Maori Representation Acts—Additional Regulations.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

IN pursuance of every power and authority enabling me under "The Maori Representation Act, 1867," as amended by "The Maori Representation Act Amendment and Continuance Act, 1872," and "The Maori Representation Acts Continuance Act, 1876," I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby proclaim that the following regulations making further provision for the matters named in the ninth section of the first above-mentioned Act shall be in force in addition to the regulations heretofore proclaimed on the fourteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five :—

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS.

1. Wherever in the aforesaid regulations of the fourteenth of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, it is provided that the Governor shall or may make any appointment, or do any act under any of the said regulations, it is hereby declared that he shall have the power to make such appointment or to do such act from time to time and as often as occasion shall require, and similarly to vary or abolish any such appointment, and to modify, vary, or revoke any such act.

2. The provisions contained in the above-mentioned regulations relating to the issue of writs for the election of members for the electoral districts named in the first above-mentioned Acts, and to all matters incident to any such elections, and all other provisions of the said regulations as amended by these regulations shall, mutatis mutandis, be applied from time to time, as occasion may require, in every case of a vacancy occurring in the representation of any such electoral districts.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Dunedin, this first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

JOHN SHEEHAN.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
