WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1884.

*Special Order made by Bay of Islands County Council.—
Alteration of Ridings.*

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 3rd March, 1884.

THE following special order, made by the Bay of Islands County Council, is published in accordance with "The Counties Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1882."

THOMAS DICK.

In the matter of "The Counties Act, 1876," and the amendments thereof, and in the matter of the division of the Waimate Riding of the Bay of Islands County into two ridings.

WHEREAS by "The Counties Act, 1876," it is, among other things, enacted that the Council may from time to time, by special order, alter the number of the ridings within the county and the names and boundaries thereof, and may from time to time, by special order, alter the number of the Council and the number of Councillors to be elected by each riding, as it thinks fit: And whereas the Bay of Islands County Council did, at a meeting held on the twenty-eighth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, upon a petition presented to the said Council signed by at least three-fifths of the county electors of the Waimate Riding, being one of the ridings of the said county, pass a resolution that the said Waimate Riding be divided into two ridings to be named respectively Waimate and Pakaraka Ridings, and that the number of Councillors to be elected for each such riding shall be two for each such riding, and that the boundaries of such ridings shall be those set forth and defined at such meeting of the Council, namely, those hereinafter defined: And whereas the Council, at a special meeting held on the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, did direct that a special order be made in conformity with such resolution: And whereas all notices have been given and all things have been done as required by "The Counties Act, 1876," aforesaid and the amendments thereof to enable the said Council to make such special order as aforesaid:

Now it is hereby declared that the riding at present existing as Waimate Riding shall be and the same is hereby divided into two ridings named respectively Waimate and Pakaraka Ridings, and that the boundaries of such ridings shall be as follows:—

The Waimate Riding.

All that area in the Provincial District of Auckland bounded towards the North by the Mongonui County; towards the East by the ocean to the Waitangi River; towards the South by the Waitangi River aforesaid and the Waiaruru River as far as the Black Bridge; thence westerly by the Ohaeawai and Bay Road to the Ohaeawai Telegraph Station; thence westerly by the Great North Road to the Totara Block; thence by the southern boundary of the Totara Block aforesaid to the Omapers Lake; thence by the southern shore of the Omapers Lake aforesaid to the Omapers Block on the western side of the lake; and thence westerly by the southern boundary of the Omapers Block to the county boundary-line; and towards the West by the Hokianga County boundary to the commencing point.

The Pakaraka Riding.

All that area in the Provincial District of Auckland bounded towards the North by the Waimate Riding; towards the East by the sea and the Kawakawa Riding as described in Gazette No. 16, 21st February, 1878, page 215; towards the South-east by Whangarei County and Hobson County; and towards the West by Hokianga County.

And it is further declared that the number of Councillors to be elected by each riding shall be—for Waimate Riding, two Councillors; for Pakaraka Riding, two Councillors.

Given under the seal of the County of Bay of Islands, this twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

H. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

E. FORD, Councillor.

T. P. MOODY, Councillor.

I hereby certify that the above special order has been duly made.

H. WILLIAMS,
County Chairman.

By-law made by Westland County Council.—Pedlars and Hawkers.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 1st March, 1884.

THE following by-law, made by the Westland County Council, is published in accordance with "The Counties Act 1876 Amendment Act, 1882."

THOMAS DICK.

BY-LAW No. 4 of the Westland County Council, relating to Pedlars and Hawkers.

THE County Council of Westland do hereby make the following by-law, that is to say,—

1. It shall be lawful for the County Council to license pedlars and hawkers trading or carrying on business or selling goods within the boundaries of the County of Westland.

2. The fee for such license shall be £5 annually.

3. If any person trades or sells as a pedlar or hawker within the county without having obtained such license, he shall be liable to a penalty, on conviction for every such offence, of £5.

4. The said license must be produced on demand to any police officer, road overseer, or other county officer appointed to inspect same, and to see this by-law enforced; and any pedlar or hawker refusing to produce his license to such officer shall be liable to a penalty, on conviction for every such offence, of £5.

5. This by-law shall apply to all hawkers of butchers' meat, and to all pedlars and hawkers of general goods and merchandise of every kind soever, but it shall not apply to vendors of works of literature, or to farmers, market-gardeners, or dairy-men resident in the county who shall be bonâ fide selling their own produce in the county.

6. This by-law shall come into force on the day on which same first appears in the Government Gazette.

Made by special order of the County Council at a special meeting held the 9th day of January, 1884; confirmed at a subsequent meeting held on the 13th day of February, 1884; and sealed with the common seal of the Council on the 13th day of February, 1884.

P. DUNGAN, County Chairman.
H. R. RAE, County Clerk.

I hereby certify that all the provisions of the various Acts empowering the County Council to make by-laws have been duly complied with in making this By-law No. 4.

H. R. RAE,
Clerk to the Council.

Hokitika, 24th February, 1884.

By-law made by Board of Portobello Road District, County of Peninsula.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 23rd February, 1884.

THE following by-law, made by the Portobello Road Board, is published in accordance with "The Road Boards Act, 1882."

THOMAS DICK.

BY-LAW passed by Special Order of the Portobello Road Board on the 23rd day of February, 1884.

IF any horses or any cattle be at any time found straying or trespassing on any street, district road, or footpath under the control of the Road Board, with or without any person in charge thereof, the owner of every such horse or cattle shall, on conviction, forfeit for every such horse or head of cattle a sum not exceeding £10 sterling.

I hereby certify that the foregoing by-law made by the Portobello Road Board on the 23rd day of February, 1884, was made by special order duly passed as required by sections 75 and 76 of "The Road Boards Act, 1882."

W. R. LATHAM,
