WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1873.

The Imperial Act for the Punishment of Mutiny has been received by the Governor.

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Militia Act, 1870," it is enacted that during the time that any part of the Militia shall be on actual service, all things contained in any Act of the Imperial Parliament which shall then be in force in New Zealand for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the Army and their quarters, and in the Articles of War made in pursuance of such Act, shall apply to and the powers thereby created shall be exercised by such part of the Militia in all cases not otherwise provided for in "The Militia Act, 1870," or in any regulations that may from time to time be issued under its authority: Provided that no Militiaman shall be liable to any corporal punishment except death or imprisonment for any offence against any such Act of the Imperial Parliament or Articles: Provided also that no such Act of the Imperial Parliament or Articles of War shall be deemed to be in force in New Zealand until a Proclamation shall have been published in the New Zealand Gazette, stating that the Governor has received a copy thereof:

And whereas by the one hundred and second section of the Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled "An Act for Punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters," made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, it is enacted that the same shall be and continue in force in certain parts of Her Majesty's dominions at and from such times as in the said section mentioned, and in all other parts of Her Majesty's dominions, including New Zealand, from the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three inclusive, until the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four: Provided always that the same shall, from and after the receipt and promulgation thereof in General Orders in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere beyond the seas, become and be in full force, anything therein stated to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas New Zealand is not expressly mentioned in the said section of the said Act of the Imperial Parliament:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, and in pursuance of the requirements of "The Militia Act, 1870," aforesaid, and in exercise of the powers thereby vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare that a copy of the said hereinbefore in part recited Act of the Imperial Parliament, together with and accompanied by a copy of "Rules and Articles for the better Government of Her Majesty's Army," from the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, made and passed under the authority of the said Act, has been received by me in the Colony aforesaid.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
 Clerk of the Executive Council.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Prohibiting the Importation of Cattle, &c., unless free from Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," it is enacted that the importation of any goods may be prohibited by Proclamation of the Governor in Council, and that if any goods so prohibited be imported they shall be forfeited:

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, G.C.M.G., the Governor of New Zealand, in exercise of the said and every other power and authority vested in me in this behalf by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, do by this Proclamation prohibit the importation into New Zealand of the following goods, that is to say:—

All cattle, horses, sheep, and pigs, and the carcasses, skins, horns, hoofs, and every other part thereof, unless and until the person desirous of importing the same shall procure, and produce to the Principal Officer of Customs at the port at which the same are to be imported, a certificate in writing under the hand of some person appointed in this behalf for such port by the Commissioner of Customs, or by a Superintendent of a Province for any port within the Province of which he is Superintendent, that he has examined the same, and that they are respectively clean and free from foot-and-mouth disease, and every other infectious and contagious disease, and may be imported without danger of spreading any infectious or contagious disease.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

G. M. WATERHOUSE.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Revoking Quarantine Regulations under "The Marine Act, 1867."

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of "The Public Health Act, 1872," it is enacted that all proclamations, appointments, and regulations made under certain Acts referred to in the Schedule to the said Act shall continue to be as if the said Act had not been passed, but that the same may be revoked, altered, or otherwise dealt with under the said Act as if the same had been made under the said Act: And whereas certain Quarantine Regulations were made by Orders in Council, under section eleven of "The Marine Act, 1867," dated the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine; and whereas it is expedient to revoke the same:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, and in pursuance of the above-recited power and authority, doth hereby revoke so much of the Order in Council dated the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, as relates to quarantine, and the whole of the Order in Council dated the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Powers under Sections 53 and 77 of "The Public Health Act, 1872," to be exercised by Central Board of Health for the Province of Canterbury.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the forty-sixth section of "The Public Health Act, 1872," it is enacted that the Governor may, from time to time as he thinks fit, order that any or all of the powers, functions, duties, authorities, or acts vested in, conferred on, or authorized or required to be performed by the Governor within any Province, District, Port, or place in the Colony, by or under the fifty-third and seventy-seventh sections of the said Act, shall be exercised, performed, or done by the Superintendent of such Province, with the advice of the Executive Council of such Province (if any), or the Central Board thereof constituted under the first part of the said Act, or by any other person or persons the Governor may think fit, subject however to any limitations or restrictions as he may think fit; and thereupon such functions, powers, duties, authorities and acts may, by such Superintendent or Central Board or other person or persons, be exercised, performed, and done within the Province, District, Port, or place of the Colony specified in such Order, and the Governor may from time to time revoke or alter any such Order:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise and pursuance of all power and authority in this behalf in him vested, doth hereby revoke the delegation of the said powers, functions, and duties made to the Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury by Order in Council dated the eighteenth day of December last, and doth, with the like advice and consent, order and direct that all the powers, functions, duties, authorities, or acts vested in, conferred on, or authorized or required to be performed by the Governor within the Province of Canterbury, and any district, port, or place therein, under the fifty-third or seventy-seventh sections of the said Act, shall be exercised, performed, and done by the Central Board of Health constituted under the said Act for the said Province.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Sections 21 to 45, except Section 28 of "The Public Health Act, 1872," in force in the Province of Canterbury.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the nineteenth section of "The Public Health Act, 1872," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may make orders from time to time directing that the provisions thereafter in that part of the said Act contained, or any of them, be put in force in New Zealand, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such orders respectively may be expressed, and may in like manner revoke or renew any such order; and, subject to such revocation or renewal as aforesaid, every such order shall be in force for six calendar months from the publication of such order, or for such shorter period as in such order shall be expressed, and no longer; and every such order shall be published in the Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such order to all intents and purposes; and none of the said provisions shall be in force in any part of New Zealand until an order directing the same to be put in force shall have been made and published as aforesaid:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise and pursuance of all power and authority in this behalf in him vested, doth hereby direct that the provisions contained in the sections of the said Act numbered from twenty-one to forty-five, both inclusive, with the exception of section number twenty-eight, shall be put in force in the districts and places in the Province of Canterbury specified in the Schedule hereto.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Sections 20 to 45 of the Public Health Act to be in force in the Province of Auckland.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the nineteenth section of "The Public Health Act, 1872," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may make orders from time to time directing that the provisions thereafter in second part of the said Act contained, or any of them, be put in force in New Zealand, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such orders respectively may be expressed, and may in like manner revoke or renew any such order; and, subject to revocation or renewal as aforesaid, every such order shall be in force for six calendar months from the publication of such order, or for such shorter period as in such order shall be expressed, and no longer; and every such order shall be published in the General Government Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such order to all intents and purposes; and none of the said provisions shall be in force in any part of New Zealand until an order directing the same to be put in force shall have been made and published as aforesaid:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise and pursuance of all power and authority in this behalf in him vested, doth hereby direct that the provisions contained in the sections of the said Act numbered from twenty to forty-five, both inclusive, shall be put in force in the districts in the Province of Auckland mentioned in the Schedule hereto.

Terms and Conditions of Settlement of Scandinavian Immigrants under "The Wellington Special Settlements Act, 1871."

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-seventh day of February, 1873.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Wellington Special Settlements Act, 1871," it is, among other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, with the advice of his Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette of the said Province, to set aside, out of the waste lands within the Province of Wellington, the Native title of which has been extinguished, any block or blocks, for the purpose of special settlement, not exceeding in the whole one hundred thousand acres, on such terms as may be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, anything in the existing regulations for the management or disposal of the waste lands in the Province to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas the said Superintendent, with the advice of his Executive Council as aforesaid, hath proposed to set aside certain allotments of land within the Township of Palmerston, in the Manawatu District, in the said Province, containing one thousand seven hundred and four acres one rood and eleven perches or thereabouts, as the special settlement under the said Act for Scandinavian immigrants placed on the said land by the General Government of the Colony upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned: And whereas the said Superintendent, with the advice of his Executive Council as aforesaid, hath requested the Governor to sanction the said terms:

Now therefore, His Excellency Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, doth hereby sanction the terms and conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto as the terms and conditions under which the said proposed special settlement shall be made under the said Act.

SCHEDULE.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE OCCUPATION AND PURCHASE OF THE BLOCK OF LAND PROPOSED TO BE SET ASIDE FOR SPECIAL SETTLEMENT AS AFORESAID.

THE upset price of the land shall be one pound per acre, the whole amount to be paid on or before the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in yearly payments of not less than one-fifth of the full amount of the purchase money.

In those cases where the immigrants failed to pay the first instalment on the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, they will be allowed to retain their selections of land provided they pay, on or before the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, two instalments, equal to two-fifths of the purchase money, but not otherwise.

The land laws and regulations now in force in the Province of Wellington shall be applicable to the foregoing land, except so far as they may be altered or amended by the above conditions.
