Land set apart on Deferred Payments in Southland.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the fifty-third section of "The Land Act, 1877," it is enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation in the Gazette, may from time to time set apart out of any suburban or rural lands such blocks or allotments of land as he shall think fit, and set the same aside for sale on deferred payments, and in such Proclamation may fix a day on which the land shall be open for application; and that he may also in like manner set apart for sale on deferred payments such blocks or allotments as may be recommended by any Land Board, and may also from time to time alter, amend, or revoke any such Proclamation:

And whereas the Land Board of Southland did, on the seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, pass a resolution recommending that the land described in the Schedule hereto annexed should be set apart for sale on deferred payments:

And whereas it is expedient to give effect to the aforesaid recommendation, and to set apart the said land accordingly:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the above-named Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the land described in the Schedule hereto is set apart for sale on deferred payments; and that Wednesday, the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, shall be the day on which the said land shall be open for application at the Land Office at Invercargill, in allotments as surveyed and marked on the survey map in the office of the Chief Surveyor.

Additional Regulations under the Maori Representation Acts.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the twenty-second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, regulations were made under "The Maori Representation Act, 1867," and other Acts amending or continuing the same: And whereas it was by the said regulations, among other things, provided that the name of the person so declared to be elected shall be indorsed on the writ by the Returning Officer as the person duly elected in pursuance thereof, and the writ shall be returned by him to the Governor forthwith, who shall transmit the same to the Clerk of the Writs, to be by him forwarded to the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by virtue and in pursuance of the power enabling me in that behalf under the said "Maori Representation Act, 1867," and other Acts as aforesaid (hereinafter called "the said Acts"), do hereby proclaim the following additional regulation under the said Acts, that is to say: It shall be lawful for the said Returning Officer to return, or cause to be returned, to the Governor, by electric telegraph, the contents of the said writ in the mode specified in and under and subject to the provisions of "The Regulation of Elections Act Amendment Act, 1874."

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

G. S. WHITMORE,
(for the Native Minister.)

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Defining the Middle Line of Portion of Railway from Napier to a Junction with the Railway from New Plymouth to Waitara, at Sentry Hill (Mangawhero Section, 6 miles 60 chains).

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the railway from Napier to a junction with the railway from New Plymouth to Waitara, at Sentry Hill, passing by Pakipaki, Waipawa, Waipukurau, Takapau, the Manawatu Gorge, Bunnythorpe, and Wanganui, with a branch from the main line at Bunnythorpe to Foxton through Palmerston, is one of the railways specified in the Fourth Schedule to "The Public Works Act, 1876," and the same is unfinished, and it has been determined to construct and maintain a further portion of such railway:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and in pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred on me by sections one hundred and twenty-two, one hundred and twenty-three, one hundred and twenty-four, and one hundred and twenty-five of "The Public Works Act, 1876," and in exercise of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the middle line of the said further portion of the said railway shall be from a point situate in Celia Street, Township of Stratford, to a point marked twenty-nine miles, all within the Provincial District of Taranaki. The said middle line and the land through which the same passes are set forth in the map and plan marked P.W.D. 7198, and authenticated for the purposes of this Proclamation by the signature of the Honorable James Macandrew, Minister for Public Works, and which said map and plan is deposited in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court at New Plymouth, in the Provincial District of Taranaki.

SCHEDULE.

COMMENCING at a point situate in Celia Street, Township of Stratford, said point being the termination of a portion of the railway from Waitara to Wanganui, as described in the Proclamation dated the 26th day of February, 1879, and published in the New Zealand Gazette No. 24, of the 27th of February, 1879, and proceeding thence in a generally southerly direction for a distance of six (6) miles sixty (60) chains or thereabouts, and terminating at a point twenty-nine (29) miles; including all lands, roads, reserves, rivers, and watercourses; all situated within the Provincial District of Taranaki, in the Colony of New Zealand; in the manner delineated on the map and plan marked P.W.D. 7198, signed by the Honorable James Macandrew, Minister for Public Works, deposited in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court at New Plymouth, in the Provincial District of Taranaki; the total length being six (6) miles sixty (60) chains or thereabouts.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

G. S. WHITMORE,
Minister acting for the Minister for Public Works.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Defining the Middle Line of Portion of the Railway from Wellington to Foxton, by West Coast (Kaiwarra and Crofton Sections).

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the railway from Wellington to Foxton, by West Coast, is one of the railways specified in "The Immigration and Public Works Appropriation Act, 1878," and which Act is therein declared to be a special Act for the said railway, within the meaning of "The Public Works Act, 1876:" And whereas it has been determined to construct and maintain a portion of such railway:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and in pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred on me by sections one hundred and twenty-two, one hundred and twenty-three, one
