WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1874.

Declaring Districts under "Native Land Act, 1873."

James Fergusson, Governor. ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this eighteenth day of February, 1874.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Native Land Act, 1873," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to divide the Colony into districts for the purposes set forth in the said Act, and the limits of such districts from time to time to alter as occasion may require:

time to time to alter as occasion may require:

Now therefore I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said Colony, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said in part recited Act, do hereby order and declare that the Colony shall be divided into districts for the purposes of the said Act, as such are respectively defined in the Schedule hereunder written.

DONALD McLEAN.

FORSTER GORING, Clerk of the Executive Council.

SCHEDULE.

NORTHERN.

This district comprises all that portion of the North Island which lies to the northward of a right line drawn from Rocky Bay to the mouth of the Koatu River, together with the adjacent islands.

KAIPARA.

This district is bounded towards the North by the Northern District; towards the East by the sea to the Tamaki Portage; thence by the said portage to Manukau Harbour; thence towards the South by that harbour; and towards the South-west by the sea; together with Mokohinou, Hen and Chickens, Little Barrier, Kawau, Kaitu, Motuhora, Orwaike, Tiritiri Matangi, and other adjacent islands.

$\mathbf{W}_{AIKATO}$ .

This district is bounded towards the North and East by Manukau Harbour, Tamaki Portage, Tamaki Strait, and the Frith of Thames from Manukau Heads to Pukorokoro; thence by the eastern boundary of the Waikato confiscated lands by Hapuakohe and Pukemoremore to Opuahau; thence towards the South-east, South, and West by the boundaries of the said confiscated lands to Whaingaroa Harbour; thence towards the South and South-west by that harbour and the sea to Manukau Harbour; together with Waiheke, Ponui, Taylor's, Motuihi, Motutapu, Rangitoto, and other adjacent islands.

THAMES.

This district is bounded towards the North and West by the Frith of the Thames and the Hauraki Gulf from Pukorokoro to Cape Colville; thence towards the North-east and East by the sea to Ngakuri-a-whare; thence towards the South-east by a right line to the summit of Te Aroha Mountain; thence again towards the East by the summit of the watershed of Tauranga Harbour to a point near Wairere; thence again towards the South-east by a right line through Wairere to Opuahau; and thence again towards the West by the Waikato District to Pukorokoro, the commencing point; together with the Great Barrier and its adjacent islands, Mercury, Alderman, and other adjacent islands, but excepting Mayor Island.

BAY OF PLENTY.

This district is bounded towards the North-east by the summit of the watershed of Tauranga Harbour from Wairere to Otane Wainuku; thence towards the North-west by a right line to Otara, and thence by a right line to Wairakei; thence towards the Northeast by the Bay of Plenty to Matata; thence towards the East by the Te Awa-o-te-Atua, Rangitaiki, and Whirinaki Rivers to the most southerly source of the latter, thence by a right line to the summit of Tiwatawata Mountain, and thence by a right line to the point where the Waipunga River intersects the southern boundary of the Province of Auckland; thence on the South by that boundary to the Wanganui River; thence again towards the Northwest by a right line to the summit of Titiraupenga Mountain, thence by a right line to Te Niho-o-te-Kiore on the Waikato River; thence towards the South-west by the Waikato River to the south-east boundary of the Waikato District; and thence again towards the North-west by the Waikato and Thames Districts to the commencing point near Wairere; inclusive of Plate Island.

Оротікі.

This district is bounded towards the North by the Bay of Plenty from Matata to Cape Runaway; towards the South-east by a right line to the most southerly source of the Opotiki River; towards the South by a right line to the junction of the Rangataiki and Whirinaki Rivers; and towards the West by the Bay of Plenty District; together with Whale, White, and other adjacent islands.

HAWKE'S BAY.

This district is bounded towards the North and East by the sea from Cape Runaway to the southern boundary of the Province of Hawke's Bay; thence towards the South-west by a right line to the south-western corner of the Bay of Plenty District; thence towards the North and West by the boundaries of the Bay of Plenty and Opotiki Districts to the commencing point; together with the adjacent islands.

TARANART

This district comprises all that portion of the Province of Taranaki which lies to the southward of a right line drawn from Paranihinihi to the southwestern corner of the Bay of Plenty District.

Whanganui.

This district is bounded towards the North-west by the Taranaki District from the mouth of the Patea River to the south-west corner of the Bay of Plenty District; towards the North-east by the Hawke's Bay District; and towards the South by a right line from the southern corner of the Hawke's Bay District to the mouth of the Turakina River, and by the sea to the mouth of the Patea River, the commencing point.

WELLINGTON.

This District comprises all that portion of the North Island which lies to the southward of the Whanganui District; together with Kapiti, Mana, and other adjacent islands.

SOUTHERN.

This district comprises the Middle Island, its adjacent islands; together with Stewart's Island and its adjacent islands.

Delegation under "The Prisons Act, 1873," to Superintendent of Taranaki.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.

WHEREAS by the fifty-first section of "The Prisons Act, 1873," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may, under his hand and the Public Seal of the Colony, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province the powers by the forty-seventh and fiftieth sections of the said Act vested in the Governor, to be exercised within such Province and not elsewhere, and may from time to time in like manner rescind any such delegation: Now therefore, I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the said Colony, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said in part recited Act, do hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, delegate unto FREDERIC ALONZO CARRINGTON, Esq., as Superintendent of the Province of Taranaki, all the powers vested in me by the forty-seventh and fiftieth sections of the said Act, to be exercised within such Province and not elsewhere.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Wellington, this eighteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING, Clerk of the Executive Council.

The Limits of South Port.

JAMES FERGUSSON, Governor.

IN exercise of the power in me for this purpose vested by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," I, Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby appoint that on and from the day of the date hereof, there shall be within the Province of Otago, a Port, to be called SOUTH PORT, the limits whereof shall be as follows:—The South or Stewart Island, with all the navigable waters included therein, and extending to one league from the coast thereof.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir James Fergusson, Baronet, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at Dunedin, this tenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.
