Declaring Lands open for Free Selection, Taranaki.

(L.S.) NORMANBY, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the fourth section of "The Crown Lands Sales Act, 1877," it is enacted that, from and after the coming into operation of that Act, and until further provision is made for the classification of Crown lands by the General Assembly, all Crown lands shall be sold in accordance with the law in force in the land district where such lands are situated, but not in any case at a less price than two pounds per acre, if by free selection; and in the event of any land having to be sold at auction after application to purchase, then the upset price at which such land shall be put up to auction shall be at such price per acre as the Waste Land Board may determine, not being less than the price at which the land was open for application: Provided that, after lands have been put up to auction at a price of not less than one pound per acre, the said land may, by Proclamation by the Governor, be opened to free selection at a price of not less than one pound per acre:

And whereas the lands specified in the Schedule hereto have been put up to auction at a price of not less than one pound per acre, and were not sold, and it is expedient that the same lands should be opened to free selection:

Now, therefore, I, George Augustus Constantine, Marquis of Normanby, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the lands in the Provincial District of Taranaki specified in the Schedule hereto are opened to free selection at a price of not less than one pound per acre.
