

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
OF THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1877.
Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1877.

Persons entitled to Land under "The Immigrants Land Act, 1875."

NORMANBY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, 1877.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Immigrants Land Act Amendment Act, 1875," it is enacted that in any case where any person, who, since the passing of "The Immigrants Land Act, 1873," (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act,") and prior to the coming into operation of the now reciting Act, has paid his own passage to the colony with the intention of settling upon and cultivating land therein, and who has omitted to obtain any certificate or to do any other act by the said Act required to entitle him to a free grant of land thereunder, whether such omission shall have occurred prior to or after arrival in the colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, on receiving proof that such person had a bonâ fide intention to comply with the said Act, to direct and declare that such person shall have and be entitled to all the privileges and benefits which he would have had under the said Act but for such omission as aforesaid; and further that every such Order in Council shall state specifically the nature of the omission in respect of which such Order shall be made, and shall be forthwith published in the New Zealand Gazette; and thereupon the person named in such Order in Council shall have all the privileges and benefits which he would have had but for such omission as aforesaid:

And whereas proof has been received by the Governor that the person mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto has paid his own passage to the colony with the intention of settling upon and cultivating land therein, and also that he had a bonâ fide intention to comply with the said Act, but has omitted to do the acts mentioned in the second column of the said Schedule by the said Act required to entitle him to a free grant of land thereunder:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, and in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority vested in him by the said "Immigrants Land Act Amendment Act, 1875," doth hereby direct and declare that the person mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall have and be entitled to all the privileges and benefits which he would have had under the said Act but for such omission as aforesaid.

SCHEDULE.

FIRST COLUMN.	SECOND COLUMN.
Immigrant's Name in full.	Statement of the omission or matter in respect of which "The Immigrants Land Act, 1873," has not been complied with.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Gasoline and Lithofracteur deemed specially dangerous under "The Dangerous Goods Act, 1869."

NORMANBY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, 1877.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

BY virtue of the powers and authorities vested in me by "The Dangerous Goods Act, 1869," I,

George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, do hereby order and declare that the goods or articles known as "gasoline," "dynamite," and "lithofracteur" shall be deemed "specially dangerous" within the meaning of the said Act.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Regulation under "The Marine Act, 1867."

NORMANBY, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, 1877.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Act, 1867," it is, among other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make regulations for regulating the packing, landing, shipping, deposit, and removal of gunpowder and other explosive substances and compounds: And whereas it is expedient to make regulations for the packing, landing, shipping, deposit, and removal of the explosive substances and compounds known as gasoline, dynamite, and lithofracteur:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, and in pursuance of the above-recited power and authority, doth hereby make the following Regulation:—

The whole of the Regulations and By-laws respecting gunpowder, made by two several Orders in Council on the 25th day of June, 1868, and the 17th of March, 1869, published in the New Zealand Gazette of the 25th June, 1868, and March the 19th, 1869, respectively, shall apply to the goods or articles known as "gasoline," "dynamite," and "lithofracteur," to all intents and purposes as if such goods and articles were specified and named in such Regulations and By-laws.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Warrant abolishing Polling Place.

NORMANBY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint polling places for each electoral district within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such polling places to be the principal polling place for the district, and all or any of such polling places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other polling places in lieu of those abolished; and that every such warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no polling place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat: And whereas by warrant under the hand of the Governor, bearing date the sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the premises of Mr. Arthur Nicholl's, Tenui, were appointed a polling place for the District of Wairarapa for the election of Members of the House of Representatives: And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same:

Now know ye that I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named polling place for the District of Wairarapa for the election of Members of the House of Representatives.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; at Wellington, this twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

CHARLES C. BOWEN.

Warrant appointing Polling Place.

NORMANBY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint polling places for each electoral district within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such polling places to be the principal polling place for the district, and all or any of such polling places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other polling places in lieu of those abolished; and that every such warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no polling place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat:

Now know ye that I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby appoint the following places to be polling places for the electoral districts, hereinafter specified, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives, namely,—
