

SUPPLEMENT
TO THE
NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF
THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1884.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1884.

Town District of Waipawa, County of Waipawa, constituted.

(L.S.) WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by "The Town Districts Act, 1881" (hereinafter called "the said Act"), it is, among other things, enacted that the inhabitants of any locality not constituted a borough under "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," wherein there are not less than fifty householders, may apply by petition to the Governor praying that such locality may be constituted a town district under the said Act; and that no such locality shall exceed two square miles in area, and no one point in such area shall be distant more than four miles from any other point therein, except in the case of military townships; and that in every such locality not less than two-thirds of the number of the resident householders shall concur in any such petition, and each signature to such petition shall be verified by the attestation of some respectable witness; and that such petition shall set forth accurately the boundaries of the locality to which such petition may refer; and also that, on the receipt of any such petition, the Governor may, by Proclamation, declare that the provisions of the said Act shall come into force within such locality, and that the same shall be a town district under the said Act; and further that such Proclamation shall accurately define the boundaries of the district in accordance with the description contained in the petition, and shall declare the name by which such district shall thereafter be known:

And whereas a petition has been presented to the Governor, by the inhabitants of the locality mentioned and described therein, praying that such locality may be constituted a town district under the said Act:

And whereas not less than two-thirds of the number of resident householders in the said locality have concurred in the said petition, and it is expedient that a Proclamation should be issued under the said Act for the purposes herein-after set forth:

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervois, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the hereinbefore in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the provisions of the said Act shall come into force within the locality or district mentioned and described in the Schedule hereto (the same being the locality mentioned and set forth in the said petition so presented as aforesaid), and that the same shall be a town district under the said Act; and, in further pursuance and exercise of the said power and authority, I do hereby declare that the said district shall hereafter be known by the name of "The Waipawa Town District," and I do appoint that the Board of Commissioners for the said district shall consist of five in number.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that area in the County of Waipawa bounded towards the North generally by Block LVII. in the Waipukurau Survey District, from the north-western corner of Block LVI. to the north-eastern corner of the said Block LVI.; thence by a right line to the intersection of the south side of the Waipawa-Taumumu Road by the Great North Road; thence by the said Waipawa-Taumumu Road to the Haowhenua Native Reserve; thence towards the East by that reserve to the Waipawa River; thence towards the South by that river to the south-western corner of Block LVI. aforesaid; and thence towards the West by Block LVII. aforesaid, the place of commencement.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir William Francis Drummond Jervois, Lieutenant-General in Her Majesty's Army, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Invercargill, this twenty-fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 29th January, 1884.

THE following by-law, made by the Waitemata County Council, is published in accordance with "The Counties Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1882."

THOMAS DICK.

SPECIAL ORDER No. 4, made by the Waitemata County Council at a duly convened and constituted Meeting of the Council held on Friday, the 21st December, 1883.

RESOLVED, That By-law No. 1, to prohibit the slaughtering of cattle, sheep, goats, or swine in such places within the county as the Council may think proper, and to grant licenses for slaughter houses, fix fees to be paid to the County Fund for such licenses, and regulate the slaughtering of animals therein in such manner as the Council may think fit, be passed and come into operation on the first day of February, 1884.

JNO. JAMES, Clerk.

I hereby certify that all the forms of law in respect of the above special order have been duly complied with.

JNO. JAMES,
County Clerk.

BY-LAW No. 1.

Cattle may not be slaughtered in the County of Waitemata without License.

1. On and after the 1st day of January, 1884, no person shall keep a slaughterhouse, or place for slaughtering cattle intended for sale, barter, or exportation, except such house or place be duly licensed for that purpose in the manner hereinafter provided.

Penalty.

2. Every person who shall slaughter, or cause to be slaughtered, any cattle, sheep, or pigs, as aforesaid, in any house or place within the County of Waitemata, not being a duly-licensed slaughterhouse or place, contrary to the provisions of these by-laws, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding £5 for every such offence.

Blood or Offal. Proof of Illegal Slaughtering.

3. If any blood or offal of any cattle shall be found in any place, other than a public or private slaughterhouse, and its presence in such place shall not be satisfactorily accounted for by the occupier of such place, such occupier shall be deemed guilty of having slaughtered cattle contrary to the provisions of this by-law, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

Power to grant Licenses.

4. Every person desirous of obtaining a license for a slaughterhouse, or place for slaughtering cattle, shall, before any ordinary meeting of the Council, give to the County Clerk a notice in writing of his intention to apply for a license, and shall describe in said notice the house or place intended to be licensed: and the Council (a quorum being present) shall consider such application, and if they find the applicant to be a person of good character, and the place proposed to be licensed in a convenient and desirable situation, they shall grant to such person a license, under the hand of the County Clerk, in the form of Schedule A.

Licenses to be in force from Date to 31st December following.

5. Every license shall be in force from the date thereof until the 31st day of December next following, or such other date as the Council may from time to time determine, and payment shall be made therefor according to the following scale:—

- (a.) For a license to kill not more than one head of great cattle and ten head of small cattle per week, the sum of £2 per annum:
- (b.) For a license to kill more than two head of great cattle and any quantity of small cattle per week, the sum of £5 per annum:
- (c.) For a license to kill not more than two head of great cattle and ten head of small cattle per month, the sum of £1 per annum.

Power of Councillors to enter and direct the Cleansing of Slaughterhouses.

6. For the purpose of preserving cleanliness in licensed slaughterhouses, or places for slaughtering cattle, it shall be lawful for any Inspector or constable, authorized by writing under the hand of a Councillor or under the hand of the County Clerk, to visit and inspect any slaughterhouse or place for slaughtering cattle within the county, and to give such directions concerning the cleansing of such slaughterhouse or place both within and without as to him shall seem needful.

Penalty for Neglect.

7. If any butcher, or the owner or occupier of any such slaughterhouse or place for slaughtering of cattle, shall obstruct or molest such Inspector or constable in the inspection thereof, or shall refuse or neglect to comply with such directions within a reasonable time, every such person shall, upon conviction upon the information of such Inspector or constable, forfeit and pay for every such offence or neglect any sum not exceeding £5.

Power of Justice, &c., to enter and search.

8. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, Inspector of the Police, County Clerk, Inspector of Slaughterhouses, or constable duly authorized in writing by a Councillor to enter at any time any slaughterhouse or place so licensed as aforesaid within the county where there shall be cause to suspect that stolen cattle have been or are about to be slaughtered, and to make such search and inquiry as may seem necessary for the discovery of the offence and the offender.

Butchers to keep a Register of Cattle slaughtered.

9. Every person licensed to slaughter cattle within the county shall keep a book in the form of Schedule B, wherein he shall enter all cattle slaughtered in his licensed house or place, showing the date of slaughter, the name of the person from whom purchased, the sex, apparent age, colour, and brands; and every person who shall slaughter cattle without making such entries shall forfeit and pay for such omission a sum not exceeding £5.

Monthly Return to be furnished.

10. Every keeper of a licensed slaughterhouse shall transmit monthly to the County Clerk a report in writing containing the particulars above stated, and shall produce such book for the information of any Justice or duly-authorized constable whenever he shall be required. And if any such keeper of a licensed slaughterhouse or place for slaughtering cattle shall neglect or fail to keep such book or record or shall refuse to produce such book or record to any Justice or duly-authorized constable, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding £5.

Not to extend to Persons slaughtering Cattle for their own Consumption.

11. That nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend to any person or persons slaughtering at his or her own residence farm cattle for his or her own consumption.

Power to demand Production of Skins.

12. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, Inspector, or authorized constable to demand the skin of any horned or neat cattle or sheep that may have been slaughtered, either for home consumption or for sale, barter, or exportation, within one month previous to the date of such demand, or a full and satisfactory account to whom such skin has been sold or in what manner disposed of; and any person who, upon such demand, shall refuse or neglect to produce the skins of any such cattle that have been slaughtered, or, in case the same cannot be produced, to give a full and satisfactory account of how and in what manner the same have been disposed of, shall on conviction forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding £5.

Persons destroying Brands liable to Penalty.

13. And if any person shall cut out, burn, or otherwise destroy, deface, or obliterate any brand or ear-mark which shall have been on any skin, or shall be in possession of or shall purchase any such skin from which the brand shall have been cut or burnt or otherwise destroyed or defaced, without being able to give a satisfactory account thereof, every such person shall, upon conviction of any such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding £5.

Hours for Slaughtering may be prescribed.

14. It shall be lawful for the County Council, if they shall see occasion to do so, to prescribe the hours within which any such cattle shall be slaughtered, and to enforce any regulations so to be made in that behalf by a penalty not exceeding £5.

Fees to be accounted for and paid to the County Treasurer.

15. All fees payable to the County Council under the authority of these by-laws shall be accounted for and paid to the County Treasurer for the public use of the said county, and for the support of the government thereof.

Fees recoverable in a Summary Way.

16. All fines and penalties imposed under the authority of these by-laws shall be recoverable in a summary way.

17. For the purposes of these by-laws the word "cattle" (unless otherwise expressly stated) shall be taken to include horned or neat cattle, sheep, goats, and swine.

OLIVER MAYS, Chairman.
JOHN JAMES, County Clerk.
