OF THURSDAY, JANUARY 15, 1880.

Published by Authority.

 WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1880.

NOTICE.

 Native Land Court Office,
 Auckland, January 14th 1880.

WHEREAS it is enacted by "The Native Lands Act, 1873," that upon a request being made in that behalf by the Land Claims Commissioner for the time being under "The Land Claims Settlement Acts 1856 and 1858," to any Judge of the Court in any district established under the first-named Act, and such Judge shall proceed as soon as conveniently may be in and towards the investigation and settlement of such claims:

And whereas Charles Heaphy, Esquire, V.C., has requested me to investigate and settle the claim of Thomas Craig, to a piece of land on the eastern and southern sides of the Waihou River, being known by the name of part of Opukeko, in the District of the Thames, and Provincial District of Auckland, containing 603 acres 3 roods more or less, derived by conveyance from Lachlan Allan McCoskill, the boundaries of which are shown on the map of that land:

Now, therefore, I, Francis Dart Fenton, Chief Judge of the Native Land Court, do hereby give notice that a Court will be holden at Shortland, on the 10th day of February, 1880, commencing at ten of the clock in the forenoon, for the purpose aforesaid.

 F. D. FENTON,
 Chief Judge.

PANUITANGA.
