Extension of Day for Election of Councillors for the Borough of Nelson.

NORMANBY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1875.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of "The Municipal Corporations Act Amendment Act, 1868," it is, amongst other things, enacted that, within the period of fifteen days before or after the day appointed for the holding of any election, or of any meeting of Councillors, or for the doing of any act, matter, or thing by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1867," hereinafter called "the said Act," required to be done on or before a day certain, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to extend the time allowed for the holding of such election, or meeting of Councillors, or for the doing of any such act, matter or thing, as aforesaid, notwithstanding the day may have passed on which the same ought to have been held or done, and adopt, or cause to be adopted, such measures as may be necessary to remove any obstacle of a technical or formal nature, by which the carrying out of the provisions of the said Act may be impeded, and to supply any deficiency which may be required to be supplied in order to enable the said provisions to be duly carried out: And whereas the notice required to be given by the eighty-third section of the said Act, before the election of Councillors for the Borough of Nelson, has been omitted, and the second Thursday in this present month of September is the day appointed by the said Act for the election of Councillors:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power, and of all other powers enabling him, and by and with the consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, doth hereby, in lieu of the second Thursday in this present month of September, appoint Friday the twenty-fourth day of the same month, as the day for the election of Councillors for the Borough of Nelson, under the provisions of the said Act.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Reserve for a Site for Lighthouse.

NORMANBY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this seventh day of September, 1875.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Waste Lands Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, at any time and from time to time, to except from sale, and either reserve to Her Majesty or dispose of in such other manner as for the public interest may seem best, such of the waste lands of the Crown in any of the provinces of the colony as may be required for the purposes of military defence, or for the construction of trunk lines of road, or as sites for public buildings for the use of the General Government, or for other purposes of public utility or convenience:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony, in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority in that behalf vested in him, doth hereby except from sale and reserve to Her Majesty the several parcels of the waste lands of the Crown particularly specified and described in the Schedule hereunder written, for the purposes in the said Schedule mentioned, and set opposite the descriptions of the said parcels of land.

SCHEDULE.

Description of Reserve.	Purpose of Reserve.

Limits of Port of All-Day Bay, Otago, defined.

NORMANBY, Governor.

IN pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the 7th section of "The Marine Act, 1867," I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby, for the purposes of the said Act, define the limits of the Port of All-Day Bay, in the Province of Otago, to be all the navigable waters included within a radius of three nautical miles from the Signal Flag-staff thereat.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; at the Government House, at Wellington, this first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WILLIAM H. REYNOLDS.

NORMANBY, Governor.

IN pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the 7th section of "The Marine Act, 1867," I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, do hereby, for the purposes of the said Act, define the limits of the Ports of Half-Moon Bay, Paterson's Inlet, Port Adventure, and Port William, all in Stewart's Island, in the Province of Otago, to be respectively as follow:—

Port of Half-Moon Bay.

All navigable waters within Half-Moon Bay, and a radius seaward of one-half of the distance between Aker's Point and the northern point of the bay, taken from a point midway between the extremity of the said points.

Port of Paterson's Inlet.

All navigable waters within Paterson's Inlet, and a radius seaward of one-half the distance between the northern portion of Anglem Point and Aker's Point, taken from a point midway between the extremities of the said points.

Port of Port Adventure.

All navigable waters within Port Adventure, and a radius of three nautical miles seaward from the centre of Entrance Island.

Port of Port William.

All navigable waters within Port William, and a radius of one nautical mile and three-quarters seaward, taken from a point midway between the extremities of East Head and West Head.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; at the Government House, at Wellington, this first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Despatch from the Secretary of State.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 8th September, 1875.

THE following despatch, with its enclosure, from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

DANIEL POLLEN.

[CIRCULAR.]

Downing Street, 26th June, 1875.

SIR,—I transmit to you, at the request of the Civil Service Commissioners, the enclosed Regulations for an examination of Candidates for the Civil Service of India, which is to be held in April, 1876.

I have, &c.,

CARNARVON.

The Officer Administering the Government of New Zealand.

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

REGULATIONS FOR THE OPEN COMPETITION OF 1876.

N.B.—The Regulations are liable to be altered in future years.

1. On Tuesday, 4th April, 1876, and following days, an Examination of Candidates will be held in London. At this Examination not fewer than Candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified. Of these will be selected for the Presidency of Bengal [ for the Upper Provinces, and for the Lower Provinces], for that of Madras, and for that of Bombay.* Notice will hereafter be given of the days and place of examination.

2. Any person desirous of competing at this Examination, must produce to the Civil Service Commissioners, before the 1st of February, 1876, evidence showing—

- (a.) That he is a natural-born subject of Her Majesty.
- (b.) That his age on the 1st March, 1876, will be above seventeen years and under twenty-one years. [N.B. In the case of Natives of India this must be certified by the Government of India, or of the Presidency or Province in which the Candidate may have resided.
- (c.) That he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Civil Service of India.†
- (d.) That he is of good moral character.

He must also pay such fee as the Secretary of State for India may prescribe.‡

3. Should the evidence upon the above points be prima facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, the Candidate will, upon payment of the prescribed fee, be admitted to the Examination. The Commissioners may, however, in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the certificate of qualification hereinafter referred to, institute such further inquiries as they may deem necessary; and if the result of such inquiries, in the case of any Candidate, should be unsatisfactory to them in any of the above respects, he will be ineligible for admission to the Civil Service of India, and, if already selected, will be removed from the position of a Probationer.

4. The Examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:—

	Marks.
English Composition ... ..	500
History of England—including that of the Laws and Constitution ...	500
English Language and Literature ...	500
Language, Literature, and History of Greece ...	750
Ditto " Rome ...	750
Ditto " France ...	375
Ditto " Germany ...	375
Ditto " Italy ...	375
Mathematics (pure and mixed) ...	1,250
Natural Science; that is—
(1) Chemistry, including Heat;
(2) Electricity and Magnetism;
(3) Geology and Mineralogy;
(4) Zoology; (5) Botany ...	1,000

* * * The total (1,000) marks may be obtained by adequate proficiency in any two or more of the five branches of Science included under this head.

Moral Sciences; that is, Logic, Mental and Moral Philosophy ...	500
Sanskrit Language and Literature ...	500
Arabic Language and Literature ...	500

Candidates are at liberty to name before 1st February, 1876, any or all of the branches of knowledge. No subjects are obligatory.

* The number of appointments to be made, and the number in each Presidency, &c., will be announced hereafter.

† Evidence of health and character must bear date not earlier than the 1st January, 1876.

‡ The fee for this Examination will be £5, payable by means of a special stamp, according to instructions which will be communicated to Candidates.

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks; and the number set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulation denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. No Candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of examination, unless he shall be considered to possess a competent knowledge of that subject.*

7. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by viva voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each Candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the Candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining Candidates will be set forth in order of merit, and such Candidates shall be deemed to be selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India, provided they appear to be in other respects duly qualified. Should any of the selected Candidates become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled up or not. In the former case, the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a selected Candidate. A selected Candidate declining to accept the appointment which may be offered to him, will be disqualified for any subsequent competition.

9. Selected Candidates, before proceeding to India, will be on probation for two years, during which time they will be examined periodically, with a view of testing their progress in the following subjects:—†

	Marks.
(1.) Oriental Languages:
Sanskrit ... ..	500
Vernacular‡ Languages of India (each) ... ..	400
(2.) The History and Geography of India ... ..	350
(3.) Law ... ..	1,250
(4.) Political Economy ... ..	350

In these Examinations, as in the open competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks, and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it at any one Examination. The Examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by viva voce Examination, as may be deemed necessary. The last of these Examinations will be held at the close of the second year of probation, and will be called the "Final Examination," at which it will be decided whether a selected Candidate is qualified for the Civil Service of India.

10. Any Candidate who, at any of the periodical Examinations, shall appear to have wilfully neglected his studies, or to be physically incapacitated for pursuing the prescribed course of training, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected Candidates.

11. The selected Candidates who, at the Final Examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 9,

* "Nothing can be further from our wish than to hold out premiums for knowledge of wide surface and of small depth. We are of opinion that a Candidate ought to be allowed no credit at all for taking up a subject in which he is a mere smatterer."—Report of Committee of 1854. A deduction of marks will be made under each subject, including Mathematics.

† Full instructions as to the course of study to be pursued will be issued to the successful Candidates as soon as possible after the result of the open competition is declared.

‡ Including, besides the languages prescribed for the several Presidencies, such other languages as may, with the approval of the Commissioners, be taken up as subjects of examination.

and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, health, and character, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Civil Service of India, provided they shall comply with the Regulations in force at the time for that Service.

12. Applications from persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates are to be addressed to the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, London, S.W., from whom the proper form for the purpose may be obtained.

17th June, 1875.

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements:—

(1.) Selected Candidates will be permitted to choose,* according to the order in which they stand in the list resulting from the open competition, as long as a choice remains, the Presidency (and in Bengal the Division of the Presidency) to which they shall be appointed, but this choice will be subject to a different arrangement should the Secretary of State or Government of India deem it necessary.

(2.) No Candidate will be permitted to proceed to India before he shall have passed the Final Examination, and received a certificate of qualification from the Civil Service Commissioners, or after he shall have attained the age of twenty-four years.

(3.) The seniority in the Civil Service of India of the selected Candidates shall be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the Final Examination.

(4.) It is the intention of the Secretary of State to allow the sum of £50 after each of the three first half-years of probation, and £150 after the last half-year, to each selected Candidate who shall have passed the required Examinations to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and shall have complied with such rules as may be laid down for the guidance of selected Candidates.

(5.) All selected Candidates will be required, after having passed the Second Periodical Examination, to attend at the India Office for the purpose of entering into an agreement binding themselves, amongst other things, to refund in certain cases the amount of their allowance in the event of their failing to proceed to India. For a Candidate under age, a surety will be required.

(6.) After passing the Final Examination, each Candidate will be required to attend again at the India Office, with the view of entering into covenants and giving a bond for £1,000, jointly with two sureties, for the due fulfilment of the same. The stamps payable on these documents amount to £1 10s.

(7.) Candidates rejected at the Final Examination of 1878 will in no case be allowed to present themselves for re-examination.

CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

FORM OF APPLICATION TO BE FILLED UP BY CANDIDATES.

*** This Form must be sent so as to be received at the Office of the Civil Service Commission before the 1st of February, 1876.

To the Secretary, Civil Service Commission.

SIR,— Date.

I beg to inform you that I desire to be a Candidate at the forthcoming Examination for the Civil Service of India.

As required by the Regulations, I transmit herewith—

- (1.) A certificate of my birth, showing that I was born on the _____ day of _____, 18____, and therefore my age on March 1, 1876, will be above 17 years (complete), and under 21 years.†

* This choice must be exercised immediately after the result of the open competition is announced, on such day as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners.

Note.—† (1.) If a General Register Office certificate cannot be obtained, the instructions printed on the other side will show what evidence should be supplied. If evidence is already in the hands of the Commissioners, strike out "A certificate of my birth," and insert "Evidence is already in the possession of the Commissioners."

- (2.) A certificate signed by _____ of my having "no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting me for the Civil Service of India."*

- (3.) Proof of my moral character,† viz.,—
(1.) A testimonial from _____
(2.) A testimonial from _____

- (4.) A statement of the branches of knowledge in which I desire to be examined,‡ viz.,—

I have also to state, with reference to section 2, clause (a), of the Regulations, that I am a natural-born subject of Her Majesty.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

Name in full
Address

EVIDENCE OF AGE TO BE REQUIRED FROM CANDIDATES FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

I. Every Candidate born in England or Wales should produce a certificate from the Registrar-General of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, or from one of his provincial officers. This certificate may be obtained at Somerset House, or from the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which the birth took place.

II. A Candidate who is a Native of India must have his age certified by the Government of India, or of the Presidency or Province in which he may have resided.

III. Every other Candidate, not producing the certificate mentioned in clause I, must prove his age by statutory declaration, and should also, if possible, produce a record of birth or baptism from some official register; under which term may be included the parochial registers of baptisms, the non-parochial registers of baptisms and births deposited at Somerset House under Acts of Parliament, the register kept at the India Office of persons born in India, &c., &c. This Regulation applies—

1. To all Candidates not born in England or Wales.
2. To Candidates who, though born in England or Wales, cannot produce the Registrar-General's certificate.

The Civil Service Commissioners reserve to themselves the right of deciding in each case upon the sufficiency of the evidence produced, but they subjoin the following general rules for the guidance of Candidates:—

- (a.) The declaration should specify precisely the date and place of birth, and should, if possible, be made by the father or mother of the Candidate. If made by any other person, it should state the circumstances which enable the declarant to speak to the fact. If an entry in a Bible or other family record be referred to, the Bible or other record must be produced at the time of making the declaration, and must be mentioned in the declaration as having been so produced.

* (2.) The terms indicated by the marks of quotation must appear in the certificate, which must be given after personal examination, and bear date not earlier than 1st January, 1876.

† (3.) Two testimonials must be sent bearing date not earlier than 1st January, 1876. One of them should be given by an intimate acquaintance (not a relative) of not less than three or four years' standing; the other, if the Candidate has recently left school, should be given by his late schoolmaster, or if he has had employment of any kind, by his late employer. If the Candidate has been at any University, he should send a certificate of good conduct from his college tutor.

‡ (4.) If mathematics be named, state whether pure or mixed, or both, are intended; if natural science be mentioned, state which branches.

- (b.) If the Candidate was born in England or Wales, the declaration must contain a statement that after due inquiry no entry has been found in the books of the Registrar-General; or a separate declaration must be made to that effect.
- (c.) If no extract from any register is produced, the declaration must contain a statement that after due inquiry no such record is believed to exist, or a separate declaration must be made to that effect.
- (d.) Statutory declarations must be exactly in the form prescribed by the Act of 5 and 6 William IV., c. 62. A printed form, if required, will be supplied on application to the Civil Service Commissioners.

N.B.—Clergymen, as such, are not qualified to take declarations.
