

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1875.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1875.

New Zealand University Statutes and Regulations.

NORMANBY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-third day of March, 1875.

Present :

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand University Act, 1874," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Senate shall have full power to make and alter any Statutes and Regulations touching the examination for degrees, and the granting of the same, and touching the mode and time of convening the meetings of the Senate, and the meetings of the Convocation, and in general touching all other matters whatsoever, regarding the University, not otherwise especially provided for by the said Act :

And further, that all such Statutes and Regulations, when approved and sanctioned by the Governor in Council, shall be reduced into writing, and the Common Seal of the University having been affixed thereto, shall be binding upon all members thereof, and all candidates for degrees to be conferred by the same :

And whereas the Statutes and Regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto have been passed by the said Senate, and it is expedient that the same should be approved and sanctioned :

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, and in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority vested in him by virtue of the said Act, doth hereby approve and sanction the Statutes and Regulations passed by the Senate of the said University mentioned and set forth in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

STATUTE

Repealing existing Statutes and Regulations, and saving existing Rights.

WHEREAS by "The New Zealand University Act, 1874," certain alterations are made in the functions and constitution of the University: And whereas it is expedient to adapt the statutes and regulations of the University as at present constituted to the altered circumstances of the case, in order to enable the University more easily to perform its functions as prescribed by the said Act, and for this purpose to repeal the statutes and regulations now in force, and to make other statutes and regulations in lieu thereof :

Be it enacted as follows :—

All statutes and regulations of the University in force before the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, are hereby repealed: Provided always that any rights or privileges which may have accrued under the said statutes and regulations shall be as valid as though this statute had not been made.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

STATUTE.

Government and Discipline of the University.

WHEREAS it is expedient that statutes and regulations should be made for the government and discipline of the University of New Zealand: Be it hereby enacted that the Senate of the University in session assembled shall convene and appoint the time and place of meeting of the said Senate for each successive session, and so on from session to session.

The Chancellor, or the Vice-Chancellor, or, in the case of the absence of both from the colony, the Registrar, shall convene a meeting of the Senate upon a written requisition of not less than ten Fellows setting forth the objects for which the meeting is required to be convened, and the meeting shall be called not less than thirty days after the receipt of the requisition by the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor, or Registrar, as the case may be.

Proof of compliance with all these conditions shall be to the satisfaction of the Senate.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

STATUTE.

Conditions of the Affiliation of Collegiate or Scholastic Institutions.

COLLEGIATE or Scholastic Institutions in the colony may be affiliated under the following conditions:—

I. That such institutions provide, for the purpose of teaching and lecturing, lecture-rooms with suitable apparatus and appliances.

II. That at such periods of the year as may be determined upon by the Senate, lectures be regularly given by the teachers and lecturers of these institutions.

III. That it be shown to the satisfaction of the Senate, that such institutions are competent to supply through their teachers and lecturers adequate instruction in Classics, Mathematics, and any one of the following subjects, viz.,—

1. Modern Languages other than English.
2. Physical Science.
3. English Language and Literature.
4. General History.
5. Moral Philosophy and Logic.
6. Jurisprudence.

23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Prescribing Examinations in Affiliated Institutions.

EACH affiliated College shall, between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December in each year, hold an examination in not less than three of the several subjects taught under the conditions of affiliation.

After such examination, the names of the undergraduates shall be arranged in classes, and in order of merit.

The class lists, together with the papers set and the answers thereto, shall be forwarded forthwith to the Registrar.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Specifying Value and Tenure of Scholarships, and Subjects and Conditions of Scholarship Examination.

I. There shall be Scholarships of two kinds, to be called Junior and Senior Scholarships, of the annual value of £45 and £60 respectively.

II. The Junior Scholarships shall be open to candidates between the ages of fifteen and twenty-one years entering upon their University Course.

III. The tenure of such Junior Scholarships shall be for the term of the University course, and in the case of candidates for honours, for one year in addition: Provided that any junior scholar who may obtain a Senior Scholarship as hereinafter mentioned shall thereby vacate such Junior Scholarship.

IV. The Junior Scholarships shall be awarded for excellence in any two or more, not exceeding four, of the following subjects:—

- (1.) Latin.
- (2.) Greek.
- (3.) English, and one of the following modern languages:—(a) French, (b) German, (c) Italian.
- (4.) Mathematics.
- (5.) History.
- (6.) Natural and Physical Science.

V. The Senior Scholarships shall be awarded to students who shall, at the end of their second year, pass with great credit either the voluntary or the compulsory section of the subjects of examination for the B.A. degree.

VI. The Senior Scholarships shall be tenable for one year, and in the case of candidates for honours, for two years.

VII. For the purpose of awarding Senior Scholarships, separate papers, to be marked "Scholarship Papers," containing questions of a higher character on the several subjects of examination, shall be added to the examination papers for the B.A. degree.

VIII. No person shall be entitled to hold a scholarship unless he shall have matriculated as a member of the University, and entered his name upon the books of some affiliated institution, nor unless he shall attend regularly the course of studies and lectures prescribed by such institution.

IX. A scholarship shall become vacant by neglect on the part of the holder to attend any one of the annual examinations of the affiliated institution, upon the books of which he may have entered his name, unless the holder shall produce proof to the satisfaction of the Chancellor that he was unable from illness or other sufficient cause to attend. Provided that any scholar may, on receiving the Chancellor's permission in writing, pursue his studies at some affiliated institution other than that at which he may have originally entered.

X. Scholarship Examinations shall be held at any place within the colony where a person appointed by the Chancellor, to be termed a Supervisor, can be found to see that the rules for examination are complied with.

XI. Scholarship Examinations shall be conducted by means of papers to be severally prepared by the Examiners.

XII. Candidates shall write out answers to the questions set in the presence of the Supervisor, and in accordance with such detailed instructions as may be furnished by the Chancellor or the Chancellor's appointee.

XIII. The written answers shall be transmitted by the Supervisors to the Examiners—that is to say, each answer to the Examiner who set the paper, who shall examine them and report thereon to the Senate.

XIV. The Examiners and Supervisors shall severally receive remuneration for their services as the Senate shall in each case determine.

XV. The Chancellor is hereby empowered to make rules or orders for such matters of detail as may be required for the effectual carrying out of the foregoing regulations.

Approved in Council, 23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Specifying Conditions of Matriculation, and Subjects for Matriculation Examination.

I. Candidates for matriculation shall, before they are admitted as matriculated students of the University, be examined in six or more of the following subjects:—

1. Greek.
2. Latin.
3. English.
4. Arithmetic.
5. Algebra.
6. Euclid.
7. Elementary Chemistry.
8. Elementary Physics—one branch.
9. Elementary Natural Science—one branch.
10. One Modern Language other than English.
11. Political and Physical Geography.
12. History.

II. Each candidate will be required to pass in at least six subjects, of which Latin, English, and Arithmetic must be three.

III. Local Boards of Examiners shall be appointed to conduct the Matriculation Examination for the University.

IV. Successful candidates for scholarships shall be exempt from the obligation to pass the Matriculation Examination, and from payment of the matriculation fee.

V. Every student shall, at matriculation, make the following declaration:—

"I do solemnly promise that I will faithfully obey the statutes and regulations of the University so far as they apply to me; and I hereby declare that I believe myself to have attained the age of fifteen years."

REGULATION

Specifying the Terms to be kept and Examinations to be passed for the B.A. Degree.

I. All matriculated students, members of the University, shall attend the annual examination at some affiliated institution. Provided that each student shall pass the three annual examinations at the same institution, unless specially authorized to do otherwise by the Chancellor of the University, and shall pay such fee as may be determined upon by the Governors of the affiliated institution with the approval of the Chancellor of the University.

II. Residence in an affiliated institution shall not be necessarily required for the keeping of terms; but any student matriculated to the University, and whose name shall be upon the books of an affiliated institution, and who shall have passed the yearly College Examination, shall be deemed to have kept the terms of that year. Provided that in the case of students who shall claim exemption from attendance upon lectures in an affiliated institution, it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Chancellor of the University that circumstances preclude them from such attendance. Provided, also, that no student shall be deemed to have kept the terms of any year who shall not have obtained a certificate of good conduct to the satisfaction of the Chancellor.

III. No student shall be admitted to the final examination for the B.A. degree who has not kept three years' terms at some institution affiliated to the University of New Zealand.

IV. The subjects of examination for the B.A. degree shall be,—

1. Greek Language and Literature.
2. Latin Language and Literature.
3. English Language and Literature.
4. Modern Languages and Literature.
5. General History and Political Economy.

6. Jurisprudence and Constitutional History.
7. Mathematics.
8. Physical Science (any two of the following branches) :—
 - (a.) Sound and Light.
 - (b.) Heat and Radiant Heat.
 - (c.) Electricity and Magnetism.
 - (d.) Astronomy and Meteorology.
9. Chemistry.
10. Natural Science (any one of the following branches) :—
 - (a.) Geology and Mineralogy.
 - (b.) Zoology: Invertebrata.
 - (c.) Zoology: Vertebrata.
 - (d.) Botany.
11. Mental Science.

V. No candidate shall be approved by the Examiners unless he show a competent knowledge of five of the above subjects of examination, of which two must be Latin and Mathematics.

VI. The examination may be passed in two sections. The compulsory subjects shall constitute one section, and the optional subjects the other section. Either section may be taken at the end of the second year, or, at the option of the candidate, the whole five subjects may be taken at the end of the third year.

VII. Every student intending to present himself for examination shall at least six months previously signify to the Chancellor the subjects in which he shall elect to be examined.

VIII. The names of the students who pass the examination shall be placed in alphabetical order, and shall be published by the Chancellor as soon as is convenient after the receipt by him of the reports of the Examiners.

IX. As soon as convenient after the examination, each Examiner shall return the papers of the candidates to the Registrar.

X. The examination for the B.A. degree shall be fixed by the Chancellor for some day in the month of November in each year.

XI. Anything in this regulation notwithstanding, students of the University of Otago who may have matriculated previous to the affiliation of that University to the University of New Zealand, may obtain the B.A. degree after passing in manner prescribed by resolution of the Senate the examination for such degree as required by the said University of Otago.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Specifying Conditions to be fulfilled and Examination to be passed for obtaining Honours.

I. At the end of one year, after the B.A. Examination, there shall be an examination for honours.

II. Candidates for honours shall be examined in one or more of the following groups of subjects:—

1. Languages and Literature. Any two of the following subdivisions, of which Latin must be one:—
 - (a.) Greek.
 - (b.) Latin.
 - (c.) English.
 - (d.) Two Modern Languages other than English.
2. Political Science, including General History, Political Economy, Jurisprudence, and Constitutional History.
3. Mathematics and Mathematical Physics.
4. Chemistry and Experimental Physics.
5. Natural Science.
6. Mental Science.

III. Every candidate for honours shall, at the time of his passing the B.A. Degree Examination, give notice of his intention to present himself for the Honour Examination, and of the subjects in which he proposes to be examined.

IV. There shall be three classes of honours: first, second, and third class.

V. The names of the successful candidates shall be arranged alphabetically in the several classes to which they may have attained.

VI. The Examination for Honours shall be fixed for some day in the month of November in each year.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Specifying the Proceedings necessary for obtaining Degrees in Music.

I. A candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Music must declare at the time of matriculation his intention of proceeding to that degree, and must also produce at the same time a certificate, signed by two or more trustworthy persons, that he has been studying or practising music, whether in New Zealand or elsewhere, for four years.

II. A Bachelor of Music wishing to proceed to the degree of Doctor must produce a similar certificate for five years from admission to his present degree.

III. The regulations for proceeding to a degree in Arts apply also to a degree in Music, those excepted which prescribe a course of study and subjects for examination.

IV. Candidates for the degree of B. Mus. are required to pass an examination in each year as under the regulation "Specifying the terms to be kept, and examinations to be passed for the B.A. degree," but the examination shall be in music only. The examination papers for the yearly examination are framed at the discretion of the Examiners. To obviate difficulties arising from difference of opinion amongst masters in Harmony, the Examiners will accept as correct all answers given in accordance with any standard work on Harmony. The books recommended for study are,—Sir Frederick Ouseley's Harmony, Canon and Fugue; Albrechtberger's Guide to Composition (vols. 2 and 3 of the entire work) for Counterpoint, Canon and Fugue; and Cherubini, for the same.

V. The final examination for the degree of B. Mus. is conducted in writing. The candidate is required to add three parts in the strict style to a given subject, placing the subject successively in each part, this without access to an instrument. Also with access to an instrument, if desired, write a single fugue in at least three parts, in the free style, to a given subject. Also to compose a piece of vocal music on given words, in at least four parts, with an accompaniment for the organ, or for not more than five stringed instruments. To these, which are imperative, the Examiners will add, at their discretion, further tests of proficiency. Instrumental performance will not be tested or taken into account.

VI. A Bachelor of Music wishing to proceed to the degree of Doctor is required to pass an examination in writing by the Examiners above mentioned, and to compose a piece of vocal music in eight parts, with an accompaniment for a full orchestra, which, when approved, is to be performed in public, and a copy of it to be deposited in the Music School.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Permitting certain Teachers to proceed to the B.A. Degree.

TEACHERS in affiliated institutions and certificated teachers of good repute in any school established or conducted under the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly or of a Provincial Council of this Colony, having been in the practice of their profession for at least five years, may be admitted on the recommendation of the Chancellor or of the Vice-Chancellor, to the final examination for the B.A. degree on payment of the ordinary fees, without matriculation and the keeping of the University terms; and on passing that examination shall be entitled to all the privileges of undergraduates of the same standing, anything in other regulations of the University notwithstanding: Provided that this regulation shall be in force for two years and no longer from the day of its approval by the Governor.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Specifying the Conditions to be fulfilled for obtaining the "Bowen Prize."

I. There shall be a yearly prize, to be called the "Bowen Prize," of the value of not less than five pounds (£5), to be given for the best essay, as hereinafter provided. The prize, if a medal, shall be impressed with the arms of the University, and with the words "Bowen Prize" on the obverse side of the medal; and, if of books, each volume shall be impressed with the arms of the University.

II. The prize shall be open to all matriculated students of the University who shall not have taken their degree.

III. The Examiners shall be the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and one other person to be appointed by the Senate of the University in each year: Provided that such last-mentioned person shall hold office till the appointment of his successor. Provided also that in case of a vacancy occurring in the above-mentioned body of Examiners, the Chancellor, or in his absence, or in case of his inability from any cause to act, the Vice-Chancellor, shall appoint some fit person to supply such vacancy.

IV. The subject for the essay shall be selected by the Examiners appointed as above, or any two of them, and shall be given out in the month of March in each year; and the essays shall be sent in to the Registrar before the 31st day of December next ensuing.

V. The subject of the essay shall be connected with, or shall bear reference to, British History, or the history, institutions, or destinies of the British Colonies, or any of them.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Appropriating Funds for the purposes of the University.

THE sum of one thousand five hundred pounds out of the annual income of the University shall be appropriated yearly, and paid into a separate account for the establishment from time to time of scholarships, according to regulations to be made by the Senate. Any sums which may not have been expended during any year out of the funds appropriated to Scholarships may be invested from time to time as the Senate may direct, and the interest accruing thereon shall be available for increasing as occasion may require the number of scholarships. The balance of the University funds shall be appropriated to defraying the expenditure incident to the conduct of examinations, and for the general purposes of the University as may be directed by the Senate.

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

REGULATION

Prescribing Form of Diploma for Graduates.

EACH candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Master of Arts shall, on admission, receive a Diploma under the hand of the Chancellor, sealed with the University Seal, certifying that such a degree has been conferred.

The form of such Diploma shall be as follows:—
"A.B. has this day been admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Arts [or Master of Arts] in the University of New Zealand."

"Given under my hand, this day of one thousand eight hundred and
" C.D.,
" Chancellor."

Approved in Council,
23rd March, 1875.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
