

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE
OF THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1882.
Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1882.

IN PARLIAMENT.

In the matter of a Bill to be intituled "The Wellington Harbour Board and Corporation Land Act 1880 Amendment Act, 1882."

NOTICE is hereby given that J. A. PLIMMER and E. REEVES, of Wellington, Merchants, intend to present a petition to the General Assembly of New Zealand, at its next ensuing session, praying for leave to introduce a Bill to be intituled as above.

By the said Bill it is intended to amend the tenth clause of "The Wellington Harbour Board and Corporation Land Act, 1880," in such manner as to enable a Compensation Court, holden in the manner prescribed by Part III. of "The Public Works Act, 1876," to inquire and ascertain whether the said J. A. Plimmer and E. Reeves have suffered injury, loss, or damage by the vesting in the Wellington Harbour Board and the Corporation of Wellington of the lands described in the second paragraph of the Second Schedule, and in the Third Schedule to the said Act, or otherwise by or in consequence of the passing of the said Act; and to assess and award the compensation which ought to be paid by the said Harbour Board and the Corporation, or either of them, to the petitioners.

Notice is further given that the said Bill will also, if required, contain like provisions in favour of other persons (if any) who may have suffered injury, loss, or damage by or in consequence of the vesting of the said lands or the passing of the said Act.

Copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Examiner's office on or before the 18th day of May next.

Dated this 17th day of April, 1882.

IZARD AND BELL,
Parliamentary Agents, Wellington.

IN THE MATTER OF A BILL INTITULED "AN ACT TO AMEND 'THE WELLINGTON GAS COMPANY'S ACT, 1870.'"

NOTICE is hereby given that the Wellington Gas Company (Limited) intend to present a petition to the General Assembly of New Zealand, at its next session, praying for leave to introduce a Bill to be intituled "An Act to amend 'The Wellington Gas Company's Act, 1870,'" providing that the objects for which the Company was established may be enlarged, and that the powers conferred upon it by the said Act may be extended, so as to enable the Company to undertake or engage in the manufacture and supply of gas, or any other kind of light whatsoever, in any city, town, or place within the limits of the Provincial District of Wellington, and the purchase, hire, or manufacture of all necessary appliances, materials, and things that may be required for any of the purposes aforesaid; and supplying and lighting with gas or otherwise any public or private building, or any street or public or private place, within such limits; and providing and furnishing any municipality or body corporate, company, or person with engines, machinery, stoves, lamps, lamp-posts, burners, meters, or pipes, or any other appliances that may be required for the purposes aforesaid, and keeping the same in repair; and the sale of such surplus products or stock-in-trade as the Company may desire to dispose of.

Copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the office of the Examiner of Standing Orders at or before the commencement of the session.

Dated this fourteenth day of April, 1882.

F. M. OLLIVIER,
Solicitor for the said Company, and Parliamentary Agent in the matter of the said intended Bill.

BOROUGH OF INVERCARGILL.

In the matter of an intended Bill intituled "The Invercargill Streets Alignment Bill, 1882," to define the legal building frontages and sides of the streets in the Town of Invercargill, according to the lines laid down by Mr. Thomas Mabin, by the direction of the Inspector of Surveys at Invercargill.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Borough of Invercargill, incorporated under the provisions of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," intend to present a petition to the General Assembly of New Zealand, at the next session, praying for leave to introduce a Bill to be intituled "The Invercargill Streets Alignment Bill, 1882," for the purpose of defining the legal building frontages or sides of the streets in the Town of Invercargill, according to certain distances respectively, from the lines laid down in the said streets, in the year 1874, by Mr. Thomas Mabin, formerly of Invercargill, Surveyor, by the direction of the Inspector of Surveys for the time being of the District of Southland, and marked by stones in the said streets. And notice is further given that the said Bill shall contain no provision for permitting buildings or fences which now encroach on the streets, the frontages whereof are so defined, to remain undisturbed, but the re-erection of such buildings or fences shall be in conformity with lines so laid down. And notice is hereby further given that copies of the said intended Bill will be deposited in the office of the Examiner of Standing Orders on the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Dated this 17th day of April, 1882.

THOS. M. McDONALD,

Municipal Solicitor, Invercargill.

Izard and Bell, Parliamentary Agents, Wellington.

THE GUARDIAN TRUST AND EXECUTORS COMPANY OF NEW ZEALAND (LIMITED).

In the matter of a Bill intituled "An Act to confer Powers upon the Guardian Trust and Executors Company of New Zealand (Limited)."

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made at the next session of the General Assembly of New Zealand, by petition, for leave to bring in a Bill to be intituled "An Act to confer Powers upon the Guardian Trust and Executors Company of New Zealand (Limited);" and that the objects of such Bill will be to enable the Guardian Trust and Executors Company of New Zealand (Limited), being a Company duly incorporated under "The Joint-Stock Companies Act, 1860," to act as guardian, trustee, tutor, curator, and executor or administrator with or without the will annexed, and to perform and discharge all the duties of such offices, and to receive remuneration for such duties; and also to act as committee and as receiver under or by virtue of "The Lunatics Act, 1868," or other statute regulating proceedings in lunacy; and also to act as accountant in bankruptcy, or assignee or trustee on behalf of creditors or receiver; also to act as landbroker, attorney, or agent, and to act in such other capacity and to transact such business as is specified in the memorandum of association of the said Company, and to perform and discharge all the duties of such offices respectively, and to receive remuneration for such duties. And notice is hereby given that copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Examiner's office within fourteen days after the commencement of the said session.

Dated at Dunedin, this 12th day of April, 1882.

A. BARTLEMAN,

Managing Director.
