

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE,
OF THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1879.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1879.

Proclamation bringing "The Regulation of Mines Act, 1874," into force in all the Provincial Districts in the Colony.

(L.S.)           JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Regulation of Mines Act, 1874," it is, among other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may, on the recommendation of the Superintendent of any province, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, declare that, on and after a day named in such Proclamation, this Act shall be in force in such province, and on the day so named this Act shall come into and be in force in such province, and not before: And whereas by the operation of "The Abolition of Provinces Act, 1875," the powers, duties, and functions of the Superintendents of provinces are vested in and may be exercised by the Governor in any provincial district constituted by the last-mentioned Act: And whereas the Administrator of the Government of the colony has recommended that "The Regulation of Mines Act, 1874," shall be brought into force in all the provincial districts in the colony:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority contained in the hereinbefore in part recited Acts, and of every other power and authority in that behalf enabling him, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby proclaim and declare that, on and after the twenty-eighth day of February, instant, "The Regulation of Mines Act, 1874," shall be in force in the Provincial Districts of Auckland, Hawke's Bay, Taranaki, Wellington, Marlborough, Nelson, Westland, Canterbury, and Otago.

Given under the hand of His Excellency James Prendergast, Esquire, Administrator of the Government in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, at the Government House, at Wellington; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, this twenty-eighth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

ROBERT STOUT.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Appointing Hohepa Palmer Trustee under "The Maori Real Estate Management Act, 1867."

NORMANBY Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this fifteenth day of February, 1879.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Maori Real Estate Management Act, 1867" (hereinafter called "the said Act"), it is enacted that, if any title to or interest in any hereditaments shall accrue to any Maoris, who or any of whom shall be infants, lunatics, or under legal disability, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, if he think fit, to order that such hereditaments, or any part thereof or interest therein, as shall to the Governor in Council be shown to belong to such infant, or lunatic, or other person under legal disability, shall be vested in trustees, as the Governor in Council shall think fit:

And whereas by virtue of a Crown grant bearing date the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, the parcel of land and hereditaments described in the Schedule hereto became vested in Te Ninihi and others, of the District of Tauranga, in the Provincial District of Auckland, aboriginal natives of New Zealand:

And whereas the said Te Ninihi died intestate:

And whereas at a sitting of the Native Land Court, held at Tauranga, in the Provincial District of Auckland, on the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, Akuhata te Ninihi claimed to succeed to the said Te Ninihi in the parcel of land described in the said Schedule, and it was ordered by the said Court that Akuhata te Ninihi, Peti te Ninihi, and Te Aorere should succeed to the interest and share of the said Te Ninihi in the hereditaments aforesaid:

And whereas the said Te Aorere is an infant under the age of twenty-one years, and it is expedient that Hohepa Palmer be appointed trustee under the said Act, on behalf of the said Te Aorere:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the colony, in exercise and in pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act, doth hereby order that the interest and share of the said Te Aorere in the land described in the Schedule hereto shall be and remain vested in as Trustee, within the meaning and for the purposes of the said Act, for the said Te Aorere during minority.

HOHEPA PALMER,

SCHEDULE.

ALL that parcel of land in the Province of Auckland, in the Colony of New Zealand, containing by admeasurement 1,170 acres, more or less, situate at Katikati, in the District of Tauranga, being called or known by the name of Panepane. Bounded towards the North-east by high-water mark of the Bay of Plenty; towards the South-east by Allotment number thirteen, 679½ links; towards the West by high-water mark of the Otapu Creek, by Allotment twelve, 1520 links, 4116 links, and 913 links; again by high-water mark of the Otapu Creek aforesaid; and towards the North-west by Allotment number nine, 5820 links.
