Description of Land: These sections form part of the original Masterton-Mangahao Special-settlement Block, and comprise generally hilly and undulating country, with flats in places. The forest is of mixed character, tolerably heavy, and the undergrowth is, as a rule, dense; the trees include rata, rimu, tawa, pukatea, rewarewa, hinau, miro, matai, and occasional totara; the scrub, supplejack, karamu, mahoe, pungas, &c. The soil is generally of good quality, resting on limestone and papa. The sections form a block about three miles long and two and a quarter miles broad, running north-east and south-west. Its south-eastern side is about sixty chains distant from the Mangahao River, or about five miles from Pahiatua, of which about four and a quarter miles are formed into a good dray-road. Its north-western side is on the slopes of the Tararua Range, and about ten miles from Palmerston by road, of which distance about six miles are already formed. The proposed Palmerston-Pahiatua Road intersects the block, and there is also a through road leading to Ballance Township. Horse-tracks are already cleared almost up to the northern and southern boundaries, and on all sides except the north-western, which is forest reserve; bush-felling has been done by the settlers on adjacent lands. The area is fairly well watered, and the general elevation of the country ranges from 350ft. to 1,000ft. above sea-level; the climate is mild, the rainfall copious; under such conditions the land, when cleared, will be well adapted for agricultural and pastoral pursuits.

Mr. G. T. Murray, Government Surveyor, of Pahiatua, will arrange to send guides over the block with intending selectors, if not less than three in number. The block can be easily visited in a day from Pahiatua.

Description of Land: These sections comprise about 8,000 acres, and are situated fronting and adjacent to the Rangitikei River, in the western part of the Otamakapua Block, between Te Rewa and the Sandon Special-settlement Association Block, inland of the Kiwitea district, about twenty-four miles from Feilding, the access being either by the Rangitikei River-bed or by the dray-road to Williamson's, and thence by a horse-road which leads through the West Waitapu Block, and extends north and south for some distance within this block. The area comprises extensive flats in the Rangitikei Valley, and good undulating and hilly lands at the back; the soil varies from good to first class; most of the flat being alluvial deposit, and some of the hills are covered with good loamy soil. The whole area, except some small clearings at the south-west corner, is covered by a mixed forest, including tawa, rimu, matai, kahikatea, miro, hinau, rata, mahoe, titoki, manuka, &c., and a few totara trees; the underscrub is generally dense, and consists of kawakawa, supplejacks, karamu, rangiora, horopito, and other common shrubs. The block is generally well watered by the Rangitikei River, the Mangatutu, Mangapipi, and several other small streams. The elevation of the country ranges from about 300ft. to 1,000ft. above sea-level, and the lay of the country is admirable. As the climate is equable and favourable, the capabilities of the land for all purposes of agriculture, dairy-farming, fruit-growing, &c., can hardly be exaggerated.

Intending selectors will find guides at Mr. Mountfort's survey camp on the block, and a tent will be pitched for those who may wish to devote more than a day to the inspection of the sections.

Description of Land: These sections comprise about 9,300 acres, and are situated south-east of the Township of Pahiataua, and adjoin the Tiraumea-Makuri and Mangaone-Tiraumea Blocks. The access to the sections on the north is by way of the Tiraumea and Toritea Roads, and to the southern sections by way of the Hawera and Tane Roads. The land is covered with forest—that is, the Makuri and Tiraumea valleys, and on the lower hills is generally heavy, and includes tawa, rata, hinau, and rimu, &c., whilst on the higher lands the bush is generally light, and includes mahoe, konini, rangiora, with rata, &c., and occasional totara trees. The soil is good throughout, the formation being limestone and papa. Mount Marchant is a limestone hill, and the limestone crops out on most of the sections in that vicinity. Pori Road runs along a limestone table-land, which falls away to the Tiraumea River on the west, and extends to the Puketoi Range on the east. The sections are generally well watered in the lower lands, and it is probable that permanent water can be obtained on the high limestone hills from springs and creeks. The land comprised is all well adapted for pastoral purposes, and on most of the sections there will be found convenient sites for homestead buildings, &c.

Guides will be found at Mr. Greville's survey camp on the block, and a tent will be pitched for the convenience of intending selectors.

* Subject to right of road.

Description of Land: These sections comprise part of the Puketoi country; the area of the block is about 11,500 acres, and includes the lands along both banks of the Makuri River, extending on the westward to the Tiraumea-Makuri Block, which was recently sold, and on the eastward to the top of the Puketoi Range; the block is intersected by Climie's Tiraumea-Aohanga Road-line, which will prove in the future an important main line of communication between the East Coast and the Forty-mile Bush Districts; there are branch roads also towards the Upper Makuri, Alfredton, and Woodville, and at an important centre in the block a reserve has been set aside as a site for a township, which is about sixteen miles from Pahiataua. The country comprises flats, undulating, and high hills; the general elevation above the sea varies from about 800ft. to 2,600ft. on the Puketoi Range; the formation is limestone and papa; the soil is good throughout; the country south of the Makuri apparently being similar in formation to the well-known Maungaraki and Rangitumau limestone hills; the soil on many of the sections is deep and rich. The forest growth on the block includes tawa, rata, rimu, pukatea, kahikatea, &c., with generally sufficient totara trees for homestead purposes; the scrub growth is indicative of good land. The bush on the limestone lands is generally exceptionally light. The block is well watered, and, as it falls within the belt of country between the Hawke's Bay and Wairarapa Plains, which has a good average rainfall, there seems nothing lacking to make the lands eminently suited for occupation by farmers, graziers, gardeners, and those seeking to establish a home in a rich, picturesque country, with a salubrious climate.

Intending selectors who wish to inspect the block can ride from Pahiataua via the Toritea Road to the Tiraumea River, and arrangements will be made by the District Surveyor, Mr. J. D. Climie, to send a guide to show them over the sections. A tent will be pitched at the Makuri Township

Reserve, which will be available for the use of persons who may desire to devote more than a day to the inspection.

Description of Land: The above sections are situated on the western slopes of the Waitotara River Valley, and comprise very good but generally narrow river-flats and long leading spurs with steep faces in parts. The altitude of the hills ranges from 300ft. to 1,200ft. above sea-level, the flats being only about 70ft. to 80ft. above the sea, covered by a rich alluvial deposit, quite free from floods, and well sheltered, affording excellent homestead sites at frequent intervals. The soil varies from fair to good on the slopes, but is poor on the tops of the ridges, which are covered with a narrow strip of black birch. Bush of this character sometimes burns without felling. The forest on the slopes is tawa, hinau, maire, manuka, rangiora, and the flats are generally covered with light scrub, creepers, supplejacks, nettles, tawa, &c., with some rough grass and cocksfoot in old Native clearings. The distance from Waitotara Township to the surveyed sections via Block IX. Road is about fourteen miles, and by canoe up river about eighteen miles. The river is believed to be capable of being made fit for light-draft steamers at a reasonable cost. When cleared and grassed these sections should be well adapted for pastoral purposes, and the river-flats would be suitable for fruit-growing, &c.

Intending selectors will find a guide on the morning of each Tuesday, at the camp at the head of the Motoroa Road, who will conduct them through the block to the Waitotara River, where a tent is pitched; then he will conduct them through the whole of the Waitotara River lands, and back to the starting-point.

SECOND-CLASS LAND.—UNSURVEYED.

Omahine-Kaimanuka Block.

Block II., parts of Blocks IV. and V., Omahine, and parts of Blocks V., IX., and XIII., Momohaki Survey Districts, 14,500 acres; cash price, 10s. to 12s. per acre.

Description of Land: The land in the Omahine District is situated on the confiscated lands at the head of the Omahine and Ngutuera Valleys, and comprises long leading spurs with steep faces in parts, and rich flat valleys, which average about five chains in width, and flat at bottom, which, being only from 100ft. to 200ft. above sea-level, afford numerous and suitable well-sheltered homestead-sites. The altitude of the hills varies from 300ft. to 1,400ft. above the sea. The general character of the formation is sandstone and papa. The soil varies from fair to good quality on the slopes; that in the valleys being principally alluvial drift of a superior quality, which should be well suited for orchards or cropping. The forest on the ridges is mainly birch; that on the slopes includes tawa, hinau, maire, manuka, rangiora, fern trees, &c., and is generally light. The flats are open in places, growing tussock and toi grass, and in others the growth is tawa bush or scrub. The land in the Momohaki District is situated on the western slopes of the Waitotara River valley, south of the provincial boundary-line, and consists of the western slopes of the Waitotara River valley, with good but generally narrow river-flats and long leading spurs with deep gullies between. The river-flats, which are only 100ft. above sea-level, are formed of rich alluvial deposit, are quite free from floods, well sheltered, and are at sufficient intervals to provide good homestead sites. The altitude of the hills ranges from 300ft. to 1,400ft. above the sea. The soil varies from fair to good on the slopes; the tops of the ridges generally carry poor soil, and are covered with a strip of black birch. The bush on the slopes comprises tawa, hinau, maire, rangiora, &c.; the flats are generally covered with light scrub, creepers, supplejacks, nettles, tawa, &c., with rough grass in old Native clearings, and an unusual quantity of fern trees occur in the valley—an indication of good soil. The distance from Waverley to the western portion of the land is nine miles, eight and three-quarters of which is a dray-road, and the remaining quarter of a mile a felled and stumped line. The distance from Waitotara Township to the eastern part, by the Mangawhio Road, is fourteen miles, six of which is a dray-road and five a horse-track.

Special care has been taken to explore for, and mark on sale-plans, areas suitable for occupation in one holding, with homestead-sites wherever procurable, with good fencing boundaries and ample water-supply.

Intending selectors will find a guide on the morning of each Tuesday at the head of the Motoroa Road, who will conduct them through the block to the Waitotara River, where a tent is pitched; thence he will conduct them through the whole of the Waitotara River lands, and back to the starting-point.

Maungakaretu Block.

Portions of Blocks XI., XII., XV., and XVI., Ngamatea Survey District, and Blocks V., VI., IX., X., and XIII., Maungakaretu Survey District; area, 13,200 acres; price 15s. per acre for cash.

Description of Land: The lands comprised in this block consist of high hills with broken or easy faces, merging into undulating and flat land in the Wangaehu and Koukoupou Valleys. The soil is generally of fair loamy quality. The forest includes rimu, rata, hinau, tawa, tawhero, maire, matai, &c., with totara in places, sufficient generally for homestead purposes, with some good heavy timber, including totara and kahikatea, in the Wangaehu Valley. The undergrowth includes karamu, konini, akeake, wharangi, mahoe, &c. The block is well watered by the Wangaehu River, the Koukoupou Stream, &c. Should the proposed Main Trunk Railway—Marton—Te Awamutu—be constructed, it will form the natural outlet to this block, as the proposed railway-line is only twelve miles distant. The distance from Wanganui is about fifty miles. There is a dray-road for about twenty-eight miles, and a formed horse-road to within about nine miles of the block. When cleared and grassed, the country will be well adapted for pastoral purposes.

Selectors will have the privilege of choosing, subject to reasonable restrictions, the precise locality and area of their future holdings, with the additional advantage of securing good fencing boundaries on ridges and spurs where available.

A guide will be found at Mr. Humphries's survey camp, at Freeth's clearing, and a tent will be pitched for the convenience of intending selectors.

Otairi Block.

Parts of Blocks X., XI., XIV., and XV., Tiriraukawa Survey District; area, about 6,500 acres; price, 15s. per acre for cash.

Description of Land: The block is situated on Murray's Marton—Murimotu Road, six miles north of Hunterville, west of the Porewa Valley, and includes the western slopes of that valley, the dividing range between that stream and the Turakina, and the heads of the Hatawa and Haumakariri Streams. There are some small flats on the Porewa Stream. The soil is good in the valleys and slopes, and poor on part of the dividing range, but good on the range forming the northern boundary of the block, which is a broad ridge with old Native clearings on it. The block is well watered. The forest consists of tawa, hinau, matai, karamu, with occasional totaras on the north boundary range and on the slopes and in the valleys, with some kahikatea in the Porewa. The top of the dividing ridge in the centre of the block is covered with a strip of black birch, which might burn without felling, and would then take grass readily. The block is of easy access, being about four miles from the Rangatira Railway-station, on the North Island Main Trunk Railway. From the station there is a dray-road to within a short distance of the block.

Pohangina Block.

Parts of Blocks III., IV., VII., VIII., and XI., Pohangina Survey District; 9,000 acres; price 10s. to 15s. per acre for cash.

Description of Land: This block is situated on both sides of the Pohangina River, north of and adjacent to the Wanganui Harbour Board and Awahou Special-settlement blocks. The area comprises generally broken and undulating hills, intersected by deep gullies, which are gorgy in places, but there are flats on the upper and lower river terraces. The whole block is splendidly watered by the river and branch streams, and is covered with forest; that on both sides of the river north of Axup's and Anderson's runs is of the usual mixed character, including rimu, rata, hinau, titoki, maire, kahikatea, matai, and scattered totara trees. The undergrowth is very dense, comprising rangiora, supplejack, lawyer, karamu, &c. On the south-eastern part of the block there is black birch on all the ridges, but on the sides and in the gullies the bush is mixed. Durable timber sufficient for building and fencing purposes is available generally all over the block. The formation is papa and sandstone, and the soil, with the exception of patches here and there, varies from fair to good. The southern part of the block is distant from Ashurst about ten miles, six miles of which is by dray-road, the rest by pack-track along the river-bed. The country is from 600ft. to 1,600ft. above the sea-level; the climate is moist and favourable, tending to make the lands well adapted for pastoral pursuits.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Governor, this twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.
