

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
OF THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1881.
Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1881.

Boundaries of District Court District of Christchurch altered.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The District Courts Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, as he shall think fit, by Proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the colony, or in any part thereof, districts within which District Courts shall be respectively held, and such districts to abolish, and the boundaries thereof to define or alter:

And whereas by a Proclamation bearing date the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, a district was defined within which a District Court should be held under the said Act, and it was thereby declared that the said Court should be designated by the name of "The District Court of Christchurch:"

And whereas it is expedient to further alter the boundaries of the said district so defined as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur Hamilton Gordon, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority vested in me by the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that, from and after the fourteenth day of February next, the boundaries of the district within which the District Court of Christchurch shall be held shall be altered, and that thenceforth the boundaries thereof shall be the boundaries hereinafter described.

THE DISTRICT COURT OF CHRISTCHURCH.
Description of District.

All that area of land in the Provincial District of Canterbury, bounded towards the North by a right line from the saddle between the sources of the Teremakau and Hurunui Rivers to the source of the said Hurunui River; and thence by the middle of that river to the sea; thence towards the East by the sea to the Rakaia River; thence towards the South-west by the left bank of that river to its source in the Southern Alps; and thence by a right line due west to the summit of the said Southern Alps; and thence towards the North-west by lines along the summit of the said Southern Alps to saddle at the sources of the Teremakau and Hurunui Rivers, the starting point.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Honourable Arthur Hamilton Gordon, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Napier, this twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Districts Courts Act, 1858," it is enacted that there shall be within the Colony of New Zealand Courts of Record, possessing civil and criminal jurisdiction, to be called District Courts, and the Governor is empowered from time to time, as he shall think fit, by Proclamation in the

New Zealand Gazette, to constitute throughout the colony, or in any part thereof, districts within which such Courts shall be respectively held, and such districts to abolish, and the boundaries thereof to define or alter, and also to declare by what local name such Courts shall be designated:

Now, therefore, I, Arthur Hamilton Gordon, the Governor of the said colony, in pursuance and exercise of the aforesaid power and authority, do hereby constitute and proclaim the district of the said colony hereinafter described or referred to, to be, from and after the fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, a district within which a District Court shall be held under the said Act and under "The District Courts Act Amendment Act, 1865."

And in further pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, I do hereby declare that the said Court shall be designated by the name hereunder specified, that is to say,—

"THE DISTRICT COURT OF ASHBURTON."

Description of District.

All that area of land in the Provincial District of Canterbury, bounded towards the North-east by the Christchurch District Court District, hereinbefore described, from the summit of the Southern Alps to the sea; thence towards the South-east by the sea to the Rangitata River; thence towards the South-west by the middle of that river to Forest Creek; thence by the middle of that creek to its source in Two Thumb Range; thence by the summit of the said range to the summit of the Southern Alps, near Mount Tyndall; and thence towards the North-west by lines along the summit of the Southern Alps to a point due west of the source of the Rakaia River.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Honorable Arthur Hamilton Gordon, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Napier, this twenty-ninth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

Conditions for Trout Fishing in Wellington.

ARTHUR GORDON, Governor.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for the Provincial District of Wellington:—

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations shall come into force on the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
2. Any holder of a license, as hereinafter mentioned, may fish with rod and line, but with artificial flies only as bait, for trout in the River Hutt and its tributaries, except the Pakuratahi, and in the River Wainuiomata, in the Provincial District of Wellington, from the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
3. Licenses to fish with rod and line as aforesaid in the said rivers and streams will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Acclimatisation Society at Wellington; and for every license a fee of twenty shillings will be charged.
4. No license shall authorize any person other than the person named therein to fish, and that only with rod and line, and such bait as aforesaid.
5. Any person fishing without a license or otherwise than as above, or any person who shall on demand of any person holding and showing a license, or on the demand of any police officer or constable, fail to produce and show to such person, police officer, or constable his license, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.
6. All trout not exceeding eight inches in length taken by any person fishing as aforesaid shall be immediately returned alive to the river or stream, and any person convicted of infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds sterling, and his license shall thereupon become void.
7. No person shall use any live bait, ground-bait, net, or other engine, instrument, or device for taking fish in any river or stream within the Provincial District of Wellington, and all persons offending against this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.
8. Any person who puts, throws, or places, or allows to be put, thrown, or placed, into any river or stream in the said Provincial District of Wellington, any dynamite or other explosive substance, or any matter or liquid deleterious to fish, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
