WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1877.

Division of Borough of Roslyn into Four Wards, under "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876."

(L.S.)      NORMANBY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," section twenty-one, it is enacted that if not less than one-fourth of the burgesses of a borough petition the Governor, praying him to divide such borough into wards, the Governor may, by Proclamation, divide such borough into not less than three nor more than six wards, and shall in such Proclamation assign such name and boundaries to each ward as he thinks fit: And whereas not less than one-fourth of the burgesses of the Borough of Roslyn have petitioned me to divide such borough into wards:

Now, therefore, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the hereinbefore-recited authority, do hereby proclaim and declare that the Borough of Roslyn shall be and the same is hereby divided into four wards, having the names mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto; and that the boundaries of such wards shall be those set forth in the second column of the said Schedule opposite the name of each ward respectively.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

DANIEL POLLEN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Regulations for the Public Prisons of the Colony, under "The Prisons Act, 1873," as to Shaving.

(L.S.) NORMANBY, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the fifteenth section of "The Prisons Act, 1873," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, make rules as to him shall seem fit touching the duties of the officers of public prisons, the treatment of the prisoners confined therein, and generally as may be necessary for the good management and government of such prisons, and from time to time to alter or revoke any such rules as aforesaid: And whereas by a Proclamation bearing date the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, certain Regulations were made for public prisons: And whereas it is expedient to alter such Regulations:

Now, therefore, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me in this behalf as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that from the first day of September next, the following Regulation shall be in force within all the public prisons of the colony.

REGULATION.

Shaving and Hair Cutting.

THE practice of shaving prisoners will cease at all prisons. The prisoners will have their hair, beard, and moustache cut, to a length proper to ensure cleanliness, once a fortnight.

CHARLES C. BOWEN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Persons entitled to Land under "The Immigrants Land Act, 1875."

NORMANBY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-eighth day of August, 1877.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Immigrants Land Act Amendment Act, 1875," it is enacted that in any case where any person, who, since the passing of "The Immigrants Land Act, 1873" (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), and prior to the coming into operation of the now reciting Act, has paid his own passage to the colony with the intention of settling upon and cultivating land therein, and who has omitted to obtain any certificate or to do any other act by the said Act required to entitle him to a free grant of land thereunder, whether such omission shall have occurred prior to or after arrival in the colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, on receiving proof that such person had a bonâ fide intention to comply with the said Act, to direct and declare that such person shall have and be entitled to all the privileges and benefits which he would have had under the said Act but for such omission as aforesaid; and further, that every such Order in Council shall state specifically the nature of the omission in respect of which such Order shall be made, and shall be forthwith published in the New Zealand Gazette; and thereupon the person named in such Order in Council shall have all the privileges and benefits which he would have had but for such omission as aforesaid:

And whereas proof has been received by the Governor that the persons mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto have paid their own passages to the colony with the intention of settling upon and cultivating land therein, and also that they had a bonâ fide intention to comply with the said Act, but have omitted to do the acts mentioned in the second column of the said Schedule by the said Act required to entitle them to free grants of land thereunder:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, and in exercise and pursuance of the power and authority vested in him by the said "Immigrants Land Act Amendment Act, 1875," doth hereby direct and declare that the persons mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto shall have and be entitled to all the privileges and benefits which they would have had under the said Act but for such omission as aforesaid.
