I. WHEREAS We did, by certain Letters-Patent under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date at Westminster the eighteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the thirty-sixth year of Our reign, constitute and appoint Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir James Fergusson, Baronet (now Knight Commander of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George), to be Our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Colony of New Zealand, for and during Our Will and Pleasure, as upon relation being had to the said recited Letters-Patent will more fully and at large appear: Now know you that We have revoked and determined, and by these presents do revoke and determine, the said recited Letters-Patent, and every clause, article, and thing therein contained: And further know you, that We, reposing especial trust and confidence in the prudence, courage, and loyalty of you the said George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, of Our special grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have thought fit to constitute and appoint, and do by these presents constitute and appoint you to be, for and during Our will and pleasure, Our Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Our Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies (hereinafter called Our said Colony). And We do hereby authorize and command you in due manner to do and execute all things that shall belong to your said command, and to the trust We have reposed in you, according to and in pursuance of an Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," and of an Act of the Session holden in the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Years of Our Reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for the Appointment of Members of the Legislative Council of New Zealand, and to remove doubts in respect of past Appointments," and according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed you by virtue of this present Commission, and according to such instructions as are herewith given to you, or as may from time to time hereafter be given to you, under Our Sign-Manual and Signet, or by Our Order in Our Privy Council, or by Us through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and according to such laws and ordinances as are or shall hereafter be in force in Our said Colony.

II. And We do hereby authorize and empower you to keep and use the Public Seal of Our said Colony for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Public Seal.

XII. And We do hereby require and command all Our Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other the inhabitants of Our said Colony of New Zealand, to be obedient, aiding, and assisting unto you the said George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of-Normanby, or, in the event of your death, incapacity, or absence, to such person or persons as may, from time to time, under the provisions of this Our Commission, administer the Government of Our said Colony.
