SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS for payment of interest on balances of estates held in the Public Trust Office, where the instruments under which such estates were vested do not otherwise prescribe:—

In respect of sums to remain for a fixed period,—

1. Any sum exceeding £100, received on account of an estate, which sum is not required to be withdrawn for a period of not less than three years, shall be invested under the direction of the Board, in one or other of the securities prescribed by section 25 of "The Public Trust Office Act, 1872."

3. When any balance at credit of an estate or any distributive share shall be paid, interest (if allowable) shall be added thereto up to the end of the quarter next preceding such payment.

4. As to estates under administration, such additions of interest shall not be actually credited unless and until the same shall be required on the distribution or payment out, in pursuance of any sufficient demand or direction, to any person or persons entitled thereto, of his, her, or their own right, or by representation; or the income is required for the purpose of, and properly payable out for, maintenance; in which cases the same shall be credited, allowed, and paid quarterly, half-yearly, or annually, as the occasion may require.
