Rules for Steamships having Passenger Certificates authorising them to carry Passengers within certain specified Limits of the Home Trade.

(a.) Ships of this division shall, according to their tonnage, carry boats placed under davits, as required by the table for ships in Class 1, Division (A).

(b.) If the boats placed under davits in accordance with the above requirements do not furnish sufficient accommodation for all persons on board, then additional boats or approved life-rafts shall be supplied as for ships of Class 1, Division (A).

(c.) Provided that if (having regard to the avoidance of undue incumbrance of the ship's deck, and to the safety of the ship for her voyage) it is not practicable for a ship of this division to carry additional approved boats or approved life-rafts as required for ships of Class 1, Division (A), the deficiency so caused may be made up by the supply of an equivalent number of approved buoyant deck-seats or other approved buoyant deck-fittings, to the satisfaction of an Inspector or Surveyor.

(d.) Ships of this division shall also carry approved life-jackets (Rule 10, General Rules), or other similar approved articles of equal buoyancy suitable for being worn on the person, so that there may be at least one for each person on board the ship.

(e.) At least one approved life-buoy (Rule 11 (a) or 11 (b), General Rules) shall also be provided for each boat of wood or metal carried by the ship, but in no case shall less than six approved life-buoys be provided.

CLASS 6.

Rules for Steamships carrying Passengers on Short Excursions or Pleasure Trips at Sea, or in Estuaries or Mouths of Rivers, during Daylight.

(a.) Ships of this class shall carry at least two boats of Section (A), General Rules, or Section (B), placed under davits, and with proper appliances for getting them into the water.

(b.) They shall also carry other boats, approved buoyant apparatus (Rule 9, General Rules), and [or] approved life-jackets (Rule 10), sufficient (with the boats) to keep afloat all the persons on board the ship.

(c.) At least four approved life-buoys (Rule 11 (a) or 11 (b), General Rules) shall be carried.

CLASS 7.

Rules for Steamships carrying Passengers on Rivers and [or] Lakes, but not going to Sea or into Rough Waters.

(a.) Ships of this class shall carry one boat in such a position that she can readily be got into the water. They shall also carry approved buoyant apparatus (Rule 9, General Rules) or approved life-jackets (Rule 10), and approved life-buoys (Rule 11), at least sufficient, together with the boat, to keep afloat all persons carried on board.

(b.) At least four approved life-buoys shall be carried.

NOTE.—A discretion to be exercised by the Inspector and Surveyor to relieve ferry-boats in narrow waters from the operation of Rule (a) of this class.

GENERAL RULES.

1. BOATS.

NOTE.—All boats shall be properly equipped, as provided by these rules.

Section (A).—A boat of this section shall be a lifeboat properly constructed of wood or metal, having for every 10 cubic feet of her capacity, computed as in (2), at least $1\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet of strong and serviceable inclosed air-tight compartments, such that water cannot find its way into them.

Section (B).—A boat of this section shall be a lifeboat properly constructed of wood or metal, having inside and outside buoyancy apparatus together equal in efficiency to the buoyancy apparatus provided for a boat of Section (A). At least one-half of the buoyancy apparatus must be attached to the outside of the boat.

Section (C).—A boat of this section shall be a lifeboat properly constructed of wood or metal, having some buoyancy apparatus attached to the inside and [or] outside of the boat equal in efficiency to one-half of the buoyancy apparatus provided for a boat of Section (A) or Section (B). At least one-half of the buoyancy apparatus must be attached to the outside of the boat.

Section (D).—A boat of this section shall be a properly-constructed boat of wood or metal.

Section (E).—A boat of this section shall be a boat of approved form and material, which may be collapsible.

2. CUBIC CAPACITY.—The cubic capacity of a boat shall be deemed to be her cubic capacity ascertained (as in measuring ships for tonnage capacity) by Stirling's rule; but, as the application of that rule entails much labour, the following simple plan, which is approximately accurate, may be adopted for general purposes, and when no question requiring absolutely correct adjustment is raised:—

Measure the length and breadth outside and the depth inside. Multiply them together and by .6; the product is the capacity of the boat in cubic feet. Thus, a boat 28ft. long, 8ft. 6in. broad, and 3ft. 6in. deep, will be regarded as having a capacity of $28 \times 8.5 \times 3.5 \times .6 = 499.8$, or 500 cubic feet. If the oars are pulled in rowlocks, the bottom of the rowlock is to be considered the gunwale of the boat for ascertaining her depth.

3. NUMBER OF PERSONS FOR BOATS OF SECTION (A).—The number of persons a boat of Section (A) shall be deemed fit to carry shall be the number of cubic feet ascertained as in (2) divided by 10. Thus, a boat whose cubic contents are 500 cubic feet, is deemed to be sufficient for 50 adult persons. The space in the boat shall be sufficient for the seating of the persons carried in it, and for the proper use of the oars.

4. NUMBER OF PERSONS FOR OTHER BOATS.—The number of persons a boat of Section (B), (C), (D), or (E) shall be deemed fit to carry shall be the number of cubic feet ascertained as in (2) divided by eight.

5. APPLIANCES FOR LOWERING BOATS.—Appliances for getting a boat into the water must fulfil the following conditions: Means are to be provided for speedily detaching the boats from the lower blocks of the davit-tackles; the boats placed under davits are to be attached to the davit-tackles and kept ready for service at any moment; the davits are to be strong enough and so spaced that the boats can be swung out with facility; the points of attachment of the boats to the davits are to be sufficiently away from the ends of the boats to insure their being easily swung clear of the davits; the boats' chocks are to be such as can be expeditiously removed; the davits, falls, blocks, eye-bolts, rings, and the whole of the tackling are to be of sufficient strength; the boat's falls are to be long enough to lower the boat into the water with safety when the vessel is light; the life-lines fitted to the davits are to be long enough to reach the water when the vessel is light; and hooks are not to be attached to the lower tackle-blocks.

6. EQUIPMENTS FOR COLLAPSIBLE OR OTHER BOATS AND FOR LIFE-RAFTS.—In order to be properly equipped each boat shall be provided as follows:—

- (a.) With the full (single-banked) complement of oars, and two spare oars;
- (b.) With two plugs for each plug-hole, attached with lanyards or chains, and one set and a half of thole pins or crutches, attached to the boat by sound lanyards;
- (c.) With a sea-anchor, a baler, a rudder and tiller, or yoke and yoke-lines, a painter of sufficient length, and a boat-hook. The rudder and baler to be attached to the boat by sufficiently long lanyards, and kept ready for use.
- (d.) A vessel to be kept filled with fresh water shall be provided for each boat.
- (e.) Life-rafts shall be fully provided with a suitable equipment.

7. ADDITIONAL EQUIPMENTS FOR BOATS OF SECTION (A) AND SECTION (B).—In order to be properly equipped, each boat of Sections (A) and (B), in addition to being provided with all the requisites laid down in (6), shall be equipped as follows (but not more than four boats in any one ship require to have this outfit):—

- (a.) With two hatchets or tomahawks, one to be kept in each end of the boat, and to be attached to the boat by a lanyard;
- (b.) With a mast or masts, and with at least one good sail, and proper gear for each;
- (c.) With a life-line, in loops run round the outside of the boat and securely made fast;
- (d.) With an efficient compass;
- (e.) With one gallon of vegetable or animal oil, in a vessel of an approved pattern, for distributing it in the water in rough weather;
- (f.) With a lantern trimmed, with oil in its receiver sufficient to burn eight hours.

8. NUMBER OF PERSONS FOR LIFE-RAFTS.—The number of persons that any approved life-raft for use at sea shall be deemed to be capable of carrying shall be determined with reference to each separate pattern approved by the Board of Trade; provided always that for every person so carried there shall be at least three cubic feet of strong and serviceable inclosed air-tight compartments, such that water cannot find its way into them. Any approved life-raft of other construction may be used, provided that it has equivalent buoyancy to that hereinbefore described. Every such approved life-raft shall be marked in such a way as to plainly indicate the number of adult persons it can carry.

9. BUOYANT APPARATUS.—Approved buoyant apparatus shall be deemed sufficient for a number of persons, to be ascertained by dividing the number of pounds of iron which it is capable of supporting in fresh water by 32. Such buoyant apparatus shall not require to be inflated before use, shall be of approved construction, and marked in such a way as plainly to indicate the number of persons for whom it is sufficient.

10. LIFE-JACKET.—An approved life-jacket shall mean a belt or jacket which does not require to be inflated before use, and which is capable at least of floating in the water for twenty-four hours with 10lb. of iron suspended from it.

11. LIFE-BUOYS.—An approved life-buoy shall mean either—

- (a.) A life-buoy built of solid cork, and fitted with life-lines and loops, securely seized to the life-buoy, and capable of floating in the water for at least twenty-four hours with 32lb. of iron suspended from it; or
- (b.) A strong life-buoy of any other approved pattern and material, provided that it is capable of floating in the water for at least twenty-four hours with 32lb. of iron suspended from it, and provided also that it is not stuffed with rushes, cork shavings or other shavings, or loose granulated cork, or other loose material, and does not require inflation before use.

12. POSITION OF LIFE-JACKETS AND LIFE-BUOYS.—All life-buoys and life-jackets shall be so placed as to be readily accessible to the persons on board, and so that their position may be known to those for whom they are intended.

13. VESSELS CARRYING NOT MORE THAN TEN PASSENGERS.—So much of these rules relating to the carrying of a life-boat or life-boats shall not apply to vessels unless carrying more than ten passengers.

Description of Land: The sections in the Horowhenua Block are situated in the Horowhenua District, on the Wellington-Manawatu Railway, at Levin, sixty miles from Wellington and twenty-eight miles from Palmerston North. The area is nearly level; the soil varies from fair to good. The whole area is covered by a mixed forest, including matai, tawa, hinau, and usual undergrowth, which has been cut into and utilised for Bartholomew and Dunn's saw-mill. There are no permanent watercourses; wells have been sunk on the railway-line and Suburban Section 58, and good water obtained at depths between 20ft. and 40ft. The block is situated in the centre of one of the most extensive and fertile tracts of flat country between the Manawatu and Wellington; it is intersected by the county road, and is contiguous to the Horowhenua Lake, a fine picturesque sheet of water about two miles long by one mile in width. The sea-coast is only six miles off, and has one of the finest hard sandy beaches in the colony. The general elevation of the flats varies from 100ft. to 200ft. above the sea, and the climate is equable and most favourable; the capabilities of the country for all purposes of agriculture, dairy-farming, fruit-growing, market-gardening, &c., can hardly be exaggerated, and it may be anticipated that the district is destined to be one of the richest and most densely-populated parts of the colony.

RIVERSDALE WALROND,

Additional Rules under the District Courts Acts.

ON SLOW, Governor.
ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Dunedin, this sixteenth day of December, 1889.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by the tenth section of "The District Courts Act Amendment Act, 1865" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, with the concurrence of one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, to frame general rules and orders for regulating the practice of the said Courts and the form of proceedings therein, and from time to time to rescind, suspend, alter, or amend all rules, orders, and forms then framed or hereafter to be framed, or any of them, or any part thereof; and that such original or amended rules, orders, and forms, or any rules rescinding the same or any of them, shall be in force in any District Court respectively from a day to be fixed by the Governor in Council: And whereas it appears to be expedient that rules additional to those already made should be provided for regulating the practice of District Courts:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority conferred by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, and also with the concurrence of Sir James Prendergast, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the said colony, doth hereby make and prescribe the following additional rules, and doth hereby order and direct that they shall be in force in all District Court districts on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

DISTRICT COURT RULES.

Parties.

1. ALL persons may be joined as plaintiffs in whom the right to any relief claimed is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative.

2. Judgment may be given for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to, without any amendment. But the defendant though unsuccessful shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by so joining any person or persons who shall not be found entitled to relief, unless the Court, in disposing of the costs of the suit, shall otherwise direct.

3. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative. Any judgment may be given against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable according to their respective liabilities without any amendment.

4. It shall not be necessary that every defendant to any suit shall be interested as to all the relief thereby prayed for, or as to every cause of suit included therein; but the Court or a Judge may make such order as may appear just to prevent any defendant from being embarrassed or being put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in such suit in which he may have no interest.

5. The plaintiff may, at his option, join as parties to the same suit all or any of the persons severally or jointly liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

6. Where in any suit, whether founded upon contract or otherwise, the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to redress, he may join two or more defendants, to the intent that in such suit the question as to which, if any, of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties to the suit.

7. Trustees, executors, and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of or as representing the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the parties beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such parties in the suit; but the Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order any of such parties to be made parties to the suit, either in addition to, or in lieu of, the previously existing parties thereto.

8. Where there are numerous parties having the same interest in one suit, one or more of such parties may sue or be sued, or may be authorised by the Judge to defend in such suit on behalf of or for the benefit of all parties so interested. Any application under this rule may be to the Judge, either at the trial or in Chambers.

9. Where any suit within the jurisdiction of the Court is brought to recover any lands, all persons in whom the title is alleged to be shall be plaintiffs, and the person or persons alleged to be in possession, or apparent possession, of the lands sought to be recovered shall be defendant or defendants.

Joinder of Causes of Suit.

10. No cause of suit shall, unless with the leave of the Judge, be joined with a suit for the recovery of land, except claims in respect of mesne profits, or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or any part thereof, or damages for breach of any contract under which the same or any part thereof are held.

11. Claims by an Official Assignee in Bankruptcy as such shall not, unless by leave of the Judge, be joined with any claim by him in any other capacity.

12. Subject to the two preceding rules, a plaintiff may unite in the same suit several causes of suit without leave of the Court.

13. Claims by or against husband and wife may be joined with claims by or against either of them separately.

14. Claims by or against an executor or administrator, as such, may be joined with claims by or against him personally, provided the last-mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator.

15. Claims by plaintiffs jointly may be joined with claims by them or any of them separately against the same defendant.

16. If at any time it appears, or is made to appear, to the Court that the causes of suit united or claims joined in any suit cannot be conveniently tried and disposed of together, it may order separate trials, or may exclude any such cause of suit or claim, and may order the particulars to be amended accordingly, and may make such order as to costs as may be just.

Particulars of Claim.

17. In all cases of ordinary account, such as partnership executorship, or ordinary trust accounts where the plaintiff in the first instance desires to have an account taken, the particulars shall contain a claim that such account be taken.

18. In all cases where the assignee of any debt or other legal chose in action sues, he shall state on his particulars the name and description of the assignor.

19. Where the suit is brought to recover any lands the plaintiff shall at the time of entering the plaint file a statement, in writing, containing a full description of the property sought to be recovered.

20. Where the plaintiff seeks to obtain payment or satisfaction, relief, redress, or remedy upon more than one cause of suit or claim he shall state in his particulars the grounds of each claim separately, and shall also state separately the payment or satisfaction, relief, redress, or remedy he claims in respect of each.

Service in Particular Cases.

21. Service of any summons, notice, or other proceeding upon an attorney or agent in any case where such attorney or agent may be sued shall have the same force and effect as if the principal had himself been personally served, within the jurisdiction, with such summons, notice, or other proceedings.

22. Where the defendant is an aboriginal native of New Zealand, a true and correct translation into the Maori language of the summons and particulars of claim shall be served upon him, and the plaintiff shall be allowed to include in his claim a sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence per folio of seventy-two words for the cost of such translation.

23. Where the plaintiff is an aboriginal native as aforesaid, a true and correct translation into the Maori language of any defence shall be served upon him, and a similar charge for the cost of such translation may be included in such defence.

24. Service of a summons to recover land or tenements may in case of vacant possession, or if the defendant cannot be found, and his place of abode shall not be known, or admission to such land or tenements cannot be obtained for serving the summons, be made by posting a copy of the summons on some conspicuous part of the property, and such affixing shall be deemed good service on the defendant.

25. In any case not provided for by the rules service shall be effected in such manner as the Court shall direct.

Special Defences.

26. Where, in his defence, the defendant relies upon a statutory defence, he shall in such defence set forth the year, chapter, and section of the statute or ordinance on which he relies, or the short title thereof.

27. Where a defendant claims to be entitled, as matter of defence, to any equitable estate or right, or to relief upon any equitable ground against the claim of the plaintiff, he shall, five clear days before the return-day, file a concise statement of the estate or right he so claims, and shall show concisely the circumstances which give rise to such defence, and set forth separately each of the grounds of equitable defence.

28. Where in any suit for libel or slander the defendant relies, as a defence, upon the fact that the libel or slander is true, he shall in his defence set forth that the libel or slander complained of is true in substance.

29. If in any such case the defendant intends to rely upon an apology in mitigation of damages under section 1 of 6 and 7 Vict., cap. 96, or upon an apology and payment into Court by way of defence under section 2 of that Act, he must give notice in writing of such intention, signed by himself or his solicitor, to the Clerk five clear days before the day appointed for the trial.

Evidence.

30. The forms of process and proceedings for the time being in use under "The Resident Magistrates Evidence Act, 1870," with such alterations as may be necessary to adopt the same to the practice in District Courts, may be used in all proceedings under section 10 of "The District Courts Acts Amendment Act, 1888."

Discontinuance and Disclaimer.

31. If the plaintiff desires to discontinue the suit or matter against all or any of the parties thereto he shall give notice in writing to the Clerk, and by post or otherwise to the party or parties as to whom he so desires to discontinue the suit or matter; and after the receipt of such notice the party may apply for an order against the plaintiff for the costs incurred before the receipt of such notice, and of attending the Court to obtain the order.

32. The defendant may file a statement disclaiming any interest in the subject-matter of the suit, or admitting or denying any of the statements in the plaintiff's particulars, or raising any question of law on such statements without admitting the truth thereof, or he may therein state concisely any new fact or document upon which he intends to rely as a defence or to bring to the notice of the Court, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted by the Clerk to the plaintiff: Provided that, in exercising his discretion as to costs, the Judge shall consider the fact of a defendant having or not having availed himself of the powers given by this rule.

Discovery and Inspection of Documents.

33. Upon the application of either party, and an affidavit of belief that any documents to the production of which he considers he is entitled for the purpose of discovery or otherwise are in the possession or power of the opposite party, the Court may order that the party against whom such application is made (or, if such party is a corporate body, that some officer, to be named for such body) shall answer on affidavit, stating what documents he has in his possession or power relating to the matters in dispute, or what he knows as to the custody they or any of them are in, and whether he objects (and, if so, on what grounds) to the production of such as are in his possession or power; and upon such affidavit being made the Court may make such further order thereon as shall be just.

34. Where plaintiff or defendant is desirous of inspecting any document or instrument in which he has an interest, and to the production of which he is entitled for the purposes of the suit, and which shall be in the possession or power or under the control of the other party, such plaintiff or defendant may give notice to the party that he or his solicitor desires to inspect any such document or instrument, describing the same, at any place to be appointed by the other party. If such other party neglect or refuse to appoint such place, or to allow such plaintiff or defendant or his solicitor to inspect such document or instrument within two days after receiving such notice, the Court may, in its discretion, on the day of hearing adjourn the cause, and make such order as to costs as it shall think fit.

Forms.

35. The Clerks of Courts shall frame the forms required under these rules, using as guides the forms of proceedings already in use under the present rules and orders regulating the practice of District Courts.

Matters not provided for.

36. Despatch.—Provisions of (Imperial) Revenue Act respecting Shares on Colonial Registers and Life Assurance Policies.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 16th December, 1889.

THE following despatch, received from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

W. R. RUSSELL.

(Circular.)

Downing Street, 13th September, 1889.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you a copy of the Imperial Revenue Act of 1889, and to request that you will cause sections 18 and 19 to be published for information in the colony under your Government.

During the sittings of the Colonial Conference in 1887 the attention of Her Majesty's Government was called to "The Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883," which had the effect of requiring probate or letters of administration to be taken out both in the colony and in this country in respect of the wills or estates of colonial shareholders holding shares on the colonial registers of banks and other companies. The proceedings on the subject at pages 76 and 107 of Parliamentary Paper C. 5091, Volume I., and the papers then laid before the Conference, are printed at pages 47, 48, 49 of the Parliamentary Paper C. 5091, Volume II. The promise given in the former that this grievance should be remedied has now been redeemed by the passing of section 18 for the purpose.

A somewhat similar complaint was brought to the notice of Her Majesty's Government in connection with policies of life insurance issued in the colonies by insurance companies carrying on business in the colonies, but having their head office in the United Kingdom. The sums recoverable under such policies were held to be assets situated in the United Kingdom; and under section 11 of "The Imperial Revenue Act, 1884," the production of a grant of representation from a Court in the United Kingdom, by probate, or letters of administration, or confirmation, was necessary to establish the right to recover or receive such amounts.

The hardship of this provision upon persons who had no real connection with the United Kingdom has been recognised, and section 19 has been passed to remove it.

I have, &c.,
KNUTSFORD.

The Officer Administering the Government of New Zealand.

[Extract from Revenue Act, 1889, 52 and 53 Vict., ch. 42.]

18. Notwithstanding provision (b) in section seven of "The Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883," the share or other interest of a deceased member, registered in a colonial register under that Act, who shall have died domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, shall, so far as relates to British duties, not be deemed to be part of his estate and effects situated in the United Kingdom, for or in respect of which probate or letters of administration is or are to be granted, or whereof an inventory is to be exhibited and recorded.

19. The proviso to section eleven of "The Revenue Act, 1884," is hereby repealed, and that section shall be read as if the following proviso were therein inserted in lieu of the repealed proviso:—

Provided that, where a policy of life assurance has been effected with any insurance company by a person who shall die domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, the production of a grant of representation from a Court in the United Kingdom shall not be necessary to establish the right to receive the money payable in respect of such policy.

ROCK REPORTED BETWEEN THOMPSON SOUND AND DOUBTFUL SOUND, WEST COAST, MIDDLE ISLAND.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 10th December, 1889.

THE master of the s.s. "Omapers" reports that the ship, when drawing 12ft. 7in. water, and when passing from Thompson Sound to Doubtful Sound, struck on an unknown sunken rock, the exact position of which is doubtful, no bearings having been taken. The master, however, assumes the position to be a little over one-third of the distance from Secretary Island to Seymour Island, the small island lying off Wood Head. After striking, a search was made in a boat, but the rock could not be found. It is therefore probable that it is small, and of a pinnacle form.

Terms and Conditions.

The lease will be for an absolute term of twenty-one years, renewable for a further term of twenty-one years, in accordance with section 209 of "The Land Act, 1885."

Improvements equal in value to one year's rent must be effected in each year for the first two years, and before the end of the sixth year an additional amount, equal to two years' rent, must also be expended.

Valuations for permanent improvements, as described in sections 210 and 214 of "The Land Act, 1885," will be paid at the expiry of the leases to the outgoing tenants.

No person can take up more than one run. No person who owns freehold land or land held under lease or license from the Crown which in all would exceed 21,000 acres, or who is incapable of making the declaration prescribed by section 200 of "The Land Act, 1885," can become a lessee.

Every lessee will have to reside on the land he leases within twelve months of the commencement of his lease, and thereafter for a period of six consecutive years. But the Land Board may relax this condition in the case of any lessee who is actually residing on any freehold or leasehold land of his own which is situated within ten miles of the land leased by him.

For a period of fourteen years from the date of the lease one-fourth of the rent will be handed over to the County Council or Road Board of the district, to be expended in the maintenance or construction of the roads leading to and opening up the land.

Intending purchasers must be prepared to hand to the auctioneer, on the fall of the hammer, a declaration signed and witnessed by a Justice of the Peace, as required by section 200 of "The Land Act, 1885." In the event of any purchaser failing to produce the required declaration, the lot will be put up again and resold.

The first half-year's rent, from the 1st March, 1890, to the 31st August, 1890, together with £1 11s. for the lease, must be paid at the sale.
