WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear that the Board of the Tuhikaramea Road District, on or about the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, by resolution under the provisions of section forty-eight of "The Road Boards Act, 1882" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), made a special order declaring that all elections of members of the said Board should be conducted in the manner provided by sections forty-eight and forty-nine of the said Act, and notice of the intention to pass such resolution was publicly notified as provided by section seventy-five of the said Act: And whereas, pursuant to such special order, an election of members of the said Board was held, and certain persons hereinafter named were declared by the Returning Officer acting at such election to be duly elected as members of the said Board, and such declaration was publicly notified in the Waikato Times newspaper of the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three: And whereas, owing to the default and the disappearance of the late Clerk to the said Road Board—who also acted as the said Returning Officer—the copy of the said special order and the certificate required to be sent to the Colonial Secretary by the provisions of section seventy-six of the said Act were never so sent, and the same were consequently never gazetted as by the said section is directed; and it appears expedient to extend the time for forwarding such copy, order, and certificate, and to validate the said election notwithstanding the irregularities herein specified:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon him by "The Road Boards Act, 1882," doth hereby extend until the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, the time for forwarding the copy of the said special order and the certificate by the Chairman of the meeting at which such special order was made as required by the provisions of the seventy-sixth section of the said Act; and doth hereby validate the election as members of the said Board of Frederick William Lang, Frank Joseph Vickers, John Glasson, John McMiken, and William Livingstone, the persons declared to have been so elected as aforesaid, and doth hereby declare that the said persons shall continue to hold office as such Board in the same manner as if the irregularities hereinbefore mentioned had not taken place.
