WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intitled "The Prisons Act, 1882," it is enacted that the Governor may from time to time, by Proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette, make rules as to him shall seem fit touching the duties of the officers of public prisons, the construction and description of cells for separate confinement or punishment of persons confined in public prisons, and the certifying the same as fit for the purpose, and the safe custody, the classification, hours of labour, mode of employment, separation, diet, instruction, treatment, and correction of the prisoners confined in public prisons, and for regulating what labour or employment shall be deemed hard labour, and for classifying such labour; and generally to prescribe all such rules as may be necessary for the good management and government of such prisons, and the discipline and safe custody of the prisoners therein, and not only while therein but also while employed at labour beyond the limits of the prison; and such rules may be made to apply generally to all prisons, or to any one or more prisons specified in any such Proclamation, as the Governor may think fit; and the Governor may from time to time alter or revoke any such rules as aforesaid, or any rules, regulations, orders, or directions in force in any prison at the commencement of the said Act:

EDWD. T. CONOLLY.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

GENERAL.

RULES 31 and 60 of regulations published in the Gazette of the 18th March, 1875, are hereby annulled, and the following substituted therefor:—

31. No smoking shall be allowed to prisoners received after the date of this Proclamation, and no tobacco introduced for that purpose, except on the written recommendation of the Surgeon.

VISITS TO AND COMMUNICATIONS WITH PRISONERS.

60. Due provision shall be made by the Gaoler for the admission, at proper times and under proper restrictions, of persons with whom prisoners before trial may desire to communicate, care being taken that, so far as is consistent with the interests of justice, such prisoners shall see their legal advisers alone.

SYSTEM OF PRISON CLASSIFICATION.

Prisoners sentenced to penal servitude will be required to pass through the following classes:—

FOR PENAL SERVITUDE.

Minimum Period with Good Conduct and Industry.

1. Probation Class: One year, during which they must earn 2,192 marks, none being credited for the first three months.

Third Class: One year, during which they must earn 2,920 marks.

Second Class: One year, during which they must earn 2,920 marks.

After which they will be eligible for promotion to the first class.

2. Every prisoner is thus required to remain in the probation class for a minimum period of one year reckoned from the date of conviction, of which three months will be passed without any remission being granted. No gratuity will be given in this class.

If his conduct and industry are good he will then be promoted to the third class, and so on to the second, remaining in each a minimum period of one year.

The remainder of the term of his imprisonment will be spent in the first class, unless he is promoted to the special class, or degraded to any lower class.

These classes will, as far as practicable, be kept quite separate from each other in prisons.

3. Prisoners sentenced to penal servitude for a less period than five years will serve one-fourth of their whole sentence in each class, instead of one year, and earn marks accordingly.

4. Prisoners in probation, third, or second classes may, for misconduct, be subjected to serve an additional period in the class in which they may then be serving, and, if in third, second, or first class, may be degraded to any lower class for any stated period, and, when so degraded, they must remain therein until they have earned the full number of marks allotted to such period, viz., the whole number of days multiplied by eight. Such number of marks is not however to be added to the original number the prisoner has to earn for remission, but it represents the number of marks he must earn before he can return to his original class.

5. Prisoners undergoing cumulative sentences will be treated as if sentenced to one term equal to the total award, except that they will serve a probation of three months without remission for each sentence, the probations to be consecutive at the commencement of the penal servitude.

Probation Class.

6. Prisoners in the probation class will wear the ordinary prison-dress without any facings. They will be allowed to receive a visit within the first month of their conviction, provided their conduct is good, and again after they have served eight months, their conduct being good for the three previous consecutive months; and under the same conditions they will be allowed to write and receive a letter within the first month of their conviction, and again after they have served eight months; the visits to be of twenty minutes' duration. They will be allowed one period of exercise on Sundays.

Third Class.

7. Prisoners in this class to wear the prison-dress with black facings. To receive a visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to write and receive a letter once in four months, provided conduct has been good at least two previous consecutive months. To receive a gratuity of twelve shillings, being at the rate of one shilling per month for the time passed in this class, to be earned by marks. To be allowed one period of exercise on Sundays.

Second Class.

8. Prisoners in the second class will wear the prison-dress with yellow facings. They will be allowed to receive a visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to receive and write a letter once in three months, provided their conduct has been good for at least two consecutive months. To receive a gratuity of eighteen shillings calculated at the rate of one shilling and sixpence per month for twelve months, to be earned by marks in this class. To have two periods of exercise on Sundays.

First Class.

9. Prisoners in the first class will wear the prison dress with red facings. They will be allowed to receive a visit of thirty minutes' duration, and to write and receive a letter once in two months, provided conduct has been good for one month previous. To receive a gratuity of thirty shillings, being at the rate of two shillings and sixpence per month for twelve months, to be earned by marks, until they have earned three pounds altogether. To be allowed three periods of exercise on Sundays. No prisoner to be promoted to the first class unless he can read and write, or has done his best to learn to do so.

Special Class.—(A Reward for Industry and Good Conduct.)

10. Prisoners under sentences of five years or shorter terms of penal servitude may obtain the advantages of the special class on release, providing their conduct has been exemplary whilst in the first class.

No other prisoner is to be promoted to the special class till he is within twelve months of becoming due for release, and having passed through the first class with exemplary conduct.

Prisoners in the special class will wear a blue dress. They will be allowed to be recommended for an extra remission not exceeding one month; to be recommended for an extra gratuity on discharge not exceeding two pounds; to receive a visit of thirty minutes, and to receive and write a letter once a month; to have baked instead of boiled meat twice a week, or dinner prepared in such other way as the circumstances will admit.

NOTE.—One punishment for misconduct in special class forfeits the privileges of this class, which cannot be restored.

11. For practical purposes in calculating the gratuities the following scale will be adopted:—

In third class, 20 marks are equal to	1d.
In second " 20 " " "	1½d.
In first " 20 " " "	2½d.

12. The case of a convict whose conduct has been bad, and who has earned no gratuity, is to be submitted to the Minister of Justice one month before his discharge is due.

13. Prisoners sentenced to parti-coloured dress, cross-irons, or any other special treatment will be placed in the probation class whilst under such treatment, but on release therefrom will return to the class from which they were degraded, unless their sentence for the misconduct specifies the contrary.

FOR PRISONERS SENTENCED TO IMPRISONMENT WITH HARD LABOUR.

1. The time which every prisoner must pass in prison shall be represented by a certain number of marks, which he must earn by actual labour performed to entitle him to any remission of sentence.

2. No remission will be granted for conduct, except on Sundays. It is only on condition of good conduct and strict obedience that prisoners will be allowed to earn by their industry a remission of a portion of their sentences.

3. If therefore their conduct is indifferent or bad, they will be liable to be fined a certain number of marks, according to the nature and degree of the offence, and will thus forfeit by misconduct the remission they may have gained by their industry.

4. The scale of marks shall be: Eight marks per diem for steady hard labour and full performance of the allotted task; seven marks per diem for a less degree of industry; six marks per diem for a fair but moderate day's work.

5. No remission will be granted for the first three months of a sentence, which shall be looked upon as a period of probation; a prisoner's marks are therefore to be calculated at the rate of six per diem as commencing three months from the date of conviction: Provided that no prisoner whose conduct has not been good and industrious during the first three months of his imprisonment shall be entitled to marks until he has passed a further period of three months' probation. Should his conduct during this second period of probation be good and industrious, his marks shall be calculated as commencing six months from the date of conviction, but, if not, the prisoner shall not be entitled to marks until his conduct has been reported good and industrious for a period of three months prior to the date from which they are calculated.

6. If by his industry the prisoner gains eight marks per diem and does not forfeit any for misconduct, he will earn the full remission of one-fourth of the time for which his marks were calculated.

7. When a prisoner is sentenced to forfeiture of time, a number of marks equal to the number of days forfeited, multiplied by six, is to be added to the whole number of marks he has to earn. As he can by his industry earn eight, he may thereby gain a remission of one-fourth of such forfeiture.

8. Prisoners sentenced to separate confinement shall be credited with only six marks per diem during that period.

9. Prisoners in hospital shall be credited with only six marks per diem, which may be increased by special recommendation of the Gaoler to the Visiting Justices.

10. A prisoner during his term of imprisonment will be required to pass through the following classes, viz. :—

Probation Class: One-fourth of his whole sentence, on the first three months of which he will be granted no remission;

Third Class: One-fourth of his whole sentence;

Second Class: One-fourth of his whole sentence.

After which he will be eligible for promotion to the first class.

11. Every prisoner is thus required to remain in the probation class for one-fourth of his whole sentence, during which time he must earn a number of marks equivalent to the days in one-fourth of the whole sentence (less the three months' probation) multiplied by eight, after which he will be eligible for promotion to the third class, and so on to the second class, serving and earning in each class a number of marks equal to one-fourth of the whole sentence.

12. A prisoner in probation, third, or second class may for misconduct be subjected to serve an additional period in such class in which he may then be serving; and if in third, second, or first class may be reduced to any lower class for any stated period. Such number of days for which he may be reduced to be multiplied by eight, and the number of marks accruing therefrom to be served in such lower class in addition to the one-fourth of the sentence.

13. The remainder of the term of imprisonment, after having served the prescribed periods in the lower classes, to be spent in the first class, unless degraded to any lower class for misconduct.

14. These classes, as far as possible, to be kept separate from each other.

15. Prisoners in the probation class will wear the prison-dress without facings. They will be allowed no gratuity, but may receive one visit of twenty minutes' duration, and write and receive one letter immediately after their conviction, provided their conduct is good. They will be granted one period of exercise on Sundays.

16. All prisoners under sentence of less than six months' hard labour are to be considered as in the probation class. They may on discharge be granted a gratuity not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, unless such sentence expires on a Saturday, when this gratuity may be increased to an amount not exceeding four shillings. They will be allowed one visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to write and receive one letter immediately after their conviction, provided their conduct is good, and on the same condition they will be allowed a visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to write and receive one letter when within a fortnight of being entitled to their discharge.

17. Prisoners in the third class will wear the prison-dress with black facings. They will receive a gratuity to be earned by marks during the time spent in this class at the rate of one penny per twenty marks. [In cases of sentences under twelve months the various privileges of visiting and writing and receiving letters in the classes may be granted, though the specified period of three months from date of conviction may not have expired.] To receive a visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to write and receive a letter once in three months, provided conduct in that class has been good for the four previous weeks. To be allowed one period of exercise on Sundays.

18. Prisoners in the second class will wear the prison-dress with yellow facings. They will be eligible to receive a visit of twenty minutes' duration, and to receive and write a letter once in two months. To receive a gratuity to be earned by marks during the time spent in this class, at the rate of one penny halfpenny per twenty marks. To be allowed two periods of exercise on Sundays.

19. Prisoners in the first class will wear the prison-dress with red facings. They will be eligible to receive a visit of thirty minutes' duration, and to receive and write a letter once in each month. To receive a gratuity to be earned by marks during the time spent in this class, at the rate of twopence halfpenny per twenty marks. To be allowed three periods of exercise on Sundays.

20. Prisoners who so far commit themselves as to be placed in cross-irons, or parti-coloured suit, or under other special treatment, will be placed in the probation class whilst under such treatment, but on release therefrom will return to the class from which they were degraded, unless the sentence for misconduct specifies the contrary.

21. Prisoners under cumulative sentences will be treated as if undergoing one term equal to the whole award, except that they will serve a probation of three months without remission for each sentence. The probations to be consecutive at the commencement of the imprisonment.

N.B.—Prisoners will not be granted any remission on the first three months of their imprisonment.

By-laws Nos. 1 to 5 of the Waikamo County Council.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 24th April, 1883.

THE following by-laws, made by the Waikamo County Council, are published in accordance with "The Counties Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1882."

THOMAS DICK.

WAIKAMO COUNTY COUNCIL.

In pursuance of powers vested in them by "The Counties Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1882," the Waikamo County Council ordain as follows:—

BY-LAW No. 1,

Regulating the Proceedings, Debates, and General Conduct of the Business of the Council.

1. In all cases hereinafter provided for, the Chairman shall decide, taking for his guide the rules, forms, and usages of the House of Representatives of the Colony of New Zealand, as far as the same can be applied to the proceedings of the County Council.

2. On the first day of the meeting of the new Council the Clerk shall read the notice convening the Council, also the names of Councillors returned to serve in such Council, and the Council shall immediately thereafter proceed in manner following to the choice of some proper person to be its Chairman.

3. A Councillor, addressing himself to the Clerk, may propose another Councillor then present to the Council for its Chairman, and move that such Councillor "do take the chair of this Council as Chairman."

4. Such motion being seconded, if no other Councillor be proposed, the Councillor so proposed shall be declared by the Clerk duly elected as Chairman without a question being put.

5. In the event of more than one Councillor being proposed as Chairman, a motion may be made and seconded regarding each such Councillor that he "do take the chair of this Council as Chairman," upon which a debate may take place. A question shall then be put by the Clerk that the Councillor first proposed "do take the chair," &c., which shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative like other questions: if in the negative, a question shall be put that the Councillor next proposed "do take the chair," &c., and so on until a Chairman is elected.

6. The Councillor elected shall, after having expressed his acknowledgments for the honour conferred upon him, take his seat in the Chair.

7. At the first sitting each day the Council shall be opened by the Chairman taking the Chair and requesting the Clerk to read the minutes of the preceding meeting.

8. After the minutes of the preceding meeting have been read and confirmed, the Council shall proceed to consider the business in the following order: (1) By receiving petitions and deputations, (2) by considering reports, (3) by the Chairman or Clerk reading the correspondence, (4) by passing accounts for payment, (5) by considering any business of which notice has been given at preceding meetings, and (6) by considering general business.

9. It shall be competent on the presentation of any document to move without notice that it be taken into consideration.

10. All resolutions and motions submitted to the Council for consideration shall be in writing.

11. All papers and documents laid upon the table of the Council shall be considered public, unless otherwise ordered by the Council.

12. The Council, by resolution to that effect, may at any time resolve itself into Committee of the Whole, and order the withdrawal of strangers during the time it remains in Committee.

13. Previous to the meeting of the Council being brought to a close, the Chairman shall ask for and receive any notices of motion or resolutions for next meeting.

14. Every Councillor desiring to speak shall rise in his place (uncovered) and address himself to the Chairman.

15. All motions shall be duly seconded before being proposed from the Chair (except in Committee of the Whole), and if not seconded shall be forthwith dropped, and no entry shall be made thereof in the minutes.

16. After a motion shall have been proposed from the Chair, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Council, and shall not be withdrawn or altered without the consent of the Council.

17. A motion having been moved and seconded, and the question thereupon proposed from the Chair, any question of order or any matter of privilege which may arise shall supersede the consideration of the original question, and must be first disposed of.

18. While the Chairman is putting a question, no Councillor shall walk out of or across the hall; nor while a Councillor is speaking shall any Councillor hold discourse to interrupt him, nor pass between him and the Chair.

19. Whenever the Chairman rises during a debate, any Councillor then speaking, or offering to speak, shall sit down, and the Council shall be silent, so that the Chairman may be heard without interruption.

20. A member called to order by the Chairman shall sit down, unless permitted to explain.

21. If, in consequence of highly disorderly conduct, the Chairman shall call upon any Councillor by name, such Councillor shall withdraw as soon as he has been heard in explanation; and, after such Councillor's withdrawal, the Council shall at once take the case into consideration.

22. In the case of a charge against a Councillor for any breach of the orders of the Council, or on account of any matter that has arisen in debate, the charge shall be stated and the question moved before the Councillor accused withdraws; he shall then be allowed the opportunity of explaining to the Council the motives of his conduct in the matter alleged against him, and, after having done so, he shall withdraw.

23. Any Councillor may, of right, require the question or matter in discussion to be read for his information at any time during the debate, but not so as to interrupt a Councillor speaking.

24. No Councillor shall speak twice (except in Committee of the whole Council) on the same question, unless in explanation on some material point of his speech on which he had been misrepresented or misunderstood, and without introducing any new matter; but the mover of any new question, not being an amendment, shall be allowed the liberty of reply; and after such reply it shall not be competent for any Councillor to speak to the subject in debate; and it shall be competent to a Councillor, when he seconds a motion or amendment without speaking to it, to address the Council on the subject of such motion or amendment at any subsequent period of the debate.

25. Whenever any matter of privilege arises it shall immediately be taken into consideration.

26. In like manner, in course of a debate, any Councillor who has not spoken on the original question may move (except when a Councillor is in possession of the Chair), "That this debate be now adjourned," but the Chairman shall confine the discussion as nearly as may be to the question of adjournment; and if such motion be carried its effect will be merely to defer the discussion of the Council on the original question; and if the motion for adjournment be negatived it shall not be competent to propose it again without some intermediate proceedings.

27. When the motion for the adjournment of a debate has been agreed to, the Council shall forthwith fix a time for the resumption of such debate.

28. The Councillor upon whose motion any debate shall be adjourned shall be entitled to preaudience upon resumption of the debate.

29. A question may be superseded by the previous question, viz., "That this question be now put" being proposed and negatived; if the previous question, "That this question be now put," be resolved in the affirmative the original question is to be put forthwith without amendment or debate.

30. The debate upon a question may be interrupted (1) by a matter of privilege suddenly arising, (2) by words of heat between Councillors, (3) by questions of order.

31. The Council may order a complicated question to be divided.

32. So soon as a debate upon a question is concluded the Chairman puts the question to the Council, and if the same be not heard will again state it to the Council.

33. A question being put is resolved in the affirmative or negative by the majority of voices, "Aye" or "No."

34. The Chairman states whether in his opinion the "Ayes" or "Noes" "have it," and unless his opinion is acquiesced in by the minority the question is determined by a division, and an entry of every such division shall be made by the Clerk in the minutes.

35. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall give a casting vote, and any reason stated by him may, if he so desire and order it, be entered in the minutes.

36. A question having been proposed may be amended (1)

by leaving out certain words only, (2) by leaving out certain words in order to insert or add other words, or (3) by inserting or adding words.

37. An amendment proposed but not seconded will not be entertained by the Council (except in Committee).

38. When the proposed amendment is to insert or add certain words, the Chairman puts a question that such words be inserted or added, which is resolved in the affirmative or negative, as the case may be.

39. No amendment may be proposed in any part of a question after a latter part has been amended, or has been proposed to be amended, unless a proposed amendment has been, by leave of the Council, withdrawn.

40. A proposed amendment may be, by leave of the Council, withdrawn.

41. Amendments may be proposed to a proposed amendment whenever it comes to a question whether the Council shall agree to such proposed amendment.

42. When the amendments have been made the main question as amended is put.

43. When amendments have been proposed, but not made, the question is put as originally proposed.

44. That the foregoing rules be in force during the pleasure of the Council, and shall not be altered except at a special meeting called for the purpose, and of which at least seven clear days' notice have been given to each Councillor of the alteration intended to be made.
