WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1882.

Land taken for Roads in the Totara Highway District, Auckland.

(L.S.) JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the land described in the Schedule hereto is required to be taken under "The Public Works Act, 1876," and "The Public Works Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1878," for a certain work, to wit, the construction of roads in the Totara Highway District, Provincial District of Auckland:

And whereas the Totara Highway District Board has laid before the Governor the memorial and maps mentioned in and signed and certified as required by the said Acts:

And whereas the two hundred and twenty-ninth section of "The Public Works Act, 1882," enacts that any public work authorized under the authority of any Act repealed by this Act or of any Act or Ordinance repealed by "The Public Works Act, 1876," and any land required to be taken, purchased, or acquired for such work, or anything commenced under any such authority as aforesaid, may be continued, taken, purchased, or acquired, executed, carried out, enforced, and completed under the provisions of this Act:

Now, therefore, I, James Prendergast, the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise and pursuance of the powers and authorities in me vested by sections eleven and two hundred and twenty-nine of "The Public Works Act, 1882," and of every other power and authority in anywise enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that the land described in the Schedule hereto is hereby taken for the purposes of roads; and that, from and after the day of the date hereof, the land so described shall become absolutely vested in fee-simple in Her Majesty, discharged from all mortgages, charges, claims, estates, or interests of what kind soever, for use as roads.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that piece or parcel of land containing by admeasurement 3 roods 24 perches, more or less, situate in the Provincial District of Auckland, being a portion of Lot 1, Parish and Highway District of Totara, commencing at the easternmost corner of said Lot 1. GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Districts constituted under "The Marriage Act, 1880."

(L.S.)

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

A PROCLAMATION.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in the Governor by "The Marriage Act, 1880," I, James Prendergast, Chief Justice, the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby abolish the existing marriage districts known as the New Plymouth and Hawera Districts, and do proclaim and declare that the territory heretofore comprised within the said districts is hereby divided anew into three marriage districts, the names and boundaries whereof shall be as follow:—

NEW PLYMOUTH DISTRICT.

All that area in the Provincial District of Taranaki, bounded towards the East by the Waitara Registration District, as described in the New Zealand Gazette No. 65, 27th July, 1882, from the mouth of the Waiongonu River to Section No. 212, Huirangi District; towards the South by Section No. 204 of said district, and by Sections Nos. 98, 133, 42, 33, and 28 of Tarurutangi District; thence by Sections Nos. 46, 47, 49, and 52 of Hua and Waiwakaiho Hundreds to the Waiwakaiho River; again towards the East and South-east by said river to its source, and by a right line thence to the summit of Mount Egmont; again towards the South by a right line thence to the source of the Kapoiaia River and by that river to the ocean; and towards the South-west and North-west by the ocean to the place of commencement.

OPUNAKE DISTRICT.

All that area in the Provincial District of Taranaki, bounded towards the North by the New Plymouth Registration District, hereinbefore described, from the mouth of the Kapoiaia River to the summit of Mount Egmont; towards the East and South-east by a right line thence to the source of the Oeo River, and by that river to the ocean; and towards the South-west and North-west by the ocean to the place of commencement.

HAWERA DISTRICT.

All that area in the Provincial District of Taranaki, bounded towards the North-west by the Opunake Registration District, hereinbefore described, from the mouth of the Oeo River to the summit of Mount Egmont; towards the North and North-east by the Inglewood Registration District, as described in the New Zealand Gazette No. 55, 27th May, 1880, and by the Waitara Registration District, as described in the New Zealand Gazette No. 65, 27th July, 1882, to the confiscation boundary; thence towards the East by a right line to the source of the Manawapou River, and by that river to the sea; and towards the South-west by the sea to the mouth of the Oeo River, the place of commencement.

And I hereby declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation on the eighth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir James Prendergast, Knight, Chief Justice, the Administrator of the Government of Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

THOMAS DICK.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Districts constituted under "The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1875."

(L.S.)

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

A PROCLAMATION.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in the Governor by "The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1875," I, James Prendergast, Chief Justice, the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby abolish the existing registration districts known as the New Plymouth and Hawera Districts; and do proclaim and declare that the territory heretofore comprised within the said districts is hereby divided anew into three registration districts, the names whereof shall be the New Plymouth, Opunake, and Hawera Districts, and the boundaries whereof shall be coterminous with the boundaries of the marriage districts bearing the same names as are set forth in a Proclamation of even date herewith, made under the provisions of "The Marriage Act, 1880."

And I hereby declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation on the eighth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir James Prendergast, Knight, Chief Justice, the Administrator of the Government of Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Bonuses on Colonial Industries.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 18th July, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given that the following bonuses will be paid on articles produced in the Colony of New Zealand, as under :—

LINSEED OIL.

A bonus of five hundred pounds (£500) will be given for the production, by machinery permanently established in New Zealand, of the first 10,000 gallons of oil, of good marketable quality, from linseed grown in the colony.

OIL-CAKE.

A bonus of one hundred pounds (£100) will be given for the production of the first 50 tons of oil-cake, of good marketable quality, from linseed grown in the colony.

SUGAR.

A bonus of one thousand pounds (£1,000) will be given for the production of the first 125 tons of sugar, manufactured in New Zealand, from beet or any other root or plant grown in the colony.

SILK.

A bonus of fifty per cent. on the value realized for the first thousand pounds' (£1,000) worth of cocoons of the silkworm, or silkworms' eggs, produced in the colony, to be paid on quantities of not less value than fifty pounds (£50) nor more than one hundred pounds (£100) produced by any one person.

SUGAR-REFINING.

A bonus of five hundred pounds (£500) will be given for three years in succession for the refining each year, by machinery established in New Zealand, of not less than 100 tons of cane sugar. The establishment by which such refining is effected must be what is ordinarily known as a sugar-refinery. The firm refining the first 100 tons of sugar, and receiving the bonus, shall be also entitled to the bonus of the two following years upon fulfilling the conditions above named.

OSTRICHES.

A bonus of five pounds (£5) per head will be given for healthy ostrich chicks landed in New Zealand for the purpose of being reared and maintained in the colony; the number of any importation to be not less than ten nor more than fifty.

BUTTER OR CHEESE.

A bonus of five hundred pounds (£500) will be given for the first 25 tons of butter or the first 50 tons of cheese (produced in a factory worked on the American principle, and to which factory any farmer, subject to certain conditions, may send his milk) which shall be exported from New Zealand, and sold at such prices in a foreign market as shall show that the articles are of fair quality.

Conditions.

1. Notice of intention to claim any of the above bonuses must be given in writing to the Colonial Secretary not later than the 31st December, 1882.
2. The claim must be made before the 30th June, 1883.
3. The other conditions as to quantity, quality, and value to be fulfilled to the satisfaction of an officer appointed for the purpose by the Government.
4. Further information and particulars may be obtained by application to the Colonial Secretary's Office.

IRON.

A bonus of one thousand pounds (£1,000) will be given for the production, in New Zealand, of 300 tons of pig-iron, of marketable quality, from ore produced in New Zealand.

Conditions.

1. The bonus not to be given for any quantity less than 100 tons.
2. Notice of the intention to erect ironworks and claim the bonus must be given to the Colonial Secretary before the 31st December, 1882.
3. The bonus must be claimed before the 31st December, 1883.
4. In the event of more than one claimant giving such notice, not more than seven-tenths of the bonus may be claimed by the first producer, and not more than three-tenths by the second producer; but if only one claimant becomes a producer on the above conditions, he may claim the whole of the bonus.
5. The iron in respect of which any bonus is claimed, and the ore from which it is manufactured, will be examined by an officer to be appointed by the Government, who may require the production of bona fide account sales of quantities not less than 100 tons weight, showing that such iron has been sold at a fair market price as pig-iron.

THOMAS DICK.

Alterations and Additions to the Scale of Fares and Charges in Force on the New Zealand Railways.

IN accordance with section 144 of "The Public Works Act, 1882," I, Walter Woods Johnston, Minister for Public Works, do hereby fix the following scale of charges for the purposes specified below, in lieu of that at present in force, and such scale shall come into force from and after the 1st January, 1883:—

PART IV.—LOCAL RATES.

HURUNUI—BLUFF SECTION.

Rakaia—Ashburton Forks Railway Company's Line.

The following rates will be charged upon the Rakaia—Ashburton Forks Railway Company's Line;—

As witness my hand, this 27th day of December, 1882.

WALTER W. JOHNSTON,
Minister for Public Works.

Public Libraries.

Education Department,
Wellington, 20th September, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given that the sum of six thousand pounds (£6,000) has been voted by Parliament for distribution to public libraries.

The distribution will take place on the 31st January, 1883, and no claim will be considered that shall not have been sent in in due form, and received by the Secretary for Education, Wellington, before the 22nd January, 1883.

Every public library maintained by rates will be entitled to share in the distribution according to its income from rates; and every library maintained by subscriptions and voluntary contributions will be entitled to share according to its income from subscriptions and voluntary contributions: Provided in either case that admission to the library, if within a borough, is open to the public free of charge.

The income of each library may be stated either for the year ending 31st December, 1882, or for the year ending with that day in the year 1882 on which the annual accounts of the library were made up.

The distribution will not be in proportion to the several incomes of the libraries; but a nominal addition of £25 will be made to the amount of each income, and the vote of £6,000 will be divided in proportion to the amounts as thus augmented.

Application to share in the distribution must be made in the form of a statutory declaration by the Chairman, or Secretary, or Treasurer of the institution on behalf of which it is made; and such declaration shall be in the following form:—

DECLARATION.

I [Name], of [Place of abode], [Occupation], do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am Chairman [or Secretary, or Treasurer] of the [Name of institution], and that during the year ending the day of, 1882, the income of the aforesaid institution for the purposes of a library only was as follows: From rates, pounds shillings and pence; and from the subscriptions of members, pounds shillings and pence; and from voluntary contributions other than members' subscriptions, pounds shillings and pence; and that by the rules of the institution admission to the reading-room is open to the public free of charge.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intitled "The Justices of the Peace Act, 1882."

[Here affix and cancel a stamp at 2s. 6d.] Declared at this day of 188, before me—

Justice of the Peace
[or Solicitor, or Notary Public].

[NOTE.—The words relating to free admission may be struck out if the library is not in a borough. The words in brackets are not part of the form, but indicate matter to be inserted or substituted.]

Copies of the form of statutory declaration may be obtained on application to the Secretary for Education, Wellington, or to the Secretary of any Education Board.

C. J. A. HASELDEN,
Patent Officer.

Rules and Regulations under "The Law Practitioners Act, 1882."

BY virtue of the powers vested in us by law, it is ordered by us, the Judges of the said Court, that the following shall be the rules and regulations under "The Law Practitioners Act, 1882:"—

1. Every candidate for admission as a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court shall give notice to the Registrar of the Court at the place where he intends to apply for admission, at least two months before the time appointed for an examination, of his desire to be examined, and shall state the nature of the examination that he proposes to submit to; and shall at the same time pay the proper fee in respect of such examination.

2. An examination of other candidates for admission as barristers or solicitors in law and general knowledge shall be held, at every place where there shall be an office of the Supreme Court, on the third Monday in March and the first Monday in August in the year 1883, and on the third Monday in March and the third Monday in September in every succeeding year, and shall be continued from day to day, omitting Court holidays. If the third Monday in March shall be Easter Monday the examination shall commence on the Wednesday following.

3. Candidates may present themselves at any half-yearly examination for examination both in law and general knowledge, or in law only, or in general knowledge only.

4. The half-yearly examinations will be conducted by printed or written papers. The papers will be the same throughout the colony, and in every place the same papers will be set on the same day and at the same hour.

5. Candidates for admission as barristers who have been previously admitted as barristers in any superior or Supreme Court in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall be examined only as to their knowledge of the law of New Zealand so far as it differs from the law of England. The Judge in any judicial district may specially appoint times for the examination of any such candidates in addition to the half-yearly times above prescribed.

6. Candidates for admission as barristers who shall have taken a degree in arts, science, or law from some University or other body in any part of Her Majesty's dominions which has or hereafter may have power by law to grant such a degree shall be examined only in law.

7. All other candidates for admission as barristers shall be examined in law and general knowledge.

8. Solicitors on the roll who shall apply after the 15th day of September, 1883, to be admitted as barristers shall pass the examination in general knowledge provided by Rules 9 and 10, and shall pass an examination in Roman law and international law, and conflict of laws, as provided by Rule 11, and shall also be examined in the principles of the law of contracts, trusts, and evidence. Pollock on Contracts, Lewis on Trusts, and Taylor and Best on Evidence are recommended for the perusal of candidates.

9. The examination in general knowledge for candidates for admission as barristers, and for candidates for admission as solicitors who are by law required to pass the barristers' examination, shall be in the following subjects:—

(1.) Greek.—Translations from the Iliad, first four books. Herodotus, Second Book.

(2.) Latin.—Translations from Cicero, "De Officiis," and First and Second Orations against Catiline. Satires of Horace, First Book. Candidates will be expected to show a competent knowledge of Greek and Latin grammar, and to answer such questions on Greek and Roman history, geography, antiquities, and literature as may arise out of the works in which they are examined.

(3.) Euclid.—First four books.

(4.) Algebra.—To quadratic equations inclusive.

(5.) History.—Hallam's Constitutional History, Hallam's Middle Ages, fifth, sixth, and eighth chapters.

10. Candidates may be examined in French or German, instead of Greek, provided they give written notice of their desire to be so examined to the Registrar at least two months before the time of examination. No particular works will be specified, but candidates will be expected to translate into English passages from standard authors in the language chosen; and also to translate passages from English into French or German. A knowledge of the French or German grammar and literature will be also required.

11. The examination in law for candidates for admission as barristers shall be in the following subjects:—

- (1.) Roman Law: Sandars's Justinian, first two books, with introduction, and notes; Gibbon's Decline and Fall, chapter forty-four, on Roman Law.
- (2.) International law and conflict of law.
- (3.) Real property, and conveyancing.
- (4.) Contracts and torts.
- (5.) Equity.
- (6.) Criminal law.
- (7.) Evidence.
- (8.) Practice and procedure.
- (9.) New Zealand statute law.

No person shall be allowed to pass the examination unless he shall answer the questions on practice and procedure to the satisfaction of the examiners.

12. Candidates for admission as solicitors who have been admitted as solicitors in any superior or Supreme Court of any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall be examined in law, including the law of New Zealand in so far as it differs from the law of England.

In this class of candidates there shall be two papers: only one in law generally, the other in the law of New Zealand in so far as it differs from the law of England.

13. Candidates for admission as solicitors who have taken a degree in arts or law or science from some University or other body in any part of Her Majesty's dominions which has or hereafter may have power by law to grant such degrees shall be examined in law only.

14. The examination in general knowledge for candidates for admission as solicitors shall be in the following subjects:—

- (1.) Latin.—Translation from first two books of Cæsar.
- (2.) Latin Grammar.
- (3.) Euclid.—First two books.
- (4.) Arithmetic and Algebra.—To simple equations inclusive.
- (5.) History.—A general knowledge of the principal events and dates in English History; Creasy on the Constitution.

15. The examination in law for candidates for admission as solicitors will be generally on the theory and practice of the laws of England and of New Zealand, and will be of the same character as the final examination for solicitors in England. The examination shall comprise a paper on practice and procedure, and no person shall be allowed to pass the examination unless he shall answer the questions in such paper to the satisfaction of the examiners.

16. The subjects prescribed for translation in Greek in the barristers' examination, and in Latin in the barristers' and solicitors' examination, are liable to alteration from time to time, but twelve months' notice will be given of any alteration.

17. Every candidate for admission either as a barrister or solicitor who shall produce a certificate emanating from the proper authority that he has passed any examination in general knowledge required to be passed by candidates for admission as solicitors in England or Ireland or as law agents in Scotland, or that he has passed an examination either at the University of New Zealand, or any University in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Australian Colonies, or at any college or institution affiliated to or connected with any such University, or who has passed the New Zealand Senior Civil Service Examination, and who shall prove to the satisfaction of a Judge of the Supreme Court that such examination comprised any subject or subjects corresponding with any of those hereby prescribed for the general-knowledge examination, shall be excused from being examined in such subject or subjects.

18. The age of all candidates for admission must appear on affidavit.

19. A barrister or advocate previously admitted elsewhere must produce to the Judge of the district to whom he applies for admission his admission, or some certificate or other document, duly verified, proving his admission, and make an affidavit that he is the person named therein, and was admitted as therein stated.

20. Every candidate for admission as a barrister or solicitor who claims to be entitled, as a graduate of some University, to be admitted after an examination in law only, shall produce his diploma, or some duly-authenticated certificate or other documentary evidence of his having taken a degree, with an affidavit verifying the same, and proving his identity with the person mentioned in such document.

21. Every candidate for admission as a solicitor who claims to be entitled to be admitted on the ground of some previous admission elsewhere must produce documentary evidence of such admission purporting to emanate from proper authority, and an affidavit verifying the same, and proving his identity with the person named therein.

22. Every candidate before being admitted shall procure evidence of his good character to the satisfaction of the Judge to whom he applies for admission.

Standing Orders on Local Bills.

THE following amended Standing Orders of the Houses of the General Assembly relative to Local Bills are published for general information.

F. E. CAMPBELL,
Clerk of Parliaments.

16th October, 1882.

1. Local Bills are those which, not being Private Bills, affect particular localities only.

2. No Local Bill shall be read a second time unless notice shall have been given of the said Bill in the locality to which the Bill refers. Such notice shall state explicitly the object which such Bill is intended to effect, and shall have been published once at least in each of three successive weeks before the second reading in a newspaper circulating in such locality.

3. At the time of the first publication of such notice, a copy of the Bill shall be deposited in the Resident Magistrate's Court of the district, and shall be open to public inspection.

4. When it is intended in such Bill to take power to deal with any lands, plans or surveys of such lands, on a scale of not less than two inches to a mile, and certified by an authorized surveyor, shall be deposited with the Bill.

5. In the case of Bills authorizing the construction of harbour works, or the raising of further loans for the completion of harbour works previously authorized, such Bill shall be accompanied by a statement of the financial position of the promoters, an estimate of the cost of construction, and the estimated increased revenue to be derived from the proposed works, together with the plans or surveys before mentioned.

6. Before the Bill is introduced into the Legislative Council or House of Representatives, the before-mentioned plans or surveys and estimates shall be forwarded to the office of the Clerk of the House in which the Bill is to be initiated.

Sale of Pastoral Leases of Crown Lands.—Preliminary Notice.

General Crown Lands Office,
Wellington, 20th September, 1882.

ONE million seven hundred and fifty thousand acres of Crown lands will shortly be open for pastoral lease in the Provincial District of Otago, New Zealand.

This country is at present held under lease in forty-six runs until the 1st March, 1884, and will again be offered in runs suitable to the nature of the country; but no lessee will be allowed to take up more than will carry twenty thousand sheep or four thousand head of cattle.

The leases will be for a term of years to be hereafter determined; but in no case will any lease be for a period exceeding twenty-one years.

Compensation for improvement up to three years' rental will be allowed at the end of the lease.

In order to give new pastoral lessees time to make arrangements, the licenses will, in terms of the Land Acts, be sold by public auction, at the Land Office, Dunedin, in the latter end of February, 1883, twelve months before possession is to be given. One year's rent will be payable in advance on the license at the time of sale.

The country has been occupied for upwards of twenty years. It is well grassed, well watered, sound, and healthy.

Distance from port by good roads and railways part of the way, from thirty to one hundred and fifty miles.

Maps and further particulars will be obtainable shortly at the Land Offices of New Zealand, and at places in the Australian Colonies, to be named in future advertisements.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Minister of Lands.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CONSTRUCT A WATER-RACE.

Mount Ida, 27th November, 1882.

To the Mining Registrar at Naseby, and all other persons whom it may concern.

I HEREBY give notice that I intend to construct a Water-race to divert and use water for the purpose of driving machinery, irrigation, and industrial purposes, commencing at a point in the ~~Flushing Race~~ ^{Flushing Race} near the middle of James Young's Section No. 3, Block X., Maniototo District, passing through the same section, and terminating in Section 5 of said Block X.

The length of such race is one mile and a half or thereabouts, and its intended course is south-west.

The mean depth of such race is 12 inches, and the mean breadth is 24 inches, and it is proposed to divert two Government-heads of water.

PATRICK MCCLUSKEY,
Applicant,
By his Agent, W. L. BAILEY.

Any person objecting to the granting of the above application must lodge his objection in writing at the Mining Registrar's Office at Naseby thirty clear days from the date hereof.

Hearing at Naseby, at 11 o'clock, on the first Warden's Court in January, 1883.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CONSTRUCT A WATER-RACE.

Totara, 9th December, 1882.

To the Mining Registrar at Ross, in the Totara Mining District, and all other persons whom it may concern.

I HEREBY give notice that I intend to construct a Water-race to divert and use water for mining purposes, commencing at the termination of the present race, No. 5105, Coal Creek; thence across the left-hand branch of Donnelly's Creek; thence across the right-hand branch of Donnelly's Creek to the main range to Shelback Gully; thence across Jones's Creek; thence along the main spur into Robinson's Creek; and terminating at Wade and Co.'s special claim.

The length of such race-extension is four miles or thereabouts, and its intended course is west by north and east by south.

The time estimated for construction and completion of such extension is eight months.

The mean depth of such race is 2 feet 6 inches, and the mean breadth is 3 feet 6 inches, and it is proposed to divert eight Government-heads of water.

PATRICK CLARE.
