Despatch.—Importation of Cattle into United Kingdom from New Zealand.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 1st December, 1886.

THE following despatch, with its enclosures, received from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

P. A. BUCKLEY.

(New Zealand, No. 79.)

Downing Street, 29th September, 1886.

SIR,—With reference to your Despatch No. 46, of the 12th July last, relating to the regulations affecting the importation of cattle into this country from New Zealand, I have the honour to transmit to you, for communication to your Government, a copy of a letter from the Colonial Office enclosing a copy of "The Animals Order, 1886."

It will be seen that this order takes effect on the 1st November next, and that New Zealand has been added to the list of free countries enumerated in Part I. of the Fifth Schedule to the order.

I enclose, for your information and for that of your Ministers, a copy of a correspondence which took place in August last with the Agent-General of New Zealand on this subject.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD STANHOPE.

Governor Sir W. F. D. Jervois, G.C.M.G., C.B., &c.

THE COLONIAL OFFICE to the AGENT-GENERAL for NEW ZEALAND.

Downing Street, 16th August, 1886.

SIR,—I am directed by Mr. Secretary Stanhope to transmit to you a copy of a despatch (No. 46, 31st May, 1886) from the Governor of New Zealand, with copy of a letter (Council Office, 4th August, 1886) from the Agricultural Department of the Privy Council Office, respecting the regulations which affect cattle imported into England from that colony.

Mr. Stanhope, before referring to the Governor on this subject, would be glad to be informed whether you are in a position to supply the information desired by the Council Office.

I am, &c.,

EDWARD WINGFIELD.

The Agent-General for New Zealand

THE PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE to the COLONIAL OFFICE.

Agricultural Department,
Privy Council Office,
44, Parliament Street, Westminster, S.W.,
4th August, 1886.

SIR,—I have submitted to the Lord President of the Council the copy of a despatch from the Governor of New Zealand, with its enclosures, forwarded in your letter of the 24th July last, respecting the regulations which affect cattle imported into England from the colony, and requesting that New Zealand may be included in the list of countries from which animals are allowed to be landed without being subject to slaughter or quarantine.

In taking into consideration this matter, I am directed to point out, for the information of Mr. Stanhope, that the action of the Privy Council is subject to the provisions laid down in Part IV. of the Fifth Schedule to "The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1873," which enacts that, before permitting each importation from any foreign country, their Lordships shall be satisfied that the laws thereof relating to the importation and exportation of animals, and to the prevention of the introduction or spreading of disease, and the general sanitary condition of animals therein, are such as to afford reasonable security against the importation therefrom of diseased animals.

Under these circumstances, I am to suggest that Sir William Drummond Jervis might be informed of the above requirements, in order that, before the Lords of the Council arrive at a decision on the subject, an opportunity may be afforded the New Zealand Government of furnishing their Lordships with more detailed information than has hitherto been supplied on the various points referred to in the Act of Parliament.

I am, &c.,

CHAS. L. PEEL.

The Under-Secretary of State, &c., Colonial Office.

The AGENT-GENERAL for NEW ZEALAND to the COLONIAL OFFICE.

7, Westminster Chambers, London. S.W.,
30th August, 1886.

SIR.—I have had the honour to receive your letter of the 16th instant, covering copies of a despatch from the Governor of New Zealand, and of a letter from the Agricultural Department of the Privy Council, on the subject of the importation of cattle into this country from the colony, and inquiring whether the particulars desired by the Council Office could be supplied here.

I observe from those papers that the New Zealand Ministers had sent in to the Governor copies of the Colonial Sheep Act of 1878 and Diseased Cattle Act of 1881, so that I assume they are before the Council Office. I now beg permission to supplement them by enclosing copies of the Orders in Council promulgated by my Government in 1884, under the Cattle Act, which I hope will satisfy the Lords of the Council that the colonial regulations now in force affecting the importation and exportation of animals, and designed to prevent the introduction or spreading of disease, are such as to afford that reasonable security which is required against the risk of any diseased animals being brought to this country from New Zealand.

I take this opportunity of also enclosing a copy of the latest report upon the condition of the sheep in the colony, which may perhaps be of interest to the Agricultural Department.

I have, &c.,

F. D. BELL.

The Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE to the COLONIAL OFFICE.

Agricultural Department,
Privy Council Office,
44, Parliament Street, Westminster, S.W.,
23rd September, 1886.

SIR.—With reference to your letter of the 6th instant, transmitting a copy of a letter, with its enclosures, from the Agent-General for New Zealand, and former correspondence on the subject of the regulations affecting the importation of cattle into this country from the colony, I am directed to state, for the information of Mr. Stanhope, that the matter having been submitted to the Committee of Council for Agriculture, their Lordships have decided to accede to the request of the New Zealand Government, and permit animals brought from that colony to be landed without being subject to slaughter or to quarantine.

I am further directed to transmit a copy of the Animals Order of 1886, which will take effect on the 1st November next, in which order New Zealand has been added to the list of free countries enumerated in Part I. of the Fifth Schedule to the order.

I am, &c.,

CHAS. L. PEEL.

The Under-Secretary of State, &c., Colonial Office.

Downing Street, 8th September, 1886.

SIR.—With reference to previous circular despatches on the subject of the Commercial Convention with Spain, I have the honour to transmit to you, for information in the colony under your Government, copy of a public announcement which appeared in the London Gazette on the 3rd instant, respecting certificates of origin for British goods exported to Spain.

CERTIFICATES OF ORIGIN FOR BRITISH GOODS EXPORTED TO SPAIN.

Foreign Office, 3rd September, 1886.

HER Majesty's Minister at Madrid has reported that, under the existing Spanish Customs Regulations, certificates of origin are required. A simple declaration of the shipper of goods to the effect that they are of British origin will, however, be deemed sufficient at the Spanish Customhouses. This declaration is to be made before the Chief Officer of Customs at the port of shipment; and shippers are recommended to make it on the specification of goods in the following form, viz. :—

I, _____, do hereby declare that the goods mentioned herein are of British produce or manufacture.

Exporter.

Signed and declared in my presence this _____ day of _____, 188 _____

Chief Officer of Customs.

Port of _____

This officer will sign the document on the form prescribed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs. The certificate of origin must then be vided by the Spanish Consul at the port of shipment, whose visa will be given free of charge.

Candidates for Master or Mate to pass an Examination in Colours.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 24th November, 1886.

IT is hereby notified that every candidate for a certificate of competency as master or mate is now required to pass an examination as to his ability to distinguish colours. These examinations are open to all persons serving or about to serve in the mercantile marine; and, as failure to pass the colour-test debars a person from obtaining a master's or mate's certificate, it is obviously to the advantage of persons to go up for the examination before going to sea. The fee charged for examination in colours only is 2s. 6d.

W. J. M. LARNACH.
