WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1879.

Land authorized to be taken by the Borough of East Invercargill for the purpose of widening Ritchie Street.

(L.S.) JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," it is enacted that the Council of a borough constituted under that Act may take any land within the borough for any of the purposes of that Act in the manner provided by the Second Part of "The Public Works Act, 1876" (hereinafter called "the said Act"): And whereas the Council of the Borough of East Invercargill, requiring to take the land described in the Schedule hereto, for the purpose of widening Ritchie Street, has laid before me the memorial referred to by section twenty-five of "The Public Works Act, 1876," praying me to declare, by Proclamation, that such land is taken for such purpose:

And whereas the Council of the said borough has, in accordance with the twenty-eighth section of "The Public Works Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1878," laid before me a statutory declaration that the said Council is authorized by law to undertake the work for which the land described in the memorial laid before me under section twenty-five of the said Act is required, that all the provisions of the said Act as to taking such land have been complied with, and that the said Council is of opinion that the proposed works should be executed, and that no private injury will be done for which due compensation is not provided by the said Act:

And whereas it appears to me that all things required by the said "Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," and "The Public Works Act, 1876," to be done and performed to authorize the taking of such land have been done and performed, and it is expedient to declare that such land is taken for the purpose aforesaid:

Now, therefore, I, James Prendergast, Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said colony, in exercise of the pursuance of the powers and authorities in me vested by the said Acts, and of any other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the land described in the Schedule hereto is taken by the Council of the said borough for the purpose of widening Ritchie Street as aforesaid; and that, from and after the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, the said land shall become vested in fee-simple in the Mayor, Burgesses, and Citizens of the Borough of East Invercargill, discharged from all mortgages, charges, claims, estates, and interest of what kind soever, for the purpose of widening Ritchie Street as aforesaid.
