ONSLow, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington, this second day of July, 1889.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section two hundred and twenty-seven of "The Licensing Act, 1881" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is provided that if, through any accidental or unavoidable impediment, misfeasance, or omission, anything required by the Act to be done is omitted to be done, or is not done within the time fixed, the Governor in Council may take all such measures as may be necessary for removing such impediment or rectifying such misfeasance or omission, and may validate anything which may have been irregularly done in matter of form, so that the intent and purpose of the Act may have effect: And whereas the annual meeting of the Waipawa Licensing Committee was fixed for the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine: And whereas it appears that Henry Lewis Jull duly delivered, posted, and published (except as hereinafter appears) the notices necessary to entitle him to apply at the annual meeting of the Waipawa Licensing Committee for a publican's license for a house to be called "The Exchange Hotel:" And whereas, after the delivery, posting, and publishing of the notices as aforesaid, and before the holding of the annual meeting, the building described in the said notices (together with the notice posted on the front door thereof) was destroyed by accidental fire: And whereas a building adjacent to such house was not destroyed, and such building would be included in the licensed premises within the meaning of "The Licensing Act, 1881," by virtue of a license granted for the house so destroyed as aforesaid, but reference to such building was unintentionally omitted from the notices delivered, posted, and advertised as aforesaid: And whereas the Waipawa Licensing Committee, being satisfied that that part (not destroyed by fire) of the premises in respect of which the license was sought contained sufficient accommodation to justify the granting of a license in respect thereof, granted a certificate for a publican's license, in pursuance of the application of the said Henry Lewis Jull, in respect of such premises, the applicant undertaking to make certain alterations and additions thereto within three months from the date of such meeting: And whereas it appears expedient to validate the notices delivered, posted, and advertised as aforesaid, and to remove any impediment to the granting of a license, in pursuance of the said application, which the destruction of the said house by fire might be considered to have occasioned:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby order and declare that the notices of application delivered, posted, and advertised as aforesaid shall not be invalid with respect to the certificate granted by the said Licensing Committee merely because they did not specifically refer to that part of the building on the premises not destroyed by fire, nor because the said notice was not posted on the front of the principal entrance-door of the said premises during the whole of the time prescribed by the said Act, and that the certificate so granted as aforesaid shall not be invalid merely because the building specifically referred to in the said application was destroyed by fire before the day appointed for the annual meeting of the Waipawa Licensing Committee.
