TO THE

NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1879.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1879.

Lands declared to be Waste Lands of the Crown.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the seventeenth section of "The Waste Lands Administration Act, 1876," it is enacted that, whenever the Governor is satisfied that any lands purchased out of the sums authorized under "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," and any Act amending the same, to be issued and expended in the purchase of lands in the North Island of New Zealand, are free from Native claims and all difficulties in connection therewith, he shall, by Proclamation, declare such lands to be waste lands of the Crown, subject, except as thereafter in the said Act provided, to be sold and dealt with according to the provisions of the laws regulating the sale and disposal of waste lands of the Crown for the time being in force in the land district in which such land is situated; and thereupon such land so proclaimed shall become subject to such provisions:

And whereas the lands described in the Schedule hereto have been purchased out of the sums authorized under "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," and Acts amending the same, and it is expedient that the said lands should be declared to be waste lands of the Crown:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, being satisfied that the lands described in the Schedule hereto are free from Native claims and all difficulties in connection therewith, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by "The Waste Lands Administration Act, 1876," do hereby proclaim and declare the said lands to be waste lands of the Crown, subject to be sold and dealt with according to the provisions of the laws regulating the sale and disposal of waste lands of the Crown in force in the Land District of Auckland.

G. S. WHITMORE.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Rules for the Court of Survey under "The Shipping and Seamen's Act, 1877."

HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of July, 1879.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Shipping and Seamen's Act, 1877," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make, and, when made, revoke, alter, and add to, general rules, to carry into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to a Court of Survey, as in the said Act particularly mentioned:

Now, therefore I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the colony, and in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Act, do hereby make the following general rules to carry into effect the provisions of the said Act in respect to the Court of Survey, that is,—

RULES FOR THE COURT OF SURVEY.

1. These rules may be cited as "Rules of the Court of Survey."

Commencement.

2. These rules shall come into operation on the date hereof.

Interpretation.

3. In the construction of these rules and the form of proceedings thereunto, the following terms and expressions shall have the meanings hereby applied to them, unless there be something in the context repugnant thereto or inconsistent therewith: Words importing the singular number shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number. "The said Act" means "The Shipping and Seamen's Act, 1877." "Minister" has the same meaning as given to that term in the said Act. "Court" means the Resident Magistrate's Court held at any port in the colony at which a ship has been detained under the said Act. Proceedings may be taken under these rules, and such Court shall be constituted as provided in the 156th section of the said Act. "Clerk" shall mean the Clerk of such Court as provided by the said section. "Port" means any port defined under the provisions of any Act for the time being in force, or constituted by any other lawful authority.

Publication of Rules.

4. These rules shall be printed and published by the Government Printer, and a copy shall be kept at every Customhouse in the colony, and may be perused thereat by the master or owner of any ship which may be detained under "The Shipping and Seamen's Act, 1877," and by any one deputed by him.

Notice of Appeal.

5. Where the owner or master of a ship (hereinafter called "the appellant") desires to appeal to a Court of Survey, he shall file at the office of the Clerk having jurisdiction at the port at which the ship is detained (hereinafter called "the Court") a notice in the form No. 1 in the Appendix A.

Summoning of Court.

6. Immediately upon the filing of the notice of appeal, the Clerk shall communicate the fact by telegraph and letter to the Minister.

7. On ascertaining when the hearing will take place, the Clerk will take the instructions of the Magistrate or Justices, who are to form part of the Court, as to the Assessor to be appointed.

8. The Minister shall appoint the other Assessor, and shall forthwith send the name and address of such Assessor to the Clerk.

9. If the ship is a foreign ship, the Clerk shall give notice to the Consular Officer for the State to which the ship belongs, residing at or nearest to the place where the ship is detained, that, at the request of the appellant, some competent person will be selected by the Consular Officer to act as Assessor.

10. As soon as the Clerk has ascertained by whom the appeal will be heard, he shall summon the Court in the Form No. 2 in Appendix A. He shall at the same time send notice thereof to the Minister and to the appellant, in the Form No. 3 in Appendix A.

11. If the survey has been made on the complaint of any person (hereinafter called "the complainant"), the Minister shall send to him notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing.

12. Previous to the hearing, the Minister shall forward to the Clerk, to be produced as evidence at the hearing, an official copy of the report of the Surveyor.

13. The Court shall, if practicable, be summoned to hear the appeal on a day not later than fourteen days from filing of the notice of appeal.

Parties.

14. The Minister and the appellant shall be parties to the proceedings.

15. Any other person on entering an appearance may, by permission of the Court, be made a party to the proceedings.

Notice to produce.

16. Either party may give to the other a notice in writing to produce such documents (saving all just exceptions) as relate to any matters in difference and which are in possession or control of such other party; and, if such notice be not complied with, secondary evidence of the contents of the said documents may be given by or on behalf of the party who gave such notice.

Notice to admit.

17. Either party may give to the other party notice in writing to admit any documents (saving all just exceptions), and, in case of neglect or refusal to admit after such notice, the party so neglecting or refusing shall be liable for all the costs of proving such documents, whatever the result may be, unless the Court is of opinion that the refusal to admit was reasonable; and no costs of proving any documents shall be allowed unless such notice be given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the officer by whom the costs are taxed, a saving of expenses.

Witnesses.

18. The Court shall have power to issue a summons to a witness as nearly as may be in form used in a Resident Magistrate's Court, and such summons shall have effect and may be served in any part of the colony.

Affidavits.

19. Affidavits may, by permission of the Court, be used at the hearing, when sworn to in any of the following ways, viz. :—

1. In the United Kingdom, before any Judge or Registrar of a Court of Survey, or before a person authorized to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature, or before a Commissioner empowered to take or receive affidavits, or before a Justice of the Peace for the county or place where it is sworn or made.
2. In New Zealand, before any person or authority authorized to take affidavits in the Supreme Court of the colony.
3. In any place in the British dominions out of the United Kingdom, before any Court, Judge, or Justice of the Peace, or any person authorized to administer oaths there in any Court.
4. In any place out of the British dominions, before a British Minister, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Notary Public, or before a Judge or Magistrate, his signature being authenticated by the official seal of the Court to which such Judge or Magistrate is attached.

Proceedings in Court.

20. At the hearing, the Minister shall first call his witnesses, and, having done so, shall state in writing what order he requires the Court to make.

21. The complainant, if he has appeared, shall then call his witnesses, and, having done so, shall state in writing what order he requires the Court to make.

22. The appellant shall then call his witnesses, and, having done so, shall state in writing what order he requires the Court to make.

23. After the appellant has examined all his witnesses, the Minister and the complainant may, on cause shown to the satisfaction of the Court, call further witnesses in reply.

24. After all the witnesses have been examined, the Court shall first hear the appellant, then the complainant (if any), and afterwards the Minister.

25. Either party, or a complainant, can appear in person, or by counsel, or solicitor, in any proceedings in Court.

26. The Court may be adjourned from time to time, and from place to place, as may be most convenient.

27. The Court may deliver the decision of the Court either vivá voce or in writing; and if in writing it may be sent or delivered to the respective parties, and it shall not be necessary to hold a Court merely for the purpose of giving the decision.

28. As soon as possible after the Court has come to its decision, the Court shall forward an order for the release or detention (either finally or on conditions) of the vessel, in the Form No. 4 in Appendix A.

29. The Court shall report to the Minister in the Form No. 5 in Appendix A.

Costs and Damages.

30. The Court may, if the parties consent thereto in writing, decide whether costs, or costs and damages, are due, and to and from whom, and may assess the amount thereof; or the parties may, by consent in writing, refer the questions to the Court.

31. The order for the payment of costs, or of costs and damages, shall be in the Form No. 6 in Appendix A.

Computation of Time.

32. In computing the number of days within which any act is to be done, the same shall be reckoned exclusive of the first day and inclusive of the last day, unless the last day shall happen to fall on a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, in which case the time shall be reckoned exclusive of that day. Also,

33. The days between Thursday next before and Wednesday next after Easter Day, and Christmas Day and the three following days, shall not be reckoned or included in the computation.

Service of Notice.

34. Any notice, summons, or other document issuing out of the Court, may be served by post.

35. The service of any notice, summons, or other document may be proved by the oath or affidavit of the person by whom it was served.

36. The fees, a table whereof is in Appendix B, shall be demanded and taken in any proceedings before a Court of Survey.

APPENDIX A.

THE following forms shall be employed, as far as possible, with such alterations as circumstances may require, but no deviation from the prescribed form shall invalidate the proceedings, unless the Court shall be of opinion that the deviation was material :—

HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of July, 1879.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of “The Government Insurance and Annuities Act, 1874” (hereinafter referred to as “the said Act”), it is enacted that the Governor shall have power, by Order in Council, from time to time to alter the forms contained in the Schedules to the said Act, for the purpose of better carrying into effect the objects of this Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the form of ac-
