Defining the Middle Line of further portion of the Railway from Wellington to Masterton (Railway Wharf, Wellington).

Administrator of the Government.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the one hundred and twenty-second section of "The Public Works Act, 1876," it is enacted that every railway shall be made only under the authority of a special Act, which shall state as nearly as may be the line of the railway and the two termini thereof; and, by the one hundred and twenty-third section of the same Act, that the several railways specified in the Fourth Schedule to the said Act shall be deemed to have been made, and in so far as any of them are unfinished may be completed, under the provisions of the Act now under recital, and the said Act shall be deemed to be a special Act authorizing the construction of each of the said railways; and, by the one hundred and twenty-fourth section of the same Act, that when any railway is to be constructed under the provisions of any special Act the Governor shall issue a Proclamation defining the middle line of the railway or any part thereof, and may from time to time, by a Proclamation revoking or amending such former Proclamation, alter such line in any manner or to any extent which may be found necessary for the construction of such railway within the provisions of the said special Act; and, by the one hundred and twenty-fifth section of the same Act, that the Minister shall cause to be made and deposited in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court such maps and plans as may be necessary to explain the said line and the land through which the same passes, and such maps and plans shall be referred to in any such Proclamation. And whereas the railway from Wellington to a junction with the railway from Napier to Sentry Hill, at a point near the Manawatu Gorge, passing through the Hutt, Featherston, and Masterton is one of the railways specified in the said Fourth Schedule, and the same is unfinished, and it has been determined to construct and maintain a further portion of such railway:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and in pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred on me by "The Public Works Act, 1876," and in exercise of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the middle line of the said further portion of the said railway shall be that defined and set forth in the Schedule hereto, commencing at a point on Waterloo Quay between Customhouse Street and Pipitea Point, and terminating at a point below high-water mark, in the Wellington Harbour, all within the Provincial District of Wellington. The said middle line and the land through which the same passes are set forth in the map and plan marked P.W.D. 6907, and authenticated for the purposes of this Proclamation by the signature of the Honorable James Macandrew, Minister for Public Works, and which said map and plan is deposited in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Wellington, in the Provincial District of Wellington.

SCHEDULE.

COMMENCING at a point on the eastern side of Waterloo Quay, the said point being within the limits of deviation of a portion of the railway from Wellington to Masterton, as described in the Proclamation dated the 18th September, 1872, and published in the New Zealand Gazette, No. 49, of 25th September, 1872, said point being 1,300 feet or thereabouts distant in a northerly direction from a point on the eastern side of Customhouse Quay, opposite to the northern boundary of Waring Taylor Street; and proceeding thence in a generally south-easterly direction for a distance of 1,830 feet or thereabouts, and terminating at a point in the Wellington Harbour; all within the Provincial District of Wellington, Colony of New Zealand; in the manner delineated on the map and plan marked P.W.D. 6907, signed by the Honorable James Macandrew, Minister for Public Works, deposited in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court,

ERRATA.—In New Zealand Gazette No. 31, of 20th March, 1879, at page 373, for "Patrick Dignan, Esq.," read "Patrick Lynch Dignan, Esq." In Gazette No. 128, of the 19th December, 1878, page 1814, under the head "Deputy Registrars of Marriages, &c., appointed," for "Simon Inder," read "Simeon Inder."
