WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1875.

*The Otago Town and County Police Ordinance 1862
 Amendment Ordinance, 1875, disallowed.*

(L.S.)      NORMANBY, Governor.
 A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Imperial Parliament, holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is, amongst other things, enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent, as in the said Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such Bill; and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein:

And whereas the Act hereinafter specified has been enacted by the Superintendent of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, and the said Act was received by the Governor on the fifteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be disallowed:

Now therefore, I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the following Act, passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Otago, namely,—

"The Town and County Police Ordinance 1862 Amendment Ordinance, 1875."

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this nineteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

“Real Estate Descent Act, 1874,” to come into operation.

(L.S.) NORMANBY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by “The Real Estate Descent Act, 1874,” it is enacted that the said Act shall come into operation from a day to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, and such day to be not less than three months from the day upon which notice of Her Majesty's approval of the same shall be published in the said Gazette:

And whereas the said Act, reserved for the expression of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, has been submitted to Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same, and such assent has been signified by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April last, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the sixth day of May last:

Now therefore, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me as aforesaid, do hereby fix and declare the first day of October next to be the day on and from which “The Real Estate Descent Act, 1874,” shall come into operation within the Colony of New Zealand.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint

Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House at Wellington, this nineteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Exempting from Duty Jordan's Bonding Warehouse, Port of Tauranga.

NORMANBY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of August, 1875.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by “The Bonded Warehouse Duty Act, 1866,” it is, amongst other things, enacted that the occupier of any warehouse appointed for the free warehousing and securing goods therein liable to duty under the provisions of “The Customs Regulation Act, 1858,” shall pay to the Collector of Customs, or such other officer as may from time to time be appointed by the Commissioner of Customs for such purpose, an annual duty according to the Schedule thereto annexed: And whereas by “The Customs Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1868,” it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, by an Order for that purpose, at any time to exempt from the payment of duty chargeable under “The Bonded Warehouse Duty Act, 1866,” the owner or occupier of any warehouse to be appointed after the passing of the Act now in recital for the warehousing or securing of goods liable to duty at any port, excepting those at Auckland, New Plymouth, Wanganui, Wellington, Napier, Nelson, Greymouth, Hokitika, Lyttelton, Christchurch, Timaru, Oamaru, Dunedin, and Invercargill: And whereas application has been made for a License for a Warehouse situate on the Strand Allotment, Number 54, in the Port of Tauranga, of which Richard Coles Jordan is the owner or occupier, and it is expedient that the owner or occupier of the said Warehouse should be exempt from payment of the duty chargeable under “The Bonded Warehouse Duty Act, 1866:”

Now therefore, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the said power and authority, and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, do hereby order that the occupiers and owners of the said Warehouse shall be exempt from payment of the duty chargeable thereon under “The Bonded Warehouse Duty Act, 1866.”

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Abolishing Petty Sessions District of Ngaruroro.

NORMANBY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of August, 1875.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by “The Petty Sessions Act, 1865,” it is enacted that the Governor from time to time, by Order in Council, whereof notice shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may constitute and define districts within and for which Courts to be called Courts of Petty Sessions shall be held, and such districts, or any of them, may from time to time abolish, and the boundaries thereof may define or alter:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the twenty-second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of the said month of July the Ngaruroro District was, amongst others, defined to be a district within and for which Courts of Petty Sessions should be held for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the said district:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in this behalf vested in him as aforesaid, doth hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, abolish the said District of Ngaruroro from the first day of October next.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Fixing Sittings of District Court, Otago Gold Fields.

NORMANBY, Governor.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in this behalf enabling me, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby fix and appoint that sittings of the District Court of the Otago Gold Fields shall be held as follows:—

In the Resident Magistrate's Court House at Cromwell on Wednesday, the sixth day of October, and Wednesday, the eighth day of December next.

Provided that in case either of the days so fixed as aforesaid shall happen to be a holiday, then the Court appointed for that day shall be holden on the first day thereafter not being a holiday.

Issued this nineteenth day of August, 1875.

CHARLES C. BOWEN.

PATENT for a Floating Dock to raise Vessels by pumping Air into the Dock.

This is to notify, that WILLIAM FITZGERALD CRAWFORD, of Gisborne, in the Province of Auckland, Brewer, did, on the tenth day of June instant, deposit at the office of the Patent Officer in the Colonial Secretary's Office, in Wellington, a specification or instrument in writing under his hand and seal, particularly describing and ascertaining the nature of the said Invention, and in what manner the same is to be performed; and that by reason of such deposit the said Invention is protected and secured to him exclusively for the term of six calendar months thence next ensuing.

And I do further notify, that the said William Fitzgerald Crawford has given notice in writing at my office of his intention to proceed with his application for Letters Patent for the said Invention, and that I have appointed Friday, the twenty-ninth day of October next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at my office, to hear and consider the said application and all objections thereto; and I do hereby require all persons having an interest in opposing the grant of such Letters Patent to leave, on or before the twenty-fifth day of October next, at my office in Wellington, particulars in writing of their objections to the said application, otherwise they will be precluded from urging the same.

Given under my hand this tenth day of June, 1875.

W. S. REID,
Patent Officer.
