The rainfall for the whole Colony for this month is rather less than the average for previous years, but at most of the stations in the North Island the fall has been in excess, while in the South, and on west coast of Middle Island, it is considerably under the average. No very severe gales are reported except at Cape Campbell, but the weather in the South has been severe, frost and snow often occurring. Earthquakes were felt at Christchurch on 6th, at 8-45 a.m., slight, but smart at Lyttelton; also felt at Kowai Pass. At Rotorua several shakes were felt on 9th; at Riverton, Bluff, and Dunedin on 20th, about 6 a.m., sharp; at Wanganui on 23rd, at 11-30 p.m., slight.
