OF
THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1885.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1885.

County of Clifton constituted.

(L.S.) WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a petition was presented to the Governor, signed by not less than three-fifths of the county electors contained within that portion of the County of Taranaki included within the boundaries particularly set forth in the First Schedule hereto, and which said portion comprises in the whole an area of more than two hundred thousand acres in extent, and contains more than one hundred county electors: And whereas the said petition prayed the Governor to constitute the said portion of the County of Taranaki a new county, and to set forth the boundaries of the proposed new county: And whereas such petition has been publicly notified as by law required:

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervis, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Counties Act, 1876," do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid portion of the County of Taranaki shall, as from the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, constitute a new county, to be called the County of Clifton; and that the boundaries of the said new county so constituted shall be those particularly set forth in the First Schedule hereto; and the said new county is hereby constituted accordingly.

And I do further proclaim and declare that the said County of Clifton shall be divided into two ridings, to be called the Tikorangi Riding and the Mokau Riding, the boundaries whereof shall be those particularly set forth in the Second Schedule hereto.

And, in exercise of the like power, and with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, I do further proclaim and declare that the number of members of the County Council of the said County of Clifton shall be: For the Tikorangi Riding, three members; and for the Mokau Riding, three members.
