Conditions for Trout-fishing in Nelson.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for the Provincial District of Nelson:—

1. Any holder of a license as hereinafter mentioned may fish with rod and line for trout in each river or stream in the Provincial District of Nelson which flows into Blind Bay from the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, both inclusive, but only between the hours of five o'clock in the morning and ten o'clock in the evening.

2. Licenses to fish with rod and line in the said waters will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Nelson Acclimatisation Society, at Nelson, and for every license a fee of ten shillings will be charged.

3. No license shall authorize any person other than the person named therein to fish, and that only with rod and line.

4. Any person fishing without a license, or any person who shall, on demand of any person holding and showing a license, or on the demand of any ranger, police officer, or constable, fail to produce and show to such person, ranger, police officer, or constable his license, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

5. All trout not exceeding seven inches in length taken by any person fishing as aforesaid shall be immediately returned alive into the water; and any person convicted of infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds sterling, and his license shall thereupon become void.

6. Except as aforesaid, no person shall fish or use any net or other engine, instrument, or device for taking fish in any lake, river, or stream within the above district; and all persons offending against this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

7. Any person who puts, throws, or places, or allows to be put, thrown, or placed, into any lake, river, or stream in the said district, any dynamite or other explosive substance, or any matter or liquid deleterious to fish, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

8. These regulations shall come into force as from the date hereof.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

P. A. BUCKLEY.

Conditions for Trout Fishing in North Canterbury.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for that part of the Provincial District of Canterbury lying to the north of the Rangitata River:—

1. These regulations shall come into force from the date of the publication thereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

2. Licenses to fish for trout in all the rivers, streams, and lakes in the Provincial District of Canterbury north of the Rangitata River will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Canterbury Acclimatisation Society, at Christchurch, and for every such license a fee of twenty shillings will be charged: Provided that it shall not be obligatory upon the said Secretary to issue a license.

3. Every such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish in any of the said rivers, streams, and lakes from the fifteenth day of October in any year until the fifteenth day of April in the year following inclusive, between the hours of five a.m. and ten p.m. only, but no such license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent; and any person fishing or attempting to fish or take any salmon or trout except during the above-mentioned period shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

4. Every such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish with one rod and line, and with the bait or devices authorized by these regulations only; and any person who shall use any ground-bait, or any net (except a landing-net) or other engine, instrument, or device not expressly authorized by these regulations, or shall use or employ either of the methods known as "cross-line fishing" or "stroke-hauling," or any other unsportsmanlike device, or shall use as bait salmon-roe, fish-roe, or any bait prepared with any chemical or medicated dressing whatever, for taking fish in any of the said rivers, streams, or lakes, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds; and every such net or other engine, instrument, or device used contrary to these regulations shall be forfeited.

5. Any person fishing without a license, or any person who shall on the demand of any ranger, constable, or officer of the Acclimatisation Society, fail to produce and show to such ranger, officer, or constable his license, or the contents of his creel or bag, or the bait used by him for taking fish, or any person who shall on demand of a person holding and showing a license fail to produce and show to such person the license (if any) held by him, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

6. No person shall use or fish with or place on any hook or other device used for taking trout any bait of any kind or description whatever, except the following: Natural and artificial fly, natural and artificial minnow, silveries, beetles, grasshoppers, spiders, caterpillars, the larvæ of the cadisfly and worm. Any person found infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

7. Every trout not exceeding eight inches in length, taken by any person, shall be immediately returned alive into the water from which the same is taken; and any person infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

8. Any person who shall put, throw, or place, or allow to be put, thrown, or placed, into any river, stream, or lake in the said Provincial District of Canterbury, any poisonous, deleterious, or noxious material, with intent to destroy any fish therein, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

9. No person shall buy, sell, or expose or offer for sale, or shall fish for the purpose of obtaining, any salmon, trout, perch, or tench, in order to make sale of the same or any part thereof for a period of two years from the date of the publication of these regulations in the New Zealand Gazette; and any person infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

10. If any person shall be convicted of any offence against these regulations the license of the offender shall thereupon become void.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

P. A. BUCKLEY.

Conditions for Trout-fishing in Waitaki.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for the County of Waitaki:—

1. Any holder of a license may fish with rod and line for trout in all the streams and lakes within and forming the boundaries of the County of Waitaki from the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, both inclusive.

2. Licenses to fish with rod and line in the above district will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Waitaki County Acclimatisation Society, at Oamaru, and for every license a fee of twenty shillings will be charged.

3. No license shall authorize any person other than the person named therein to fish, and that only with rod and line.

4. Any person fishing without a license, or any person who shall, on demand of any person holding and showing a license, or on the demand of any ranger, police officer, or constable, fail to produce and show to such person, ranger, police officer, or constable his license, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

5. All trout not exceeding seven inches in length taken by any person fishing as aforesaid shall be immediately returned alive into the water, and any person convicted of infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds sterling, and his license shall thereupon become void.

6. Except as aforesaid, no person shall fish or use any net or other engine, instrument, or device for taking fish in any lake, river, or stream within the above district; and all persons offending against this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

7. Any person who puts, throws, or places, or allows to be put, thrown, or placed, into any lake, river, or stream in the said district, any dynamite or other explosive substance, or any matter or liquid deleterious to fish, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

8. These regulations shall come into force as from the date hereof.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

P. A. BUCKLEY.

Application for Registration of a Trade Mark.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 27th September, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given that ALFRED DE LISSA, of 313, George Street, Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, Solicitor, has applied, on behalf of JOHN COLLIS

BROWNE, M.D., and JOHN THISTLEWOOD DAVENPORT, of 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London, England (trading under the name of J. T. Davenport), Pharmaceutical Chemists, to register, under "The Trade Marks Act, 1866," the trade mark of which the following is a description, viz. :—

Description of Trade Mark.

The representation of a fowl anchor, below which are the words "Trade Mark;" below which words is a double plain-lined oblong, within which, at the top, are the abbreviation, letter, and words, "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne," below which is a horizontal line; below the line are the words, name, cipher, abbreviations, and address, "Sole Manufacturer, J. T. Davenport, Operative Chemist & Pharmacist To H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London, W.C.," below which is another horizontal line; below this line is the representation of an index hand, and the words and name "None Genuine Without the Name of Dr. J. Collis Browne on the Government Stamp," followed by the facsimile signature "J. T. Davenport." The above-described mark is printed in red on a white ground, but the same may be printed in any colour or combination of colours.

Nature of the Article to which it is intended such Trade Mark shall apply.

A medical preparation known as chlorodyne.

P. A. BUCKLEY,
Colonial Secretary and Registrar of Trade Marks.

Application for Registration of Five Trade Marks.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 27th September, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given that ALFRED DE LISSA, of 313, George Street, Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, Solicitor, has applied, on behalf of BASS, RATCLIFF, AND GRETTON, LIMITED, of Burton-on-Trent, in the County of Stafford, England, Brewers, to register, under "The Trade Marks Act, 1866," the trade marks of which the following is a description :—

Description of Trade Marks.

No. 1 consists of an equilateral triangle, at the base of which are the words "Trade Mark;" the above-described triangle being in red, and the said words thereon in black; but applicants claim the right to the mark in any colour or combination of colours.

No. 2 consists of a diamond-shaped figure, having at its lower point the words "Trade Mark;" the above-described diamond-shaped figure being in red, and the said words thereon in black. Applicants also use the said mark in brown, and claim the right to the same in any colour or combination of colours.

No. 3 consists of an oval label, with border composed of three lines. On the space between the first and second lines, at the top, are the words and cipher "This label is issued only by Bass, Ratcliff, & Gretton, Limited." At the bottom, between the same lines, are the words "Brewers, Burton-on-Trent." The rest of the space is occupied by small circles at intervals. The space between the second and third lines is occupied by lines, upon which are representations of the Staffordshire knot. The space within the border is filled in with lacework, on which, in the upper central field, is an equilateral triangle, at the base of which are the words "Trade Mark." Around the sides and above the triangle are the words, cipher, and abbreviation "Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale." The words "Pale Ale," being common to the trade, the applicants claim to vary, and to substitute other words, with or without abbreviations, letters, and numerals (also common to the trade), indicative of the nature or description of the beer to which the label is applied. Below the triangle is the facsimile signature "Bass & Co." The above-described mark is printed in red and black upon a white ground, but applicants claim the right to the same in any colour or combination of colours.

No. 4 consists of an oval label, with border composed of three lines. On the space between the first and second lines, at the top, are the words and cipher "This label is issued only by Bass, Ratcliff, & Gretton, Limited;" at the bottom, between the same lines, are the words "Brewers, Burton-on-Trent." The rest of the space is occupied by small circles at intervals. The space between the second and third lines is occupied by lines, on which are representations of the Staffordshire knot. The space within the border is filled in with lacework, on which, in the upper central field, is a diamond-shaped figure, at the lower point of which are the words "Trade Mark." Around the sides and above the figure are the words, cipher, and abbreviation "Bass & Co.'s Burton Ale." The words "Burton Ale," being common to the trade, are varied in use, and other words, with or without abbreviations, letters, and numerals (also common to the trade), indicative of the nature or description of the beer to which the label is applied, substituted. Below the diamond-shaped figure is the facsimile signature "Bass & Co." The above-described mark is printed in red and black upon a white ground. Applicants also use the said mark in brown upon a white ground, and claim the right to the same in any colour or combination of colours.

No. 5 consists of an oval label, with border composed of three lines. On the space between the first and second lines, at the top, are the words and cipher "This label is issued only by Bass, Ratcliff, & Gretton, Limited;" at the bottom, between the same lines, are the words "Brewers, Burton-on-Trent." The rest of the space is occupied by small circles at intervals. The space between the second and third lines is occupied by lines, on which are representations of the Staffordshire knot. The space within the border is filled in with lacework, on which, in the upper central field, is a diamond-shaped figure, at the lower point of which are the words "Trade Mark." Upon the diamond-shaped figure is the numeral "1." The numeral "1," being indicative of the quality of the beer to which the label is applied, and commonly used in the trade, is varied by the use of other numerals, with or without a letter (also indicative of quality, and commonly used in the trade). Around the sides and above the diamond-shaped figure are the words, cipher, and abbreviation "Bass & Co.'s Strong Burton Ale." The words "Strong Burton Ale," being common to the trade, are varied in use, and other words, with or without abbreviations, letters, and numerals (also common to the trade), indicative of the nature or description of the beer to which the label is applied, substituted. Below the diamond-shaped figure is the facsimile signature "Bass & Co." The above-described mark is printed in red and black on a white ground (the numeral in white), but applicants claim the mark in any colour or combination of colours, and to use the numeral in any colour or combination of colours.

Nature of the Article to which it is intended such Trade Mark shall apply.

JOHN JOSEPH CROFTS.

Taken before me, at Ross, this 18th day of September, 1884—F. Moran, J.P. 577

To the Mining Registrar at Naseby of the Mining District of Mount Ida, and all other persons whom it may concern.

TAKE notice that it is intended to construct a Water-race and divert water for the purposes of irrigation and the driving of machinery.

The point of commencement of such race is in the Wedderburn, at the back of Champion's old station-house. The point of termination is in my freehold, Section No. 4, at the Wedderburn.

The course of such race is about north-east and south-west; the length of such race is one mile or thereabouts, its mean breadth 2 feet, and its mean depth 8 inches.

It is proposed to divert two Government-heads of water. The race will pass through Crown lands, and an area of 2 feet on each side of such race and immediately adjoining thereto throughout the whole length thereof will be required for the purpose of depositing matter removed from such race. Dated this 15th day of September, 1884.

DOMINIC GEOFFREY,
 By his Agent, J. Y. BROOKE HICKSON.

Any person objecting to the granting of this application must lodge his objection, in writing, at the Warden's Office, Naseby, within thirty clear days from the date hereof.

Hearing at 11 o'clock on the 21st day of October, 1884.
