WELLINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1888.

Sheriffs' Districts abolished and defined.

(L.S.) Wm. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

IN pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred on me by "The Sheriffs Act, 1883," and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in this behalf, I, William Francis Drummond Jervois, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby abolish, as from the second day of March next, the Sheriff's District of Patea, as the same was described by a Proclamation dated the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the seventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and in further exercise of the said powers and authorities I do hereby alter and redefine the boundaries of the Sheriff's District of Taranaki and the Sheriff's District of Wanganui and Rangitikei, and do proclaim and declare that the same shall, from and after the said second day of March next, be those described in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF TARANAKI.

ALL that area bounded towards the north by the Mokuau River from the sea to its source; towards the south-east by a right line to a point on the Wanganui River where it is intersected by the thirty-ninth parallel of south latitude; thence by the Wanganui River to a point bearing north 39° 39' 45" east (magnetic) from the mouth of the Patea River; thence by a right line to the mouth of that river; and towards the south-west, west, and north-west by the sea to the starting-point.

THE SHERIFF'S DISTRICT OF WANGANUI AND RANGITIKEI.

All that area bounded towards the north by the Provincial District of Auckland; towards the east by the Provincial District of Hawke's Bay; towards the south by the Manawatu River; towards the south-west by the sea; and towards the north-west by the Taranaki District, hereinbefore described.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir William Francis Drummond Jervois, Lieutenant-General in Her Majesty's Army, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this first day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Sheep Districts of Marlborough, Amuri, and Canterbury amended.—Notice No. 248.

(L.S.) Wm. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Marlborough, Amuri, and Canterbury Sheep Districts, as at present constituted, should be altered and reconstituted in the manner hereinafter set forth:

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervois, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities vested in me by the eighth section of "The Sheep Act, 1878," do hereby constitute anew the Marlborough, Amuri, and Canterbury Sheep Districts, and the subdivisions thereof respectively; and I do hereby declare that, for the purposes of the said Act, the said districts and the subdivisions thereof shall hereafter be as the same are described in the Schedule hereto, including in such districts or subdivisions all boroughs within the territorial area comprised within the external boundaries of any such district or subdivision as defined in the said Schedule, although such boroughs do not actually form part of any county therein mentioned; and that such districts and subdivisions shall be known by the names set over each such district and subdivision respectively in the said Schedule.

SCHEDULE.

Despatch.—Convention with France re New Hebrides.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 27th February, 1888.

THE following despatch, received from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

T. W. HISLOP.

(Circular.)

Downing Street, 3rd December, 1887.

SIR,—With reference to my circular despatch of the 28th of October, enclosing a draft of the New Hebrides Convention, I have the honour to transmit to you copies of the Convention in French and English as actually signed.

I have, &c.,

H. T. HOLLAND.

The Officer Administering the Government of New Zealand.

No. 1.

Mr. EGERTON to the MARQUIS OF SALISBURY—(Received 19th November.)

(No. 95.—Treaty.) Paris, 16th November, 1887.

MY LORD,—I have the honour to transmit herewith to your Lordship the New Hebrides Convention, which, under the authority conveyed in your Lordship's Despatch No. 61, Treaty, of the 14th instant, I have this day signed with M. Flourens, in duplicate, one copy remaining in His Excellency's hands.

I have, &c.,

EDWIN H. EGERTON.

Enclosure in No. 1.

CONVENTION relative to the New Hebrides, signed at Paris 16th November, 1887.

THE Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of the French Republic, being desirous to abrogate the declaration of the 19th June, 1847, relative to the islands leeward of Tahiti, and also to make provision for the future protection of life and property in the New Hebrides, have agreed upon the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The Government of Her Britannic Majesty consent to proceed to the abrogation of the declaration of 1847 relative to the islands to the leeward of Tahiti as soon as the agreement hereinafter contained for the future protection of life and property in the New Hebrides by means of a Joint Commission shall have been carried out.

ARTICLE II.

A Joint Naval Commission shall be immediately constituted, composed of British and French naval officers on the Pacific Station, charged with the duty of maintaining order, and of protecting the lives and property of British subjects and French citizens in the New Hebrides.

ARTICLE III.

A declaration to that effect shall be signed by the two Governments.

ARTICLE IV.

The regulations for the guidance of the Commission shall be drawn up by the two Governments, approved by them, and transmitted to the Commanders of the British and French ships on the Pacific Naval Station within a period not exceeding four months from the date of the signature of the present Convention, should it be impossible to do so earlier.

ARTICLE V.

Immediately on the approval of those regulations by the two Governments, and the consequent withdrawal of the French military posts from the New Hebrides, the Government of Her Britannic Majesty will proceed to the abrogation of the declaration of 1847. It is understood that the assurances relating to trade and to convicts, which are contained in the note verbale of the 24th October, 1885, communicated by M. de Freycinet to Lord Lyons, shall remain in full force.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorised for that purpose, have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate at Paris, the 16th November, 1887.

Special Order of Richmond Road Board, County of Waimea.—Altering Name of Road District, and Names and Boundaries of Subdivisions.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 28th February, 1888.

THE following special order, made by the Richmond Road Board, is published in accordance with "The Road Boards Act, 1882."

T. W. HISLOP.

At the ordinary monthly meeting of the Richmond Road Board, held at the office, Richmond, on the 3rd April, 1886, all the members being present,—

In consequence of the Richmond Town District being now established, and in order to prevent confusion, it was resolved to alter the title of the Board to that of Stoke Road Board, and the subdistricts, with some alteration of boundaries, to those of Stoke, Hope, and Appleby; and the Secretary was instructed to communicate with the Chairman of the Waimea County Council to that effect.

Saturday, 4th September, 1886.—A special meeting of the Board was held, according to advertisement, at 4 o'clock p.m., all members present.

The minutes of the meeting held on the 3rd April, 1886, as to altering the title of the Board and the boundaries of the subdistricts were read. It was resolved, That the same be confirmed by special order of the Board; and the Secretary was instructed to take the necessary steps to have the same carried into effect.

Confirmed.
2nd October, 1886.

JAMES BELL,
Chairman.

I, James Bell, the younger, Chairman of the Richmond Road Board, do hereby certify that the above special order has been duly passed by the Richmond Road Board, under "The Road Boards Act, 1882."

Progress-payments for Exported Fish.

Department of Trade and Customs,
Wellington, 24th September, 1886.

WITH reference to the notification in the New Zealand Gazette of the 12th November, 1885, respecting the payment of bonuses to persons who prepare canned and cured fish for export under regulations published on the same date, it is hereby notified that progress-payments on account of such bonuses, claimed in accordance with those regulations, will now be made by this department. Claims to be for quantities not less than one ton net weight, and to be sent through the Collector of Customs at the port from which the fish was exported.

JULIUS VOGEL.

Bonus for Canned and Cured Fish for Export.

Treasury Department,
Wellington, 10th November, 1885.

IT is hereby notified that bonuses under "The Fisheries Encouragement Act, 1885," as set forth in the following sections (Nos. 8, 9, and 10) of that Act, will be paid subject to the conditions named therein, and in the regulations contained in the Order in Council of even date herewith.

JULIUS VOGEL.

8. In order to encourage the production and curing of fish for export, the Colonial Treasurer shall during the next seven years after the passing of this Act, without further appropriation by Parliament, pay out of the Consolidated Fund to any person who shall prepare canned and cured fish for export, and actually export the same from the colony, a bonus or bonuses upon the quantity of canned and cured fish prepared and exported by such person as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,—

- (1.) In respect of the first 200 tons avoirdupois of fish canned with or without oil, the sum of 1d. per pound, the weight of the cans not to be included in the tonnage upon which such bonus is paid;
- (2.) In respect of every ton avoirdupois of fish canned as aforesaid beyond the first 200 tons, the sum of ½d. per pound, the weight of the cans not to be included in the tonnage upon which such bonus is paid;
- (3.) In respect to cured fish the bonus to be paid shall be respectively ¼d. and ½d. a pound under similar conditions, as far as the same are applicable to those contained in the two last subsections.

9. The total tonnage upon which the Treasurer may grant bonuses as aforesaid under this Act shall not exceed 6,000 tons.

10. Every person intending to apply for the grant of a bonus shall register a special trade-mark under the laws for the time being in force in New Zealand providing for the registration of trade-marks, such trade-mark to be used for all cured and canned fish to be prepared for export by such person, and shall, within six years after the passing of this Act, give notice to the Treasurer of his intention to export canned and cured fish with a view to applying for a bonus, and shall append to such notice a copy of such trade-mark; and all cases, barrels, or cans containing fish cured and canned for export by any such person shall, before exportation, be marked with the trade-mark so registered by him, and no part of any such bonus shall be payable except in respect of cases, barrels, or cans so marked.

† This land is situated in the Pohangina District, about 19 miles from Ashurst, on the east side of the Pohangina River; access is by a made road for a part of the distance, the rest at present by the Pohangina River-bed. The area consists of hilly and undulating forest country, covered with rimu, white-pine, rata, tawa, hinaki, black-birch, with some totara and manuka in places. The soil varies from good on the flats to poor on the ridges; there is some good flat land on the river and streams and on the tops of the spurs.

Native Land Court Notice.

Rehearing granted as to Part of, and refused as to Part of, Taupo-nui-a-tia Block.

NATIVE LAND COURT, NEW ZEALAND:
DISTRICT OF AUCKLAND:

IN the matter of a decision of the Court, given on the 24th day of September, 1887, at Taupo, in the said district, upon the hearing of a claim for the investigation of land situate in the said district, and known as Taupo-nui-a-tia, and in the matter of several applications for a rehearing upon the aforesaid claim, duly made in writing by Natives thinking themselves aggrieved by the said decision:

I, John Edwin Macdonald, Chief Judge of the said Court, in exercise of the authority in that behalf vested in me, do hereby order that a rehearing as to such part of the said land as has been named or is known as Waihi No. 1, comprising 570 acres, more or less, shall be had to the extent of ascertaining whether any, and, if so, what, Natives besides those found by the said decision to be owners of Waihi No. 1 ought to have been, and are entitled to be, included among those declared to be so entitled, and that such rehearing be had at such time and place as may hereafter be appointed; and as to all other applications for a rehearing in respect of the said decision I hereby dismiss the same.

Dated this 13th day of February, 1888.

J. E. MACDONALD,
Chief Judge.
