

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
OF THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1880.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1880.

Proclaiming Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," Auckland.—Notice No. 35.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may from time to time establish and define such and so many districts as he shall think fit to be districts under the said Act, and to each such district there shall, in the Proclamation defining it, be attached such name as the Governor shall think fit, and by which name it shall thereafter be called, and that every such district may from time to time in like manner be altered or constituted anew in such manner as the Governor may think fit:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, do hereby revoke so much of the Proclamation made the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, as defined the South Auckland Cattle District:

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Raglan, Waikato, Waipa, Piako, Kawhia, and West Taupo, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The South Auckland Cattle District:"

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Tauranga, Whakatane, and East Taupo, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Tauranga Cattle District:"

And, lastly, I do hereby declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

JOHN HALL.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Proclaiming Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," Taranaki.—Notice No. 42.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may from time to time establish and define such and so many districts as he shall think fit to be districts under the said Act, and to each such district there shall, in the Proclamation defining it, be attached such name as the Governor shall think fit, and by which name it shall thereafter be called, and that every such district may from time to time in like manner be altered or constituted anew in such manner as the Governor may think fit:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, do hereby revoke the Proclamation made the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, defining the Taranaki Cattle District:

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the County of Taranaki, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said county, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Taranaki Cattle District."

And, lastly, I do hereby declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

JOHN HALL.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Proclaiming Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," Hawke's Bay.—Notice No. 39.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may from time to time establish and define such and so many districts as he shall think fit to be districts under the said Act, and to each such district there shall, in the Proclamation defining it, be attached such name as the Governor shall think fit, and by which name it shall thereafter be called, and that every such district may from time to time in like manner be altered or constituted anew in such manner as the Governor may think fit:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, do hereby revoke the Proclamation made the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, defining the Hawke's Bay Cattle District:

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Hawke's Bay, Waipawa, and Wairoa, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Hawke's Bay Cattle District:"

And, lastly, I do hereby declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

JOHN HALL.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Proclaiming Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," Wanganui and Wellington.—Notice No. 45.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may from time to time establish and define such and so many districts as he shall think fit to be districts under the said Act, and to each such district there shall, in the Proclamation defining it, be attached such name as the Governor shall think fit, and by which name it shall thereafter be called, and that every such district may from time to time in like manner be altered or constituted anew in such manner as the Governor may think fit:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, do hereby revoke the Proclamation made the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, defining the Wellington Cattle District:

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Wanganui, Patea, Rangitikei, and Manawatu, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Wanganui Cattle District:"

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Hutt, Wairarapa East, and Wairarapa West, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Wellington Cattle District:"

And, lastly, I do hereby declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this seventeenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
