Altering Fees under "The Resident Magistrates Evidence Act, 1870."

Wm. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government Buildings, at Wellington, this tenth day of April, 1884.

Present:

THE HONOURABLE THE MINISTER OF LANDS PRESIDING IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is enacted by "The Financial Arrangements Act, 1878," that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to abolish or alter the fees to be paid under "The Resident Magistrates Evidence Act, 1870," or any of them, and to fix others in lieu thereof, and the fees so fixed shall be published in the New Zealand Gazette, and on and after a day to be named therein shall be deemed to be the fees to be paid under the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in him as aforesaid, doth hereby, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, abolish the fees prescribed to be taken under "The Resident Magistrates Evidence Act, 1870," and doth with the like advice and consent fix that, from and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the fees specified in the Schedule hereto shall be the fees to be taken and paid in respect of the several proceedings, matters, and things under the said Act mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule.
