has been appointed a Licensed Distributor of Duty Stamps.

R. C. HAMMERTON,
Acting Secretary.

Officers appointed by the General and Provincial Governments and Municipal Corporations liable to pay Stamp Duties before entering on duties of Office.

Office of the Commissioner of Stamp Duties Wellington, 19th January, 1875.

THE Commissioner of Stamps desires to point out to Heads of Departments in the General and Provincial Governments, and also in Municipal Corporations, that by section 12 of "The Stamp Duties Act Amendment Act, 1871," it is provided that every person, before he shall enter on the duties of his office or employment, is required to pay the proper duty in respect thereof to the Commissioner; and no Warrant or Letter of Appointment shall be issued or granted by the Responsible Officer of the Department to which such office shall be attached, or within whose control the same may be, until he has satisfied himself of the payment of such duty.

The Commissioner having been informed of certain cases in which officers have been promoted from one branch of the Service to another without proper Letters or Warrants of Appointment, and also of cases where Letters of Appointment had been issued without previous payment of the Stamp Duty, would draw attention to the circumstance that all unstamped appointments are invalid, and that the Appointees may become liable to the penalties in the Statute for unstamped documents.

Heads of Departments are also informed that all appointments whatsoever, whether liable to duty or not, should in future be submitted for assessment to the Commissioner, when the duty exigible will be noted on the instrument of appointment, which will thereupon be returned to the Department forwarding it. The amount so assessed will be collected as at present. If no duty be payable, the fact will be so noted.

Attention is specially directed to the circumstance that after this date the Commissioners of Audit and the various Provincial Auditors will decline to pass the salary of any officer on whose appointment duty is payable, unless the terms of this notice be complied with.

Registrar-General.

[* It is not unlikely that in some instances the places given under the heading "Residence" are not the present places of abode of the respective persons. They have been copied, however, as they stand in the General Register; and if they are inaccurate in any case, it is because the changes of residence have not been officially notified to the Registrar-General, as it is obviously desirable that all such changes should be.—WM.
