provinces of Auckland and Hawke's Bay, in the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby notify that I have registered a Memorandum of Association, with Articles of Association, establishing a Company, with limited liability of the Shareholders therein, entitled

"The Waikato Flax Company, Limited."

The objects for which the Company is established are,—1. To carry on the cultivation, dressing, preparation, and sale or exportation of flax at Churchill and Mercer, on the Waikato River, and at such other places as may be deemed expedient. 2. To manufacture rope, paper, sacking cloth, cattle food, or other articles from the flax plant, and export or sell the same. 3. To acquire land and buildings, by purchase or otherwise, for the requirements of the Company. 4. To purchase, erect, work, hire, or let machinery of all kinds, connected with the manufacturing of flax, &c., as specified above. 5. To purchase, build, or hire steamers, barges, or boats to work in connection with the flax mills or otherwise. 6. To let, sell, or otherwise dispose of or deal with any property whatever of the Company. 7. And to do all such other matters and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And that, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Joint Stock Companies Act, 1860," I have issued a Certificate of Incorporation of the said Company, bearing date this twenty-fifth day of September, 1872."

JOHN M. WAYLAND,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.
