Proclaiming Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," Marlborough.—Notice No. 51.

(L.S.) HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Governor, by Proclamation to be published in the New Zealand Gazette, may from time to time establish and define such and so many districts as he shall think fit to be districts under the said Act, and to each such district there shall, in the Proclamation defining it, be attached such name as the Governor shall think fit, and by which name it shall thereafter be called, and that every such district may from time to time in like manner be altered or constituted anew in such manner as the Governor may think fit:

Now, therefore, I, Hercules George Robert Robinson, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, aforesaid, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, do hereby revoke the Proclamation made the thirteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, defining the Kaikoura Cattle District, the Wairau Cattle District, and the Picton Cattle District:

And I do hereby define all that tract of country comprising the Counties of Marlborough, Sounds, and Kaikoura, with such islands as may be adjacent thereto, and all cities and boroughs within the boundaries of the said counties, as and to be a district under and for the purposes of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871;" and, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, I do hereby attach to the said district the name of "The Marlborough Cattle District:"

And, lastly, I do hereby declare that this Proclamation shall take effect on and after the eighteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this eighteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

HERCULES ROBINSON, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this 18th day of May, 1880.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the thirteenth section of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1871," it is enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time, as occasion shall require, make any special regulations altering any of the general regulations, either wholly or in respect of any matters which shall seem to be necessary to be made in respect of any particular district or any part thereof; and all such special regulations shall take effect from and after such day being a day not less than thirty days subsequent to the first publication thereof:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the same date, certain "Diseased Cattle Regulations" were made:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Act and by "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1873," and of all other powers and authorities enabling him in this behalf, doth hereby make the special regulation set forth in the Schedule hereto:

And doth order and declare that such regulation shall take effect from and after the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, from which day the same shall come into operation.

SCHEDULE.

SPECIAL REGULATION.

NOTWITHSTANDING anything to the contrary contained in the Diseased Cattle Regulations of the 25th March, 1880, if any person who either by land or sea shall drive, remove, or cause to be driven or removed, or assist in driving or removing, any cattle, out of the South Auckland Cattle District, to the Tauranga District, the County Cook District, or to any other district south of the South Auckland District, or south of the said districts, such person shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of such cattle so driven or removed from the South Auckland Cattle District; and if any cattle stray out or from the said district into any place in any district hereinbefore prohibited, the owner or person having the care or possession of such cattle shall be liable to a penalty of ten pounds for every head of cattle which shall have so strayed.
