WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1886.

Extending Close Season for Rock-oysters in Hauraki Gulf, &c.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of March, 1886.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Fisheries Conservation Act, 1884" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is, among other things, enacted that the Governor in Council may from time to time make, alter, and revoke regulations for the purposes therein mentioned, which said regulations shall have force and effect only in any waters or places specified therein:

And whereas by Orders in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of March, the seventeenth day of September, and the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certain regulations were made in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act, prescribing a close season for rock-oysters:

And whereas it is now expedient to extend such close season and the operation of the said regulations in respect of the parts of the colony hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervois, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, do hereby make the following regulation:—

The close season for rock-oysters prescribed by the regulations made under the said Act by Order in Council bearing date the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, is hereby extended, as also the operation of the said recited regulations, until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in respect of the foreshore of the coast and of all islands in Hauraki Gulf and Frith of Thames within a line drawn from Point Rodney to the mouth of the Waikawau River, and also in respect of the foreshores of the coast and all islands adjacent thereto between Ngatoka Rarangi Point on the north, and Bream Head on the south.

Any person committing a breach of the above regulation shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one pound and not exceeding fifty pounds.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Exportation of Rock Oysters prohibited.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this twenty-fifth day of March, 1886.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is provided by the thirteenth section of "The Fisheries Encouragement Act, 1885" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), that the Governor may, by Order in Council, regulate or prohibit the exportation of any fish caught or produced in the waters of the colony: And whereas it is also provided by the said Act that the term "fish" shall include oysters: And whereas it is advisable to prohibit the exportation of the oysters known as "rock oysters":

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervois, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by the said Act, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, do hereby, from the date hereof, prohibit the exportation from the colony of all rock oysters, taken or produced in the waters of the said colony.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
