REGULATIONS.

All goods specified in Part IV., and not otherwise provided for in Part II., will be charged in accordance with the classified rates in the preceding table, but subject to the following conditions and regulations, viz. :---

- Goods from different consigners to one consignee, or from one consigner to different consignees, will be charged separately.
 (a.) Goods of Classes A, B, C, D, from one consignor to one consignee, will be charged at the classified rate, except the charge at scale for small lots amounts to more.
 (b) Appr upmber of consignments of different classes from one consignor to one
- amounts to more.
 (b.) Any number of consignments of different classes from one consignor to one consignee will be charged separately or as one consignment of the highest class to which either of them belongs.
 (c.) But when a consignment which would be charged at classified rates, and not at the scale for small lots, is sent with small lots, such consignment may be charged separately, and the small lots may be treated independently under regulation (b).

(2.) Scale for Small Lots.

Where local or through rates prevail, they will be substituted for the classified rates in computing charges for small lots.

Goods declared to be "special goods" are specified in Part IV. Any package or animal which exceeds in value the sum of £500 is also declared to be "special goods," and will be carried under special contract only. When goods are declared in the consignment-note to be "special goods," and the value is also stated therein, an additional charge of one-third of the ordinary rates and charges for each £100 or fraction of £100 of value so stated will be made thereon.

The value of each package must be separately stated.

The

PART IV.-CLASSIFICATION OF GOODS.

All goods carried on the railways will be charged under the class specified in this classification. If any goods are required to be carried which are not mentioned in this classifica-tion they shall be carried as Class A until the Council shall determine in what class they shall be charged. If any package contains any of the goods specified in this list as "dangerous," the word "dangerous" must be marked on the package, and full particulars of the contents thereof must be specified on the consignment-note. The Council is not bound to carry any such goods. Where goods are described as "packed," it is intended that they will only be carried if properly packed in cases, casks, bags, crates, or otherwise, in the manner in which such goods are usually packed in the trade, and that they will not be carried loose or in bulk.
