SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for information and publication in the colony under your Government, a copy of "An Act to amend the Law relating to the Use of Flags in the British Merchant Service" [52 and 53 Vict., cap. 73], passed in the last session of Parliament. I also enclose, for publication and for insertion in any volumes of the colonial regulations in use in the colony, an amended

CHAPTER 73.

AN ACT to amend the Law relating to the Use of Flags in the British Merchant Service. [30th August, 1889.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Explanation of law as to national colours for ships.

1. The red ensign usually worn by merchant-ships, without any defacement or modification whatsoever, is hereby declared to be the proper national colours for all ships and boats belonging to any subject of Her Majesty, except in the case of Her Majesty's ships or boats, or in the case of any other ship or boat for the time being allowed to wear any other national colours in pursuance of a warrant from Her Majesty or from the Admiralty.

Penalty on ship not showing colours.

2. (1.) A ship belonging to any subject of Her Majesty shall, on a signal being made to her by one of Her Majesty's ships, and on entering or leaving any foreign port, and if of fifty tons gross tonnage or upwards shall also on entering or leaving any British port, hoist the proper national colours.

(2.) If default is made on board any such ship in complying with the requirements of this section, the master of the ship shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Provided that this section shall not apply to any sea-fishing boat duly registered, lettered, and marked as required by the Acts relating to the sea fisheries.

Amendment of section 105 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

3. (1.) Any penalty incurred under section one hundred and five of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," in respect of the improper hoisting of colours or of a pendant on board any ship or boat belonging to any subject of Her Majesty, with the costs of recovering the penalty, may be recovered in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England or Ireland, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court within Her Majesty's dominions.

(2.) Any offence mentioned in that section may also be prosecuted, and the penalty for it recovered, in the same manner as if the offence were an offence declared by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to be punishable by a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Provided as follows:—

(a.) Where any such offence is prosecuted as last aforesaid, the Court imposing the penalty shall not impose a higher penalty than one hundred pounds; and

(b.) Nothing in this section shall authorise the imposition of more than one penalty in respect of the same offence.

Definition of Her Majesty's ships.

4. The expression "one of Her Majesty's ships" includes any vessel being under the command of an officer of Her Majesty's navy on full pay.

Saving for Admiralty.

5. Nothing in this Act shall affect any power of the Admiralty in respect of the red ensign usually worn by merchant-ships.

Title and construction of Act.

6. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping (Colours) Act, 1889," and shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1887, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1889.

PARAGRAPH IN SUBSTITUTION FOR NO. 6 OF SECTION 432, IN CHAPTER 20, RELATING TO THE USE OF FLAGS.

6. All other vessels registered as belonging to one of Her Majesty's colonies or dependencies will fly the red ensign without any badge. (See section 1 of 52 and 53 Vict., cap. 73.) There will, however, be no objection to colonial merchant-vessels carrying distinguishing flags with the badge of the colony thereon, in addition to the red ensign, provided that such flag does not infringe the limits laid down in section 105 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

5. It shall not be lawful for any person to negotiate, either on his own behalf or as agent or trustee for any other person, for the purchase, conveyance, transfer, lease, exchange, or occupation of any Native land, or of any land, or any estate, right, title, or interest therein, or for any agency or authority to deal therewith or in relation thereto, unless such land is now owned under Crown grant, memorial of ownership, or certificate of title issued under either a Native Land Court Act or a Land Transfer Act to not more than twenty Natives, or unless such land shall hereafter become and shall have been so owned for forty days.

6. Forthwith upon any land hereafter becoming owned by not more than twenty Natives as aforesaid, it shall be a duty of the Chief Judge to notify the same in the Gazette, and also the name and description of the land, and the time when the said forty days will expire.

7. Any person who, on his own behalf or as agent or trustee for any other person, shall take or accept any conveyance, lease, transfer, gift, or other assurance from any Native, whether to himself solely or to himself and others, of any Native land or of any land not heretofore owned as aforesaid, or which, becoming hereafter so owned, shall not have been owned for forty days as aforesaid, or who shall be a party to any negotiation, agreement, contract, or promise for the making to him, or to him and others, or to any other person, of any such conveyance, lease, transfer, gift, or other assurance, or for the accepting or giving of any such

A selector may purchase for cash any of the sections, not exceeding 640 acres of first-class land and 2,000 acres of second-class land; or may take up, on deferred payments, 640 acres of land; or, on perpetual lease, 640 acres of first-class land or 2,000 acres of second-class land. If the selector wishes to acquire any section on deferred payments, an addition of one-fourth to the cash price will be made. If the selector wishes to take up a section on perpetual lease, the annual rental will be 5 per cent. on the cash price of the land.

The present runholders have the right of removal or sale during the currency of their present licenses of any fences which are now or shall at the expiration of the said licenses be in or upon their runs.

Applications to be made at the Land Offices, Christchurch and Timaru.

Applications for unsurveyed lands must be accompanied by deposits for survey, which vary from £6 for 30 acres to not less than £66 10s. for 1,000 acres. These deposits form part of the purchase-money. For details of payment see New Zealand Gazette, dated 31st January, 1889, page 115.

No applications for additional land will be received from selectors who are in arrear with the payments on their present holdings.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS.

Applications must be made on proper forms, to be obtained at the Crown Lands Offices, Christchurch and Timaru, and must be accompanied by the statutory declaration required by the system under which the application is made; also by a deposit of, with perpetual-lease applications, a half-year's rent and 30s. lease fee; with deferred-payment applications, a half-year's instalment and 21s. license-fee; and, with cash applications, one fifth of the total price.

If an applicant apply for more than one section, it is essential that he should be present at the drawing for priority of choice, either personally or by duly-authorized agent, to avoid confusion in the event of his being successful for two or more sections.

Cheques forwarded as deposits must be marked by the bank on which they are drawn as "Correct for fourteen days."

WM. R. E. BROWN,
Registrar-General.

* It is not unlikely that in some instances the places given under the heading "Residence" are not the present places of abode of the respective persons. They have been copied, however, as they stand in the General Register; and if they are inaccurate in any case it is because the changes of residence have not been officially notified to the Registrar-General, as it is obviously desirable that all such changes should be.—W.
