Colonial Secretary's Office,

SIR,—I have the honour, by direction of His Excellency the Governor, to transmit for your information a copy of an Act passed during the last session of the Legislative Council for regulating Chinese immigration to this colony, and to request that you will make its provisions known, as may seem to be required.

I have, &c.,
OCT. BURR,
(For Acting Colonial Secretary.)

THE following are the chief provisions of the Act referred to, which is entitled "An Act to regulate and restrict Chinese Immigration:"—

The word "Chinese" is defined to mean "any native of China or its dependencies, or of any island in the Chinese seas, not born of British parents, or any person born of Chinese parents."

Section 2. The master of every vessel having Chinese on board shall, immediately on his arrival from beyond this colony in any port of the colony, and before making entry at the Customs, deliver to the Collector or other principal officer of Customs a list of such Chinese, specifying the name, the place of birth, the apparent age, the ordinary place of residence, the place and date of shipment, and the calling or occupation of each such Chinese; and for each default herein such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred pounds.

Section 3. If any vessel shall arrive in any port in this colony having on board a greater number of Chinese passengers for any port in the colony than in the proportion of one to every fifty tons of the tonnage of such vessel, according to the registry thereof if British, and, if not, then according to the measurement defined by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," the owner, charterer, and master of such vessel shall each be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds for each Chinese passenger so carried in excess.

Section 4. Before any Chinese arriving from beyond this colony shall be permitted to land from any vessel, and before making any entry at the Customs, the master of the vessel shall pay to such Collector or other principal officer the sum of ten pounds for every such Chinese, to be applied in manner hereinafter provided; and no entry shall be deemed to have been legally made or to have any legal effect until such payment shall have been made.

And if any master shall neglect to pay any such sum, or shall land or permit to land or suffer to land or to escape from such vessel, at any port or place in the colony, any Chinese, before such sum shall have been paid by such master or his agent, or before such list shall have been delivered, such master shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for each Chinese so landed or permitted or suffered to land or to escape; and in addition to such penalty shall also pay the sum hereby required to be paid for each such Chinese.

And in every such case, in addition to any such penalty, the vessel shall be forfeited, and may be seized, condemned, and disposed of in like manner as ships forfeited for a breach of any law relating to the Customs.
