

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

OF

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1889.

Published by Authority.

WELLINGTON, MONDAY, MAY 20, 1889.

Sons of Police Officers may be enrolled in Artillery or Torpedo Corps.

(L.S.) ONSLOW, Governor.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation dated the twelfth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, published in the New Zealand Gazette of the seventeenth day of January last, it is provided that recruits for the Artillery and Torpedo Corps shall, with certain exceptions, be selected from the members of the Volunteer Force, as in the said Proclamation mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that a further exception should be made in favour of the sons of police officers:

Now, therefore, I, William Hillier, Earl of Onslow, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by "The Defence Act, 1886," do hereby proclaim and declare that, from and after the date of the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, the sons of police officers of whatever rank may be enrolled in the Artillery or Torpedo Corps of the colony without previous training in the Volunteer Force: provided the applicants be not less than five feet nine inches in height, nor more than twenty-five years of age, and do produce satisfactory certificates of character and medical certificates of fitness.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Right Honourable William Hillier, Earl of Onslow, of Onslow in the County of Salop; Viscount Cranley, of Cranley in the County of Surrey; Baron Onslow, of Onslow in the County of Salop, and of West Clandon in the County of Surrey; Baron Cranley, of Imbercourt; Baronet: a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at the Government House, at Wellington, this sixteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

THOS. FERGUS.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

In the matter of a Bill to enable the Wellington and Manawatu Railway Company (Limited) to expend such part of its capital in draining the Makererua Swamp as may be necessary for that purpose.

NOTICE is hereby given that the above-named company intends to present a petition to the General Assembly of New Zealand, at its next ensuing session, praying for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the company to expend such part of its capital in draining the Makererua Swamp and other swamp lands of the company as may be necessary for that purpose; and that copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the office of the Examiner of Standing Orders on the 19th day of June, 1889.

sited in the office of the Examiner of Standing Orders on the 19th day of June, 1889.

In the matter of a Private Bill entitled "The Church Property Trustees (Canterbury) Indemnity Act, 1889."

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the General Assembly of New Zealand, in Parliament assembled, at its next session, on behalf of the Church Property Trustees (Canterbury), for leave to introduce a Bill enabling the said Trustees, out of any moneys for the time being in their hands, forming part of or arising from the estates known as "General Church Property Estate," and "The Dean and the Chapter Estate," to pay to the mortgagees nominated on behalf of the holders of the debentures for the loan of £50,000, borrowed by the said Church Property Trustees, the sum of £858 16s., being the amount paid by them for property-tax on the said loan and interest thereon, pursuant to the provisions of the above-intended Act; also the law-costs incurred by the said mortgagees in a certain action commenced by them against the Church Property Trustees, and decided in the Court of Appeal in New Zealand adversely to the said mortgagees: Provided always that nothing in the said Act shall authorise any further payment of moneys by the said Church Property Trustees for property-tax or other taxation for or in respect of the said mortgage debt of £50,000, or in any way alter or interfere with the liability of the said mortgagees to pay the property-tax, or any other taxation, for or in respect of the said sum of £50,000.

Copies of the above Bill will be deposited in the Examiner's Office on or before the 1st day of July, 1889.

Dated this 17th day of May, 1889.

By order of the Church Property Trustees.

GARRICK, COWLISHAW, AND FISHER,

Solicitors to the Bill.
