

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1878.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, JULY 8, 1878.

Warrant appointing additional Polling-place.

NORMANBY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint polling-places for each electoral district within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such polling-places to be the principal polling-place for the district, and all or any of such polling-places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other polling-places in lieu of those abolished, and that every such warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no polling-place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act, unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat:

Now know ye that I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby appoint the following place to be an additional polling-place for the electoral district hereinafter specified, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives, namely:—

For the Electoral District of Waipa,—
The Schoolhouse, Paterangi.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; at Wellington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

G. S. WHITMORE.

Warrant abolishing Polling-place.

NORMANBY, Governor.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME,
GREETING:

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by warrant under his hand, from time to time to appoint polling-places for each electoral district within or within one mile of the limits thereof, and to appoint any one of such polling-places to be the principal polling-place for the district, and all or any of such polling-places from time to time to abolish, and, if he think fit, to appoint other polling-places in lieu of those abolished, and that every such warrant shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette: Provided always that no polling-place shall be appointed by the Governor under the said Act, unless he shall be first satisfied that the place to be appointed is more convenient than any other for at least twenty electors to record their votes thereat:

And whereas by warrant under the hand of the Governor, bearing date the sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five,

The Schoolhouse, Ohaupo, was appointed a polling-place for the District of Waipa, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives:

And whereas it is expedient to abolish the same:

Now know ye that I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby abolish the above-named polling-place for the District of Waipa, for the election of Members of the House of Representatives.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Most Honorable George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland; a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; at Wellington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

G. S. WHITMORE.

Notification of Resignation of Seat in the House of Representatives for Electoral District of Roslyn.

IN compliance with the provisions of the thirteenth section of "The Regulation of Elections Act, 1870," I hereby notify that Arthur John Burns, Esquire, has resigned his seat in the House of Representatives for the Electoral District of Roslyn, and that his letter of resignation was received by me on the 5th day of July, 1878; and that the said seat is vacant by reason of such resignation.

Dated at the Hutt, the 6th day of July, 1878.

WILLIAM FITZHERBERT,
Speaker.

Member of House of Representatives elected.

Clerk of the Writs' Office,
Wellington, 6th July, 1878.

THE Clerk of the Writs has received a return to the Writ issued by him on the thirteenth day of June, 1878, for the election of a Member to serve in the House of Representatives of New Zealand, for the electoral district hereinafter specified, and by the indorsement on such Writ it appears that the under-mentioned gentleman has been duly elected Member for such district, viz. :—

For the District of the City of Dunedin :

RICHARD OLIVER, Esquire.

G. S. COOPER,
Clerk of the Writs.

By Authority: GEORGE DIBSBURY, Government Printer, Wellington.
